WILMINGTON ADVERTISER.

Published by Thomas Loring.

"BE JUST AND FEAR NOT."

Wilmington North Carolina

NO. 17.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1836.

VOL. 1

PUBLISHED

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING. TERMS.

ADVERTISEMENTS Not exceeding a Square inserted at ONE DOLLAR the first, and TWENTY-PIVE CENTS for each subse-

THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

No Subscribers taken for less than one year; and all who permit their subscription to run over a year, without giving notice, are considered bound for the second year, and so on for all succeeding years.

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. Yearly advertisers, who will agree to pay $10 per year, will be allowed 30 per cent. discount, on all over that sum, and that sum included, so as not to reduce their yearly bill below $10. ow the Court House.

The charges for inserting the proceeding of political and other meetings, will be the same as for Advertisements. No attack on private character will be received, either as a communication or as an advertisement. We do not know that we can refuse political communications, when handed in as advertisements, and paid for as such. But we desire no income from this source, and can only hope that they will not be presented for publication.

Montague's Balm,

N INDIAN REMEDY for the TOOTH A ACHE, which from its established reputation, and constantly increasing demand, proves it to be all that it professes to be, an effectual remedy of pain, and preservation of the teeth. It has never failed to afford immediate and permanent

For sale by

W. A. WILLIAMS April 22.

Information

S WANTED relative to CHRISTOPHER WELDEN, a native of Galway in Ireland; who resided 3 or 4 years ago in Wilmington, N. C. the object of this mivertisement is to know where Christopher Welden is at present, he was rather short, and of a sandy complexion.

Address the publisher of the Wilmington (N. C.) Advertiser.

April 22 Dental Surgery.

W R. SCOTT, respectfully annouces to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Wilmington and its vicinity, that he is now making his annual visit to the above named place. His stay will be short, all who wish to consult hun will please apply soon.

Indies will be waited on at their dwellings if requested. April 23.

Negroes Wanted.

THE highest Cash prices will be given to young Negroes, or likely families, by WID SCITLE, Fayetteville, or RICHARD LANGDON, Smithville. Persons disposed to sell are invited to call on them, or on the subscriber at Wilmington, who may be found at WILLKINGS' Tavern. ROBERT HARTNESS.

April 23.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION. THE Temperance Convention for the DISTRICT of WILMINGTON, will meet at Hopewell Meeting House, in New Hanover Counpuested to send Delegates, and all are invited to THOMAS LORING, Sec'y.

ty. on Thursday the 12th day of May, 1835, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Temperance Societies are re

West & Marble,

NAVE this day received a large supply of Gentlemen's fine HATS, of the latest fashion among

4 doz. fine White Beaver HATS, " low Crowns & wide medium skape low Crowns. April 29, 16-3t.

School.

THE Subscriber will open a School at from Wilmington, formerly the property of A-dexander Peden, deceased, on the 23rd of May ensuing, where scholars of either sex will be instructed, in the different English branches,-Eight or ten boarders can be accommodated at $4 ding. Application can be made to the editor of this paper, previous to the above specified time, or to the subscriber.

Terms. Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, $3,00 per inglish Grammar, History, and Geography $ 4,00 per quarter.

B. W. HALSEY. April 22.

For Sale.

190 SACKS Liverpool ground Salt,

10 Casks Cheese,
Madeira, Sicily and Sweet Malaga Wine,
Madeira in Boxes of 2 dozen,
Cognuc Brandy, 1-2 Pipes,
Holland and Country Gin,
Bottles—Canaburghs,
Porto Rico & St. Domingo Caffee,
2 English Chain Cables,
Payettavilla Flour, and Tobasso tteville Flour, and Tebacco, Box Tobacco—manufactured, best quality, pound lumps, Loaf and Lump Sugar, Tierces & Barrels. R W. BROWN & SON. April 15th.

Drinting MEATLY EXECUTED at this office.

For Sale.

A SPLENDID SETT OF COACH HARNESS, Six Setts of GIG HARNESS, and SADDLES, BRI-DLES, &c. at the store of the Subscriber.

R. SIMPSON.

$50 Reward.

For SALLY, (whom I purchased from G. M. Mallett,) who has been run away since March last. She is about 25 years old, and is well known about Town and the sound where she is supposed to be lurking.

