

Published every Wednesday Morning, by THOMAS LORING.

THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISEMENTS Not exceeding a square inserted at ONE DOLLAR the first, and TWENTY-FIVE CENTS for each subsequent insertion.

Great National Work. AMERICAN MAGAZINE

OF USEFUL AND INTERESTING KNOWLEDGE. To be illustrated by numerous Engravings by the Boston Bewick Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparations for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and taste of the American Public.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty Splendid Engravings, will appear on or before the 1st of Sept.

COFFEE, FISH, POTATOES, &c. 50 BAGS St. Domingo COFFEE, 20 lbs. fresh HERRINGS, 50 Bushels Irish POTATOES, 250 cases fresh THOMASTOWN LIME, 20 boxes Lemon and Ginger SYRUP, 20 dozens BUCKETS, 12 boxes Sperm CANDLES, 6 lbs. Porto Rico SUGAR, Just rec'd and for sale by BARRY & BRYANT.

Just Received, A FRESH SUPPLY OF Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptic PILLS, At the Office of the People's Press & Wilmington Advertiser.

ANNAPOLIS, May 30.—A party of pleasure, including the family of Col. Walrath, Commandant of Fort Stevens, embarked on Monday last, and after spending a delightful day on the water, rambling over the beautiful green banks of the Severn, and partaking of a repast upon the shores of the round Bay, the schooner was returning with a party in the evening, when a sudden flaw of wind struck her—the main-boom jibed, and carried one of the young ladies overboard.

The New Steam Packet, SOUTH CAROLINA - CAPT. ROLLINS -

WILL commence her regular run between Charleston and Norfolk on Monday the 8th of June and continue to leave each place regularly, as stated below.

Table with columns for dates and destinations: NORFOLK, CHARLESTON. Tuesday, 2d June, Saturday, 13th, Thursday, 25th, Tuesday, 7th July, Saturday, 16th, Thursday, 30th, Tuesday, 11th August, Tuesday, 26th.

The South Carolina will leave Norfolk, on the day of their arrival in Norfolk, can proceed to Baltimore in the superior steam boats Peconicas or Columbus, and arrive there next morning, or taking the Philadelphia boat in the river, arrive there in the evening.

Apply to RICH'D LANGDON, Smithville, N. C. June 17, 1835. 24-18p.

NOTICE IS hereby given, that the co-partnership of A. ANDERSON & SON is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

JAMES ANDERSON, CONTINUES to transact business at the old stand, and will always have on hand a large and well assorted Stock of Dry Goods, Hardware and Groceries.

Ran away FROM the Subscriber about the middle of January last, a negro man named JOHN—usually called JOHN BUCK; he is about 32 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, not very black, square built, grave and respectful in his manner.

JUST RECEIVED, And for sale at this Office, A FEW COPIES OF SIX MONTHS IN A CONVENT, Price 75 Cents.

For Sale, 12 BBLs. double distilled GIN, 3 half pipes Cognac BRANDY, 5 cases BOOTS & SHOES, Just received per brig Majestic, and For sale by BARRY & BRYANT, May 18. 19-1f.

FOR SALE.

A TOWN LOT, situated on Second Street, East of the Methodist Meeting House, designated in the plot of the Town, No. 75, bounded by Second Street, 65 feet; thence east 530 feet; together with the improvements thereon, which consist of a small Dwelling House and Kitchen, well calculated for the residence of a small family.

A Valuable Establishment.

THE Subscriber is willing to sell or lease the premises including the site of the late Planting Mill—a most desirable situation for a Race Mill, a Cotton Factory, or Planning Mill, the front on the River being 7 lots, or 462 feet, besides the front of a Street 65 feet by which it is divided, and is bounded by another Street of 65 feet.

A LAZARUS, Wilmington, 23d June, 1835. 25-6t.

For Rent.

THE HOUSE at Smithville, belonging to the Estate of Major Blaney, possession given immediately. For terms and other particulars apply to Capt. J. DIMICK, at Smithville, or to P. K. DICKINSON, At Wilmington, June 21. 25-1f.

W. E. Blaney,

CAN be found at Dock Street, where he offers for sale: Prime and MESS PORK, Mess and smoked BEEF, Mackerel, Pickled and smoked Salmon, Pickled Tongues, Loaf and brown Sugars, Fresh Teas, Coffee, Chocolate and Cocoa, Mustard, Pepper and Pimento, Sperm and Tallow Candles, Sallad and Lamp Oil, Box Salt, Cognac Brandy and Holland Gin, Madeira, Claret, Port, Sherry and Malaga WINES, Super Spanish CIGARS, &c. June 24. 25-1f.

FOR SALE.

ADWELLING HOUSE & LOT, on Orange and Fourth Streets. The house is generally known as the 'MYROVER HOUSE', and is in comfortable order, with good Kitchen, Stables, Corn Crib, Carriage House, and a well of excellent water in the yard.

EDITORS. Newspaper editors are an abused race of beings. If a remark drops from one of them in the hurry of composition, which may not be exactly agreeable to the canons of correct taste, he never hears the last of it—it is set down as the sign of a deliberate and fixed principle in his heart, and his offence pronounced unpardonable.

FOREIGN.

FROM THE NEW YORK GAZETTE. By the arrival yesterday of the packet ship ORPHEUS, Capt. Bursley, from Liverpool, we received to the latest dates our files of papers.

