VOL. III. NO. 38.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5th, 1838.

WHOLE NO. 142.

PUBLISHED

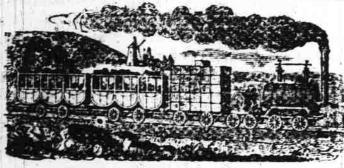

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

TERMS. THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE. ADVERTISEMENTS

Not exceeding a Square inserted at ONE DOLLAR

No Subscribers taken for less than one year, and all who permit their subscription to run over a year, without giving notice, are considered bound for the second year, and so on for all suc- by the pupils in their intercourse with each other

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the Editor. OFFICE on the South side of Market Street, be-

Office of the Porstmouth & Roanoke R. R. Co.

Great Central Route BETWEEN THE

NORTH AND SOUTH. Via the Portsmouth and Roanoke Railroad, and the Chesapeake Bay Steamboats, THROUGH from Halifax, N. C. to

New York, in FORTY ONE HOURS. being THREE HOURS IN ADVANCE OF ANY OTHER LINE, and this without a moment's night travelling on railroad south of Philadelphia, and WITHOUT THE LOSS OF SLEEP-Thus:

From Halifax to Portsmouth, 6 hours. Pertsmouth to Baltimore Baltimore to Philadelphia, Philadelphia to New York,

Stoppages,

6. 1

Tr Leaves Halifax every Sunday, Wednesday and Friday, Baltimore every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and Washington City eapry Wednesday. Fare from Halifax to Philadelphia, including every expense, (meals, porterage, &c.) $18.

To be published until forbid in the Augusta Chronicle, Savannah Georgian, Charleston Courier, Norfolk Herald, Baltimore Patriot & American, National Intelligencer, U.S. Gazette, Pennsylvanian, and New York Star, and accounts sent to the Office of the Portsmouth & Roanoke Railroad Company.

Travellers going North,

COMPANY'S LINE,

RE respectfully informed, that they will A find the route through Halifax, Gary's, Petersburg, Richmond, Washington, and Baltimore, the most expeditious, the time from Charleston to New York being by this line (through Petersburg, Sec.) half a day less, than by any other interior

The Petersburg Railroad Company have always locomotives with coaches, &c. at Gary's, ready to proceed immediately for the

they may implicitly rely. There is no uncertainty or detention other establishment. on this route. All the lines north of the Roanoke run in regular connexion; and the engineers being careful, circumspect, and sober, and every other precaution taken to render this line safe and comfortable, the attention of the public is invited

An agent attends at Gary's, and takes charge of all baggage, and accompanies the same, without trouble to the traveller, all the way to Petersburg Railroad Company's Office, } August 22d, 1838.

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS. LL Merchandise, &c. intended to be forthing sent after that time cannot be taken on that | deceased, requests all persons indebted to said must have the owner's name marked distinctly for her; and all persons having claims against on it, and a bill accompanying it, specifying the | said estate to present them within the time reweight, stating who it is from, who it is for, and quired by law, to either of us, for payment, or where it is to be left. The merchants will be held responsible in every case, for the freight on every thing sent by them. Merchants having consignments of produce, and other articles from the country, must take them away the day that they arrive, as the Company will not be responsible for any thing suffered to remain at the Depot all night.

Point Depot, Water Station, near Burgaw plantation, about ten miles east of Raleigh, all Swamp, and the Depot, near South Washington. the crop of COTTON, CORN, AND FODDER. L. L. H. SAUNDERS, Agent of Transportation. May 12th, 1838.

RATES OF TOLL

AT NHE NEW BRIDGE, NEAR HILTON.