HENRY NUTT. 1-c-tf.

Removal.

POTTER & PARSLEY having taken the extensive Wharf and Warehouse lately occupied by Messrs. G. W. Davis & Co. are prepared to receive and dispose of Goods on commission, to the best advantage, and make purchases of any of the produce of our market .-Their STEAM SAW MILL continues in ope-. ration, with a good supply of Timber on hand. Wilmington, N. C October 1st, 1835. 1-c-tf.

Notice.

FIFE Subscriber being determined to close his business in Wilmington, requests all hose indebted to him by note or account, to call and settle the same, by the 1st May. And all those having claims against him to present them within that time.

W. J. POITEVENT. 14-41.

Just Received.

200 DOZ. Palm leaf HATS, various qalities; Lot, Boston BOATS Coppered and Iron fastened, Four Barrels Prime SUGAR. For sale by BENJ. ATKINS, &Co.

March 4, 1836

The Subscriber

AS lately returned from the North and is now opening, third door from the wharf, South side Market Street, a new and splendid assortment of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CUT-which are offered for sale at low prices. SAM'L N. CANNON. April 1.

LERY, HARD and HOLLOW-WARE, Gc. Ac.

For Sale, or Rent.

THE Subscriber will sell of rent, his summer residence on WRIGHTSVILLE SOUND. in a absence apply to WILLIAM C. LORD or THOMAS COWAN.

H. A. LONDON.

Stop and Look! S. M. WEST, has just returned from the North with a surge assortment of Gentlemen's Ladies and Children's BOOTS and SHOES.

of all kinds. Fine Beaver and Sak HATS, Wool and Palm Leaf do ; Ladies' and Misses' fashionaide Straw BONNETS; Children's fancy CAPS, of all kinds. All kinds of Gentlemen's STOCKS; BOSOMS: COLLARS;

GLOVES and UMBRELLAS Ludies' and Misses' India Rubber APRONS; and a good assortment of DRY GOODS: Also a large assortment of Gentlemen's Ready made Summer CLOTHING; which he will sell low for CASH. . April 1.

To Rent,

THE WHARF on the west side of the River, north of and adjoin-The OFFICE under the residence of Tere de Sienna, Mr. C. Dudley, and lately occupied by Dr. Wat | Prussian Biue,

The STORE lately occupied by Jao. A Will-kings, on the south side of Market-street; also, Indigo, Vandyke Brown, THOMAS H. WRIGHT.

Seed Rice,

Of the best quality-inferior to none on Cape-Fear River, for sale. Apply to January 1, 1836.

TO CONTRACTORS THE undersigned Commissioners appointed by the County Court of New Hanover to contract for the building of a brick

JAIL, in the town of Wilmington will receive proposals from persons disposed to contract for the building of the same, until the 1st day of February 1836.—
This building will be 38 feet long and 34 broad three stories high the lower story to be three brick thick—the 2d story two and a half brick do.; and the upper story two brick thick.

For further particulars, respecting the building, reference may be had of the Commissioners, with whom the plan and specifications are left.

The building must be completed by June, 1837, and the payments will be made in three annual instalments.

GABRIEL HOLMES. WM B. MEARS. T. H. WRIGHT. E. B. DUDLEY. J. A. TAYLOR.

Commissioners.

1-c-tf. . Oct. 30.

Decomber 18, 1835.

WILMINGTON & RALEIGH BAIL ROAD.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that Books will be opened and Subscrip-Capital Stock of the Wilmington & we long thought of making public: Raleigh Rail Road Company, for 60 days from the 15th instant, at the following places and under the direction of the following persons, Viz. Rail Road Office. Norfolk Virg.-Thomas Newton, Myer My ers, Robert Soutter, John Aldman, and Henry B.

Portsmouth Virg -Arthur Emmerson, Mordecai Cook, John Cocke, George Blorr and Stephen Halifax-Andrew Joyner, James Halliday, &

B. F. Moore,

Nashville-J. S. Battle, Henry Blount and Bennet Bunn. Tarborough-Theophilus Parker, Louis D. Wilson, and Spencer Cotten. Sharpe and Joab P. Pitt. Waynesborough-Richard Washington, S. A Andrews and John Wright.

and Jesse Lassetter. Kenansville-Nicholas Hall, J. T. Rhodes and O. L. Kelly.

