CONFSSION OF PASQUALE NOT BELIEVED TRUE

Officers Now Convinced "The Crank's" Confession Yesterday Was a Falsehood

In Fact Officer Lenhart Says He Is Confident Child Will Be Given to His Mother by Next Friday; Continue "Crank's" Farm

Philadelphia, Oct. 12.—Investigation of the latest confession of August Pasquale, "The Crank," in which he is alleged to have told Major Lynn Adams, head of the state police, that he accidentally smothered his child while stealing the baby from the home of its parents in Norristown last June, was continued today.

Pasquale, according to Major Adams, said that when he lifted the child from its crib, it started to cry, and that he placed it under his coat, which he buttoned tightly. After making his escape and running some distance, he unbuttoned the coat and found the child dead.

Search of the woods and swamps around Egg Harbor and New Gretna, Pa., failed to reveal any trace of the child's body. It was in the neighborhood of Egg Harbor that Pasquale purchased a small farm shortly after he succeeded in obtaining the $12,000 from George Coughlin, the missing child's father, on the promise to return the boy and its mother.

The authorities stated today the investigation would be continued. The governor called upon the state adjutant general and sheriffs of counties where there are likely to be disturbances to use all power at their command to "suppress these night riding outrages."

HORRIBLE CRIME BY MICHIGAN FARMER

Confesses to Chloroforming His Two Little Daughters and Burying Their Bodies

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 12.—Earl Roop, a farmer, living near here, today confessed, according to Sheriff Silsbee, that late yesterday he chloroformed his two daughters, aged two and three years, and buried their bodies in the bed of Red river, a short distance from his home.

A few hours later he started for the sheriff's office at Mason where he surrendered and made the alleged confession. After Roop had told his story the sheriff went to the river, led by Roop, and uncovered the bodies.

Depression, according to the alleged confession, was the motive for the crime. Roop is being held on a charge of murder.

He was sitting in a chair in his night clothes with a light burning.

Mr. Foreacre, accompanied by O. E. Keyster, general superintendent, and S. J. Mulvaney, division superintendent, were on a tour of inspection. LITHUANIA DIVIDED INTO TWO COUNTRIES

Warsaw, Oct. 11.—The new central Lithuanian government, which has proclaimed the creation of a new state, says a Lida dispatch. A series of proclamations has been issued by the so-called government. The first proclaims the new state and promises to evince a diet in the future.

The second, addressed to the Polish government, asks for forgiveness for the mutiny of General Selgowski's troops and gives notice of the creation of the new state, the territory of which it is set forth, includes the town of Grodno, with the river, Niemen as the dividing line from Poland. The proclamation further asks that the Polish troops occupying central Lithuania be considered as an army of occupation. The Vilna government requests that it be allowed to send a commissary to these troops.

A third proclamation is a declaration to the Kovno government (the old Lithuanian government) proposing the opening of negotiations with reference to the future relations of the two countries.

Ukrainians Seize Kiev
Warsaw, Oct. 11.—Ukrainian insurgents have occupied Kiev, the Bolshevik forces that were holding the city abandoning it, according to advices received here.

BOTH PEACE DELEGATIONS BELIEVE THEY GOT BEST OF THE OTHER IN THE RUSSO-POLISH CONFERENCE

Riga, Oct. 13.—Experts were engaged today in completing the Ukrainian text of the armistice and preliminary peace treaty between Poland and Russia and Ukraine. Completion of this work was the preliminary to signature of the convention, which was framed after 20 days of negotiation. Many complications have arisen while the peace delegations have been deliberating on the terms of the preliminary treaty. Polish and Lithuanian troops have been fighting along the frontier between those two countries, there has been a general upsetting of stable conditions in the Baltic states, and many members of the Polish delegation have been striving to prevent M. Dombksi, the chairman of the delegation and the Polish peasants party, from strengthening their position in Warsaw.

Both Adolf Joffe, head of the Russian soviet peace mission, and M. Dombksi express satisfaction with the terms agreed upon. The Bolsheviks insist the preliminary treaty is much less favorable than the peace offered Poland last February and the failure of the Poles to have a financial settlement included in the preliminary convention has been generally regarded as a soviet triumph. Mr. Joffe has had much experience at peace conferences and the complete agreement reached by the members of the soviet delegations gave the Bolshevik chairman an advantage from the first. At no time during the negotiations has the soviet mission shown a divided front. Poland, however, obtained much more territory than it seemed likely the conference would grant when it opened, and many Polish observers regard the corridor shutting off Lithuania from Russia as a victory outweighing any concessions made.

While the principles in the negotiations insist the terms eventually will lead to the signature of a permanent treaty which will permit restoration of normal conditions in central Europe, there is much pessimism among diplomats and observers not participating in the conference.

Government Determined That Time to Use Drastic Measures Has Come

SOME PLANS PROPOSED

Leaders of Sinn Fein Regard Statement of Lloyd George as Declaration of War Against Eire

London, Oct. 12.—Leaders of the Sinn Fein Movement regard the speech made at Carnarvon, Wales, on Saturday by Premier Lloyd George as almost a "declaration of war" against Eire, in that he virtually condensed acts of reprisal against persons who have attacked the police forces in Ireland.

There are many signs, says the Dublin correspondent of the London Times, that the executive department in that city intends to bring matters to a head as quickly as possible by a concentrated campaign against disorder which by inflicting general hardships on the country may make crime and lawlessness "truly unpopular." Projected measures are said to include complete stoppage of the Irish railways, drastic reduction of the postal service until all railway workers agree to return to duty and until there is a cessation of raids on the mails.

LEAGUE TO OPPOSE LITHUANIA REBELS

Paris, Oct. 12.—Leon Bourgeois, as president of the executive council of the League of Nations, has telegraphed the head of the military mission sent to Lithuania, asking that information be forwarded from time to time as occupation forces are engaged in Vilna with a view to such action as might be useful to put an end to the occupation of the city by General Zelenskoi, the Polish insurgent commander.
