

REBECCA WHEELER NATIONAL'S CHIEF AT GYMNASIUM FOR THE 57 YEARS OLD TODAY

Messages Carrying Birthday Greetings Received, Some From Foreign Rulers

Spent the Day Quietly Two Years Ago Today Mr. Harding Was Elected President; His Health Is Said To Be Better Now Than For Some Months Past, He Taking More Time Outdoors

Washington, Nov. 2—President Harding today celebrated the fifty-seventh anniversary of his birth almost as quietly and simply as the average American citizen observes a birthday.

There were no indications at the White House of anything more than just an ordinary day in the life of the chief executive.

The President's plans called for his appearance at his office at the regular time, the usual forenoon round of conferences, the customary noon-day period devoted to meetings, visitors, luncheon, and then perhaps a few hours of golf.

Close acquaintances of Mr. Harding remarked today on the recent improvement in his physical condition. A month ago the strain of two years—for it was just two years ago that Mr. Harding was elected to the presidency—had become noticeable.

Heading the advice of his physicians, the President for a month has devoted more time to rest and has spent more time on the golf links.

While it undoubtedly would be rash to assume that Labor is doomed to the same fate at the parliamentary polls as it received yesterday, nevertheless the outcome of the local elections has certainly made Labor's prospects for parliament very discouraging.

London was intensely hostile to Labor. The general feeling in the capital was manifested by the way the voters flocked to the polls despite the raw wind and furious rains.

While it undoubtedly would be rash to assume that Labor is doomed to the same fate at the parliamentary polls as it received yesterday, nevertheless the outcome of the local elections has certainly made Labor's prospects for parliament very discouraging.

Some observers profess to see a renewal of harmony between Lloyd George and his former colleagues.

The illness of Lloyd George attracts much attention. His cold and throat trouble is said by some really to be a symptom of rundown health, due to fatigue.

Comparatively few citizens of Winston-Salem have been able to watch this city grow from a village of five thousand souls to the largest city in the State, with a population of fifty thousand and more.

Washington, Nov. 2—The Greek Metropolitan and ten priests, captured by the Turks at Alvaly, were buried alive because they refused to embrace Islamism, according to a cablegram received at Athens by the Greek legation.

ENGLISH LABOR LOST HEAVILY IN CITY ELECTIONS

In London Party Lost 149 Seats And In Outside Boroughs It Also Lost Heavily IS TAKEN AS CRITERION

However, Party Intensifies Its Campaign In Hope of Making Better Showing In The General Elections Nov. 15; Big Vote Poled Regardless of Heavy Rain

London, Nov. 2—(By The Associated Press)—Stunned by the heavy down fall of their candidates in the elections throughout England yesterday, the Laborites intensified their political campaign today with the hope of making a better showing in the general election for parliament November 15.

While it undoubtedly would be rash to assume that Labor is doomed to the same fate at the parliamentary polls as it received yesterday, nevertheless the outcome of the local elections has certainly made Labor's prospects for parliament very discouraging.

THOMAS DEWITT BIG INCREASE IN CUYLER FOUND U.S. PUBLIC DEBT DEAD IN HIS CAR IN PAST MONTH

Death of President of R. R. Executives' Association Due To Apoplexy, Doctor Says HE WAS 68 YEARS OLD

Had Long Been Prominent In Railroad Affairs And During Recent Strike He Took Decided Stand Against Demand of the Strikers On Seniority Question

Philadelphia, Nov. 2—Thomas DeWitt Cuyler, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and chairman of the Railroad Executives Association, was found dead today in the private car of President Rea, of the Pennsylvania, at the Broad Street Station.

Mr. Cuyler was a lawyer, but most of his time was taken up with railroad and financial affairs. He came prominently before the country in the recent railroad shop strike by a firm stand against some of the demands of the strikers, especially that relating to seniority.

Mr. Cuyler was born in Philadelphia 68 years ago and was the son of the late Theodore Cuyler, at one time general counsel of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was graduated from Yale University in 1874 and was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia in 1876.

ITALY'S NEW CHIEF MUSSOLINI IS MAKING IT PLAIN WHO'S IN CHARGE

New Italian Premier Has Taken Hold of Affairs In Business-Like Manner THIS PLEASING COUNTRY

His Instructions To Ambassadors, Local Officers and the Press Shows He Is Not To Let Country Suffer At Home Or Abroad By The Sulkiness Of The Officials

Rome, Nov. 2—(By The Associated Press)—The authority, the energy and the earnestness with which Mussolini has taken hold of Italian affairs, both internal and external, has created a deep impression in Rome.

His imperative instructions to Count Storza to remain at his post in Paris until he had reached a decision in the cases of ambassadors who offered to resign and his circular to the prefects "re-examining" their utmost endeavor and collaboration were regarded as a strong indication of the method the new government is going to use in dealing with the business at home and abroad.

The strengthening of the line on foreign exchange markets following the change in government at Rome has favorably impressed every one in financial circles.

During a speech at the cabinet meeting yesterday Mussolini said the internal situation was rapidly becoming normal.

LIBERALS WON IN CUBAN ELECTION

Not Only Made Gains In Congress But Also Won Havana's Municipal Election

Havana, Cuba, Nov. 2—(By The Associated Press)—The Liberal party seemed to be on top in Cuban politics today as a result of their victories in the partial elections held throughout the islands yesterday.

Incomplete and unofficial returns indicated they had elected candidates as governors of six Cuban provinces and won the race for mayor of Havana, the second most important administrative post on the island.

Mr. Page was twice married—in 1886 to Miss Anne Reddon Bruce, who died in 1888, and in 1893 to Mrs. Florence Lathrop Field, widow of Henry Field, of Chicago, whose death occurred last year.

Mr. Page was author of a number of books on Southern life, among them "Marse Chan," "Two Little Confederates," and "Gordon Keith." In 1912 he produced "Italy and the World War," and two years later wrote in Italian a "Life of Thomas Jefferson."

Until recently Mr. Page had been making his home in Washington, but he closed his house there and moved to Richmond to be with relatives.

Mr. Page's service as ambassador to Italy covered a critical period in American-European relations and more than one of the important diplomatic notes passing between the United States and the Allied governments went through his hands.

SUCCEEDS CAPTAIN BEN GRAY, WHO TENDERED HIS RESIGNATION SOME TIME AGO

ADJ. GEN. METTS IN CITY

New Commander Is One of Forsyth's War Heroes, Being Captain of Co. F, 120th Infantry, In The Attack On The Hindenburg Line; He Organized Present Company

Adjutant General Metts today announced the resignation of Captain Gray, which has been in his hands for some days.

Paul E. Ledwell, who was temporarily in command, and who had recently been recommended for promotion, felt that he was not sufficiently experienced to take the full responsibilities of the organization, so Captain Beck was prevailed upon to take the place.

On a recent visit to the city, the adjutant general was accompanied by Col. Don E. Scott, commander of the 120th Infantry regiment. The two officers at that time held a conference with Mayor James G. Hanes and a number of business men of the city relative to the future of the organization.

The adjutant general stated that he had understood that the business men of the city and community were taking but little interest in the company, so he decided to visit the city and talk the matter over.