EDWARD B. DUDLEY, Pres't. W. & R. R. R. C. March 25 1836.

The Subscriber

and has on hand a good assortment of WEST INDIA GOODS

OROCHRIBS.

Viz.—CUFFEE, Sugar and Molasses. Imperial, Pouchong, and Southoug TEAS. Double refined LOAF SUGAR. Cog. Brandy : Smily, Madeira, Port, and Sherry WINES; CORDIALS; &c &c. Crockery and Glass Ware; CUTLERY Boston Mess and No. 1 Beef. ) Winchester's b. Prime and No. 1 Pork. 4 October packed. A few superior HAMS.

Boots, Shoes, Hats Dry Goods. &c.

and many other articles, usually found in a Grocery Store, all of which will be sold at fair BENJAMIN ATKINS.

P. W. Fanning,

Continues his usual vocation of HOUSE, SHIP, and SIGN PAUNTING:

Gilding, glazing, bell hanging,

Paper-hanging & Whitewashing; At his Old Stand nearly opposite the POST-OFFICE. VENETIAN BLINDS repaired and put

E has recently returned from the North, with a well selected stock of PAINTS, of genume quality, which he is ready to put up to order, ready mixed, with directious for their use. Any color may be had, either dry, ground in Oil, or White Lead, Gamboge, Pink Saucers, Red Lead, Venetian Red, Gold Leaf, Spanish Brown, Silver Leaf. Yellow Cchre, Gold Brenze. Stone Ochre, Silver Bronze, Dutch Metal, Black Lead, for Roofs, Tinsel, weautiful, Black Paint, Gold Ornaments & strip for Ladies' Boxes, Ivory Black, Quick Silver, Chrome'Green, Alcohol, Brunswick Green, Phials, assorted: French Green, Specie Jars, Black & Red Lead Pen-Green Verditer. English Green, cils, large, Mineral Green, Steel Pens, in cases, Verdigris, Escutcheous and Pins, Distilled Verdigris, Picture Rings, Purple Brown, Curtain Rings, Rose Pink, Chimney Hooks, Chinese Vermillion, Brass Feet, for fancy Roman Lake, Boxes, Crimson Lake, Pallet Knives, Flake White, Blue, Green, Black, Bed Krements' White. & Brown smaltz, Blue, Lilac and White Silver White. Fresting, Black sand, Brimstone, Pearl Ash Pot Ash, British Lustre, for pol Sand Paper, Cochineal, Ground Glass, Whiting-Lime, Paris White, Loco foco Matches. Lucifer Matches, Roman Cement, Red, Green, and Black Hydraulic Cement. Japand Tins, 2 sizes, Plaister Paris. Glue Pots, White Chalk, House Bells, and every Red Chalk, appurtenance for their Litharge, Sugar of Lead, hanging, Sleigh Bells, Shieves, for Blinds, White Vitrol, Hooks and Staples, Rivets, Rotten Stone, Brass Knobs and Han-White Glue, Common do... Brads and Tacks, Mahogany Knobs, Burning Glasses, Canada Balsam, Gum Shellac, Gum Mastic, Gum Tragacanth, Gum Copal, Tassils, Chord & Bind-Gum Arabic. ing for Blinds, Gum Asphaltum, Gum Aloes, Emery, fine & coarse, Glass, A variety of Prints, Sponge, fine & coarse, Water Colors, cheap, Gold & Colored Paper.

VARNISHES, 25 varieties. GLASS, of all sizes, from 7 b. 9, to 24 b. 30. LOOKING-GLASS PLATES, in variety. Oll, Paint Winter Lamp, and ref. Whale.
PAINT BRUSHES, and Camel hair PENCILS, of every variety.

DYE STUFFS. Logwood, Fustie, Nie'r. Wood. Camwood, Madder, Cochineal, Copper Aloes and Alum. Atao, A variety of Knick knacks. A ROMANTIC BUT TRUE STORY.

pool correspondent, and recalls to our rec- sure the correspondent of the Evening -, where I thought they would sell ollection a remarkable fact in the history Star that there was very little richness in to a charm. Well, I got there, but the detions received for 2000 Shares of the of the titled lady here spoken of, which her attire. If any person would wish for vil of a glove could I get any body to take.