Our news boat, the T. H. Smith, boarded the Orpheus, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, 30 miles S. E. of Sandy Hook.

The Indemnity Bill had not yet been brought before the Peers, they being still occupied with the trial of the Lyons prisoners.

Respecting the CONSTITUTION we find the following paragraph in the Liverpool Chronicle of the 16th ult.

The late ambassador from the United States to France, Mr. Livingston, is sojourning for a few days with his family at Plymouth. His Excellency arrived there on Wednesday, in the Constitution American frigate, 50 guns, 460 men, Capt. Elliot, bound to the United States from Havre.

Parliament resumed business on the 12th, but nothing particular had been done, the whole of the ministers not having taken their places.

An attempt has been made at Lyons to blow up, by means of a petard, a house belonging to one of the principal witnesses in the great trial. There are, however, other reasons of private enmity existing against this individual, M. Damon, assistant mayor of one of the suburbs of Lyons.

The Paris dates are to the 14th of May. The papers are engaged by the proceedings in the Chamber of Peers, to which, says the London morning Herald, the new prosecution of the press entered upon by that distinguished body through a deceased member of it (the Tribune,) had given additional interest.

Rather Balking.—A young Jonathan took it into his head one day to get a wife. He accordingly looked about him and very soon made such a selection as suited him, and was not long in striking a bargain and settling the preliminaries.

a greater degree unpopular, and attracting more and more of public attention. The German papers state that great diplomatic activity exists at Vienna, and that a rapid interchange of couriers takes place between the Austrian Court and that of England—of France, and other countries.

OHIO AND MICHIGAN.—The following is an extract from the Message of Governor Lucas, calling a special session of the legislature of Ohio, in consequence of the disagreement between that state and Michigan.— "Gentlemen—The whole subject is now before you for consideration. The question necessarily arises, what shall be done? Shall we abandon our just claim—relinquish our indisputable rights, and proclaim to the world, that the act and resolutions of the last session of the General Assembly were mere empty things?

Public officers proceeded yesterday to the office of the Tribune, to seize the number of that journal announcing that it would cease to appear, and taking leave of its subscribers; but no copies were to be found.

Twenty-three out of the twenty-nine prisoners who were brought back before the Court of Peers on Saturday and heard the act of accusation read, having signed a declaration that their presence in the Court on that occasion must be attributed solely to their involuntary repugnance to whatever resembles uproar, and that they remain immovably resolved to support all the consequences of their protest of May 7th.

The defenders of the political prisoners have published a resolution, setting forth that, as the captivity of the prisoners, and the privations of their families may be prolonged by the struggle commenced before the Court of Peers, and that persons of the Republican opinion ought to alleviate the sufferings of those who have sacrificed their personal interest to the Republican cause, the sum of 20,000*fr.* shall be appropriated to the wants of the prisoners and their families.

FROM THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER. ARISTOCRACY: WHAT IS IT? We have heard and read a great deal of nonsense within the three last years on the subject of "the Aristocracy."

In reply to the question, What is Aristocracy? General Foy, a distinguished orator of the French Chambers, gave the following striking definition: "Aristocracy in the 19th century is the league, the coalition of those who would consume without producing, live without working, know every thing without learning anything, carry away all the honors without having deserved them, and occupy all the places of government without being capable of filling them."

Marine Hospital at Wilmington.—The Wilmington paper states that the generous public spirited citizens of that place, have taken steps for erecting a Marine Hospital for sick and disabled seamen. We suggest to these gentlemen that a friend of ours stated in our presence a few days since that there is a fund in our State Treasury, raised by a tax on sailors and which by the law was to be appropriated to the aid and support of sick and disabled seamen, and that it now amounts to one or two thousand dollars.

UNFORTUNATE OCCURRENCE ON STATEN ISLAND.—At 11 o'clock A. M. June 19th, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, (widow) 64 years old, and her daughter Mrs. J. G. Wandle, with her son about 11 years of age, and an infant child, was travelling on the road to Richmond. When going down what is called Garetson's Hill (3 miles from quarantine) the horse took fright and ran, broke the wagon in pieces, and very much injured all the party, with the exception of the child, who is slightly bruised.

REPORTS UNCOURTEOUS.—We copy from the Louisville Journal the following: "The Louisville Journal professes to think that Mr. Clay can be elected to the next Presidency. Is brother Prentice a fool?—Westchester Herald.

"No—we are not quite a fool, but if the Editor of the Westchester Herald is our 'brother,' we are next akin to one.

"The New Haven Herald says: "Does the Editor of the Louisville Journal suppose, that he is a true yankee because he was born in New England. If a dog is born in an oven is he bread? We can tell the Editor of the Herald, that there are very few 'dogs,' whether born in an oven or out of it, but are better bred than he is.—Louisville Journal.

"Since preparing the foregoing, I received a communication from one John Biddle, dated Detroit, June 1, 1835, in which he states that he had been instructed by the Convention, in session at that place, to forward to me the enclosed documents. Those documents I transmit to you without comment. You will doubtless give them that consideration to which you may deem them entitled."

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.

The consequence was, that this system of savage extermination went on in a constantly increasing ratio, until the Duke of Wellington sent out Lord Elliot to endeavor to recall both parties to a sense of the obligations which civilized people, even in a state of war, owe to the laws of humanity.