Test Case To Be Made; U. S. Claims Decision In Russian Scal Case, Made in 1888, Covers This Affair; The Opinion Was Written By Lord Salisbury

Washington, March 14 .- Attorney General Daugherty's instructions that proceedings be instituted against British vessels, Grace and Ruby, held at Boston as a liquor smuggler, may establish the right of the government to seize foreign vessels for violation of the prohibition laws, even the they are beyond the three-mile limit, it was indicated today at the justice department.

The test to be applied at Boston was to determine whether the Grace and Ruby, which were operating four miles at sea, could be held to have Authority for such a construction of government jurisdiction was said to be found in what is known as the Russian seal case. In this case, it was recalled, the British Columbian steamer Arunah was seized by Russia in 1888 for taking seals in the Behring Sea when she was off Copper Island, about six miles off nearest land. It appeared in that case that the crew of the steamer were carrying on their operations in cannors about a half mile from the shore.

Federal And State income Taxes Roll Into The Collectors

Raleigh, March 14 - (Special.) -Taxpaying time, state and federal, is bringing many thousands into the hands of Internal Collector Gilliam Grissom and Commissioner of Revenue A. D. Watts Wednesday is the last day on which the income taxes may be pald without the troublesome penalties. Payments are pouring into both state and federal offices today as the final hour approaches. There is, of course, no way of estimating how much the departments will collect, but it will be a good-sized fortune for a dozen citizens who are in the hab-II of thinking in big figures.

The federal office will collect the big end of the North Carolina taxes because it starts the state to a handicap by levying four per cent where only one per cent is levied by local officials. The state expects to collect several millions when the returns are totaled and the Federal government will have several times that