"The Countess of Harrington-ci de-vant Miss Foote-is said to be in very in-At Wilmington-by James S. Green, at the different health. This lady, who has had her beauty, has behaved in a very exemplary manner since her marriage. She has not, however, been received at Court. At the Coronation, September, 1831, she was pre-eminent for the taste and richness of her attire, and the grace of her carriage."

It is well known that the present Countess of Harrington, formerly the beautiful Pitts roads-Phesanton S. Sugg, Benjamin and talented Miss Foote the actress, was for some time under the protection, as it is very falsely termed, of the celebrated Lenoir-William D. Mosely, J. B. Whitfield Col. Berkeley, now Lord Seagrave, of Berkeley Castle, Gloustershire in England. It is equally well known that the mony was on the point of being perform. young officer of the army, then in Algiers. ed, when his friends interfered and res. One evening, "twas on the edge of brought your goods to a bad narket, trained him by main force, by actually summer," a barque driven by the wind if you think to weasel me -now give sidered to be degrading. For this breach squires," was proceeding in the direction had to do it -so I out with the mates and of law, and recovered damages to the a peated the sounds of the light guitar, and nadab, who looked as dunb foundered as renewed the offer, and she feigned to accept it again; but on the hour at which they were to go to the hymenial altar, wedding attire, and would never afterwards listen to his importunities. Poor Hayne got so unmercifully laughed at in the fashionable world of which he was a votary, that he abandoned himself to a lower scale of society, became a patron of the pugilistic ring, in sheer vexation with the ring of matrimony, and spent a large seen, by her no more. Within a year from that period, Mrs. McDermott emigrated with her husband to this country, and having no children of lovely children she had nurtured, she brought them with her, rather than leave them to the mercy of an alms house. The little boy died on the passage; her husband died shortly after their arrival, and she is now a very poor widow, living in Orange street, and maintaining the daughter of Lord Seagrave and the Countess of Harrington by her humble but honest exertions over the washing-tub. We first saw this little girl about a year since in the office of Counsellor De Lacy, in Chambers s reet, where she was employed in her parentage and abandonment. Be-est manifested concerning them in some the old soldiers of La Loire. of the English papers, is that they are enjoying all the advantages of a wealthy and noble paternity, both in education and society, within the princely domain of they are equally happy and prosperous of Harrington. This discrepancy may be considered a collateral evidence of the fact that these papers know not where they are; but merely indulge in fashiona-Diamond Cement, for ble rumors. Mrs. Mc Dermott, however, mending China and can afford any inquirer satisfactory proof, both documentary and circumstantial; that lady to a weather-beaten tar, who had fore the Police Magistrates From what she knows their fate, and can produce one called at her house for a luncheon, "you we can learn, we do not believe any exof them whose features speak strongly for must see a great many curiosities at amination will be had before them, but the maternity she claims. Thus whilst sea?" "O yes," said Jack, and immediathat the case will be submitted to the Lord Seagrave is spending his 50.0001 tely commenced telling of the great levisterling a year in a splendid circle of luxu-ry and fashion, and newspaper correspon-dents, write even to America of "the richtled parents is living upon the charity of fifth fish carries a kettle on his tail for because the publication would scarcely able to earn a subsistence. We The following paragraph from the E- met the poor child yesterday carrying a a trick of his the other day. Said he, "I vening Star, was sent to it by its Liver- bundle in William street; and we can as- once took out an adventure of gloves to the further particulars of this case of heart. At last came a sneakly, long-bear less abandonment, we would be happy to snivelling Jew, and offered me a sum introduce him to poor Mrs. McDermott, low cost, and rather than carry the gloves and we doubt not that Chancellor De La- back again, I let him have em -but I the luck to win a coronet in the wane of cy would feel equal pleasure in doing so. thought it plaugy strange that nobody New York Sun.

FROM THE PRENCH.

