FROM THE CHARLESTON COURIER.

THE INDIAN WAR. In publishing, yesterday, the article from the St. Augustine Herald, of the 19th ult., it should have been stated that it was not so late, by a week, as the extracts of letters from that place, inserted in our paper of the 31st ult. Since the former date, appearances have assumed a more threatening aspect, and may require measures of greater energy to bring the contest to a close.

We learn that Gen. Everitt, commanding upon this station, has been applied to for a Company of U. S. troops, and that they will probably be despatched for Florida, together with such Volunteers as may offer, in the steamer Champion, which leaves here to-morrow, at 3 o'clock.

The following, from the Tallahassee Floridian, of the 26th ult., affords the latest intelligence from the immediate scene of action:—

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 25th.—Seminole War.—An express arrived last evening from Camp King. The following letter has been handed us for publication. We learn from the bearer of the express, that the Tallahassee Volunteers behaved with great gallantry in the engagement. Gen. Call has 500 mounted volunteers under his command. The Regular Troops were expected to move next day. It appears by the report of the Secretary at War, that 14 companies have been ordered to assemble in the nation. We fear the contest will only terminate with the extermination of the Indians.

Continental, near Miccinopy. Monday Morning 8 o'clock, Dec. 21. Dear Son—We arrived at Fort Cromb on the day before yesterday evening, after a forced march of five days. On our arrival at this place, we received information of an attack having been made by the Indians on that day on the baggage wagons and troops of Col. Warren and a company under the command of Capt. M'Lemore, the Indians were victorious, taking all the baggage, killing 4 men, and wounding 8 or 10 more. We took up the line of march on yesterday morning, passing by the place of action, gathering up the remains of the baggage, &c. that was not taken or destroyed by the Indians, we continued our march until our advance guard arrived at the house of Mr. Hogan, near this place, where it was met by a party of Indians who had just set on fire the house of Mr. H., which was soon consumed, a brisk firing commenced with the guard, when the whole force was drawn up; the Indians took a thick scrub surrounding a small grassy pond, where they were in a short time surrounded by our troops; we killed all the Indians that were thus surrounded, 4 of which we saved, and others no doubt, were left dead in the water. They fought well. Four of our men were severely wounded; viz: Capt. Lancaster, Lieut. Johnson, Mr. Mechon, and Mr. Wallace, the latter mortal, the rest are thought not dangerous. Our Middle Florida Volunteers charged the scrub with a firmness unparalleled in the history of Indian warfare.

There is no doubt but that the Indians will make a desperate effort, and as there is no other way to meet them other than taking the thickets, we must expect to lose many of our men. The whole country, in this quarter, is ruined, the houses in ashes, the women and children in forts, and the men under arms; and strange as it may appear, the regular troops of the U. States here never fired a gun, nor made the least effort to stop the ravages of the Indians, whilst the only victory gained over these Indians, was by us, who have marched near 200 miles.

Our scouts are now out—Indian signs are reported—orders for battle are about to be given. Before night many more of our brave fellows may fall.

I must close the letter. You need not look for me until there is an end of the Indian disturbance. W. WYATT. Extract of a Letter, dated Head Quarters, Miccinopy, Dec. 21.

We have an army now under Gen. Call, of near 500 men. Gen. Clinch also is here, with a few regulars, and will in a few days have 200. Some days since, a company under Dr. M'Lemore, which was several days in advance of us, was attacked by Indians at Payne's Prairie. They were obliged to retreat to a small fort, with loss of baggage, 3 men, several horses. We passed them, and near the same place our advanced guard, under Gen. Fisher, came upon a party of Indians burning a house—they drove them into a Hammock. Col. Paris and Read rushed in at the head of a detachment, and had a pretty desperate fight. Four of our men were brought out badly wounded. Wallace may die, the others, I hope, will do well.

Another War.—We have just heard, by an express from St. Marks, that 103 Irish laborers, arrived at that place, yesterday, from St. Joseph's Rail Road, and in the evening commenced a riot, bidding defiance to the civil authority. A severe contest ensued with the citizens, amounting to about forty men, which terminated in the restoration of order. Fortunately, the citizens made but little use of fire arms, though many of the rioters are severely wounded. Fifty of them are lodged in jail. The masters and mates of vessels in port, rendered great assistance. The contest lasted about an hour.