Two Emotions.—It was about sixteen vears since that old Gen .- had withdrawn himself from the world, its pleasures, and the sphere of politics. A soldier from the early. days of the empire, his manner of life was changed, and his time given up to the exercise of a double occupation. He consoled himself as well as he could with the gone by dream of glory, and superintended with great diligence the studies of his niece, who with himself, occupied a modest cottage, washresult of this connection was two children, ed by the pure waters of the Loire, a few a girl and a boy. Shortly after the birth miles below Amboise. To his title of of the latter, a weak minded young man of preceptor the old general added the still says I. 'You have,' says he, 'those g'oves fortune, Mr. Joseph Hayne, better known more endearing one of 'comforter.' His are all of one hand.' 'I know it,' says L as Pea-green Hayne, became so deeply niece was of that age when the heart vibfascinated with the charms of Miss Foote, rates with the softest emotions and the that although he well knew these facts, gentlest sympathies-in brief, she loved. OULD inform the inhabitants of Wilming- that although he well knew these lacts, gentlest sympathies—in brief, she loved. take em back, cried the best sympathies—in brief, she loved. take em back, cried the best sympathies—in brief, she loved. I do,' answered I: 'li'll rum me,' soil A union was about to take place, which, if I do,' answered I: 'li'll rum me,' soil I do.' Store, recently occupied by F. & E. KIDDER, accepted the offer, and the nuptial cere- for its fulfilment, awaited the return of a velled he. 'So much the better,' said I.

locking him up in a room, from consum- and current, laden with young people of mating on engagement which they con- both sexes, "gentle dames and gallant ye) and I'll let you have the mates' He of promise, Miss Foote sued him in a court of Amboise. The echo of the river re. got the money from the snivelling Amimount of 3.000l sterling. He afterwards the accents of several musical voices were a cow with her tail out off!" heard from its banks. The young troop were singing the songs of the Loire, compositions no less applicable to the time Miss Foote made herself scarce in her and place than romantic, and well suiting the occasion.

"Let's take this world in some wide scene, Through which in frail but buoyant boat, With skies now rude and now serene. Together thou and I must float."

wreath of blue smoke which was slowly nerally known. - Albany Argus. undulating from the bowl of a Turkish | The Wife of the Traitor Arnold -As echoing to the skies the national air. "Allons, enfans de la patrie!" some menial duties about his apartments. cally. "It is not a song," replied the old child died-was put upon her trial fast She was then between twelve and thirteen general; "it is the freeman's cry-the week at Hackensack. She pleaded guilty years of age, and was fully conscious of people's voice-the national hymn. Weep, to the indictment, and implored the mercy ing somewhat incredulous respecting her mance 'Du Retour' is worthy of our best the circumstances, she was sentenced to romantic story, curiosity induced us to ob- sympathies-the women will understand three years imprisonment at hard labor in tain an interview with her foster mother, thy appeal, and the old veterans will com- the State prison. The scene which took Mrs. McDermott, which resulted in a firm prehend mine" In the first boat was place on pronouncing sentence, is descriconviction upon our mind that the narra the friend and lover returned triumphant bed by the Newark Daily Advertiser, as tive was perfectly true in every particular. from Algiers; in the second the citizens deeply and shockingly affecting. The The general impression in England had come to the general, seeking in him prisoner a well dressed and respectable concerning the fate of these children, if a chief pledged to maintain the character woman in personal appearance, surroundwe may judge from the occasional inter- and extend far and wide the renown of ed by her husband and family friends, all

LOST MONEY FOUND. - The Wheeling Gazette of the 6th inst says-" We learn Berkely Castle. But other papers say by a passenger in a steam boat, that the packages of $ 100,000, recently lost by the under the maternal care of the Countess individual carrying it from Cincinnati to Philadelphia, was found near Zanesville, and that it had been sent onto Cincinnati. We shall, probably, learn the particulars in a few days."

s poor feeble old washerwoman, who is cooking "-Dunstable (N. H.) Tel. ted to pre-judge the case -N. Y. Go

The Yankee and the Jew .- He told me else would buy. Before I left, though. I smelt the rat. That A ninadab had. gone round to all the merchants, arranged it with them to let him buy at a discount, and share the goods. 'Not as you knows on boys', thinks I to myself-here the Captain put his finger on his nose and winked-'you don't fleece me: Jew or no Jew. The next month I went back to the same place on the same errand-nobody would buy the gloves, as I hoped-except that son of a gun of an Aminadab, and he took 'em as before, below cost, and was off. 'You're trapped my o'd rat." says I to myself. It was nt half an hour before he came down to the ship. 'You -you've cheated me,' says be. 'I hav'nt. I could have told you so afore you took 'em if you'd a thought to ask.' You must take 'em back,' cried he. 'l'll be -'I know you-you villain, and you've ----,' (I named a round sum, I tell