HOW TO BRING UP CHILDREN.

Early, and active, and steady employment is the secret to bring up children.—No matter at what occupation—no matter how laborious, as long as the mind is employed—as attention is directed to proper objects of business—bad examples and bad company will be avoided.—Five or six years of a young man's time thus closely occupied, will confirm him in habits of industry; and his own resources of mind and body—his own industry and enterprise will advance him honorably in life. A rich father should always help a child when he proves his abilities to help himself, and no sooner. We have no nobility, nor titled families, nor aristocratic distinctions; yet frequently do we find an indigent, rich father, who from an humble life, has raised himself in the world, indulging his son in extravagance and idle habits—giving him money to spend in gaudy and fashion—at the race course, the hotel or billiard room—under the delusion that he never will want and that he will inherit an ample fortune. What is the result? Idleness begets vice, dissipation follows, and loss of health, of fortune and character is the inevitable result. A rich man instead of giving his son a few hundreds now and then for what are called contingent expenses, and under the fallacious idea that he must make an appearance like a gentleman, should say to him—"For every thousand dollars you earn by enterprise and industry, I will add a thousand safely invested for you, to be used at that advanced period of life when you know the value of money, and are entitled to ease and comfort." The very facility which young men have of obtaining money leads them into ruinous extravagance; and when from design or accident their means are checked, they resort to crime to furnish them the source of enjoyment.

Brandy and water, and cigars—a fast trotting horse, a pocket book with bank notes, gaming and late hours—are the rocks on which are shipwrecked many bright hopes and alluring prospects—the fond anticipations of parents, and the realization of anxiously desired blessings. Major Noah.

MOTHER'S PRODIGES.—To most young couples, the "unto us a child is born," seems something so astonishing and remarkable, that one would imagine they had never looked forward to it as a probable result of their union, nor even observed that their friends had children. Every young father and mother look upon their "first baby" as Adam and Eve must have looked at Cain that first specimen of manchild born into the world, with delight, wonder, and something of triumph in their own creative ingenuity. And it is a happy instinct which enables us to value these little prizes so highly—and a curious thing to reflect, as we stumble through the parks knee deep in children, that there is not one little unit in those diminutive millions that has not (God bless it) a circle of admiring relatives, to whom it is the proudest, the dearest, the cleverest, in fact, the only child that ever was worth a thought.—Woman's Reward.

"Hush a Baby."—On the second night after the conflagration, a couple of gentlemen observed a stout Irish woman making up Pearl street, near the corner of Wall, with a large bundle under her cloak. When she saw the gentlemen looking at her, she immediately commenced singing:—"Hush a baby—still a baby, Hush a baby by."

The gentlemen thinking that the poor baby was quite troublesome offered also their aid to quiet its infant restlessness.—"Oh! bless your honor, she's asleep now." The gentlemen still persisted in having a peep at the blooming little cherub. She resisted—but it was no go. On opening the cloak, they found the dear little creature, in the terror of the moment, had actually changed into an armful of the richest silk and satin goods, slightly burned at the ends. The affectionate mother was instantly secured.—[Morning Herald.]

NOBLE FELLOWS.—The Neals of Salem, are the losers of the great cargo of tea in the store of Osborn & Young. On Tuesday, the day before the fire, they were offered $60,000 profit on the whole cargo. They said to their supercargo, "shall we take it?" "I would advise you not," said he. "You can be keeping it a month make $200,000." They did so, and lost the whole. After the fire the supercargo recalled the conversation and regretted it. "No," said they, "it is all for the best.—Providence knows better than you do.—It might have been bought by some one that could not bear the loss as well as we can." Noble fellows!—[Ibid.]

An "Atlantic Silk Company," has been formed at Nantucket, whose object is the immediate establishment of a Silk Manufactory, in connexion, ultimately, with measures for the production of the raw material, by means of mulberry plantations, cocooneries, &c. They have accordingly purchased a piece of land whereon a handsome edifice, 60 feet by 30, is to be forthwith erected.