The Wife of Benedict Arnold .- The recent death of an old lady in Uxbridge, the widow of a late inhabitant of that town, who had the misfortune to bear the same name with the traitor Gen. Arnold, has given rise to a considerable discussion following paragraph from the Norlelk The old general saw little save the Beacon contains some statements not ge-pipe, "the charmer of an idle hour;" but this subject has given rise to some expla-When flavne first made his infatuated his fair niece was lost in a reverie. The nations of her history, which are erproposals to Maria Foote, she was in the gay party on board had just finished a roneous, we will state what we have city of Dublin, and the younger of her beautiful canzonette, entitled "Espoir et learned respecting her. She was the children, a boy, was but five or six months Letour" and the young maiden, whose daughter of Edward Shippen, chief justice old. She however, left them both under thoughts, light as the air which fanned of Pensylvania, and is universally allowthe care of a Mrs. McDermott, the wife of her countenance, had flown on wings of ed to have been a woman of fine mind and a respectable mechanic, then residing near love, "where Afric's golden rivers flow," the most fascinating manners. It is sind Sackville st. and accompanied Hayne to leaving behind a sentimental languor not that Gen. Greene was the rival of Arnord the British metropolis. She never saw to be controlled, and two big round tears for the affections of the lady. The letter those children afterwards. She wrote fell almost unconsciously on the band of of Alexander Hamilton, which has given several times to Mrs. McDermott, inquir. the general. "Well, my dear niece," so pathetic a description of her feelings ing after them, and we believe promising said the veteran, reposing his pipe on the after the defeat on of Arnold's consultary, to send her money for their maintenance table, are you so weak that a song should and which has been so often referred to and education, but the promise was never affect and distress?" and the old man with a view of heightening the game of performed, and the correspondence ceas- laughed loud and long, adding withal the traitor, is now known to have exhibited. Capt. Foote, Maria Foote's father, some quaint but good humored irony to ed the mockery and not the reality of pascalled several times to see the children, his remarks. A few moments of silence sion. Indeed it is even believed that Mrs. but he also at length left them to the un- ensued and now another boat glides by. Arnold instigated her husband to the counaided care of their foster mother, and was It was freighted by the inhabitants and mission of the deed that damned him. some of the dwellers on the banks of the She visited Nova Scotia, with her hus. river. Immediately was heard sounds of band, it is believed, in 1790, but never rough music, like the clang of arms rough touched the United States after the war. and deafening; while the air gave back She died at the age of 43, in the city of her own, and being much attached to the the crash of instruments that seemed to London, some time in the year 1804 rend the firmament, harsh and discordant Her father, Edward Shippen, was chief as "the din of war." Just then a moon- justice of Pensylvania, and died in 1806, beam played ppon the river boat, and the at the age of 77. in Philadelphia. The tri-colored flag is seen reflected on the traitor Arnold, died in 1804, in London, blue surface of the water; and now two after lingering 30 miserable years of demasculine voices are heard joining the gradation and contempt. His sons now clashing cymbals, and the clarion's trump live in Canada, and are said to be weak

> A DEPLORABLE SCENE. - Mrs. Folly "Uncle, what is the matter? You shed who was indicted some months since, in tears-I feel them hot and burning I How New Jersey, for severe chastisement of a is this? Can a song so disturb you, dear little black girl belonging to her husband uncle?" said the betrothed damsel, ironi- -in consequence of which cruelty the weep tears of joy, my child. The ro- of the Court. After due consideration of of them of respectable standing, was about to be torn from society and doomed to an ignominious companionship for years with the vilest felons. Her shricks as she was borne out of the court room are represented as heart rending .- Nat Intelligencer,

THE MURDER CASE. The neighbor hood of the Bridewell and the Police office has been crowded for the last two days with people anxious to obtain a sight of young Robinson, charged with the murder of Ellen Jewett, who, it was presumed, ORIGINAL -"Mr. Sailor," said an old would be brought out for examination be-ness of attire," the "pre-eminence of the live on land—by devouring the smaller catastrophe, but, in the present state of the taste," of the far-famed Countess of Harrington, the deserted daughter of these ti-