OR a Gig, or Sulkey and Horse, twenty cents, (20 cents,) Wagon and four Horses. fifty cents, (50 cents, a four wheel Was on and two Horses, twenty five cents, (25 cents.) for a Carriage and Horses, thirty cents, (30 cents,) for a Cart and one Horse, sixteen cents, (16 over $10-for $10 and under, cash. A part of cents,) for a Man and Horse, ten cents, (10 cents,) for a Cart with Oxen, twenty cents, (20 be sold on a credit of six months, for notes nego cents,) for a four wheel Carriage with one Horse, tiable and payable at the Bank of the State of twenty five cents, (25 cents, for a foot Passenger, four cents, (4 cents,) for Cattle, Hogs, and Sheep, Awo cents each, (2 cents,) for Turkies, one cent satisfactory security will be required for the pureach, (1 cent,) for single Horses, four cents each, chase money, before the property is changed.

A true copy from the minutes,

THOS. F. DAVIS, Clerk.

NOTICE.

HEREBY forewarn all persons from trading for a Note of Hand given by the subscriber to John Curry, dated some time in June last, six months after date for thirty dollars, as I am determined not to pay said note, as it was fraudulently obtained against me.

August 13th, 1838.

PPLICATION will be made at the next A Session of the Legislature of this State to amend the Inspection Laws relative to lumber and timber, so far as the port of Wilmington is concerned. September 19th, 1838.

SPRING VILLA John T. Flynn,

Wilmington, Sept. 18th, 18th, vessel for the river, or fruit trade.

September 25th, 1838.

NOTICE.

SLOOP SARAH,

AND ALL HER SAILS AND RIGGING.

Said vessel is of thirty (30) tons, is copper

TALCOTT BURR.

JESSE PIPKIN,

141 lw

fastened, and coppered to the bends. Her bottom

MILITIA ORDERS.

for reviewing the several Regiments in the 3d

The 31st Regiment, Duplin Co. on the 22d October nex

New Hanover,

By order of Major General Whitfield

Lenoir County, 4th Sept. 1838. 140 4w

Regimental Orders.

THE companies composing the 30th required to parade in Wilmington, on Saturday the 27th of October next, for Inspection and

By order of Major General J. B. Whitfield.

he 26th, at 10 o'clock, for inspection and drill, prepared with their returns, as by law required.

The Commissioned Officers will meet in Court Martial, at 4 o'clock, P. M. of the 26th, to elect a Lieut. Colonel. Capt. Thos. W. Brown of the Wilmington Militia, will superintend the election, and certify the result to the Colonel. By order of L. H. Marsteller, Colonel Com-

R. F. Brown, Adjutant.

Sept. 19th, 1838.

as down to Smithville.

any risk of its being lost.

Wilmington, N. C. ?

September1st, 1833.

September 14th, 1838.

R. W. Brown & Son, to me a reward of TEN DULLARS.

Sept. 1st, 1838.

Wilmington, Sept. 21st, 1838.

manding 30th Regiment N. C. Milita.

A HINT.

THE undersigned respectfully invites all those in his debt for freight or passages, to call and it very difficult to buy articles for the many uses required, without collecting what is due for past being as low as I can afford. I take no risk

My contract is with those that employ me. If

This notice is intended for all persons that

DOYLE O'HANLON.

MILES COSTIN,

ARTHUR LEWIS.

WM. S. ASHE.

S. B EVERETT.

THOS. J. IVY.

139 3w

may want my services up the Cape Fear, as well

COPARTNERSHIP.

HE subscribers have this day entered into

MILES COSTIN, & CO.

for the transaction of a GENERAL COM

MISSION BUSINESS. They will pay particular attention to the sale of Lumber, Timber, be sent to their care. They have a large wharf, and the best timber pen in the place. which enables

PERSONS having unsettled accounts with the settle the same without further delay. If they should neglect to do so, they will find their ac-

STRAYED OR STOLEN,

in her form, her face rather gray, indicating age. I will give any person who will deliver her to

FOR RENT.

Smithville, N. C., 15th Aug., 1838. 135 tf.

NOTICE.

being presented as a voucher for the same.

LL persons are cautioned against trusting counts in the hands of a collecting officer.

them to keep timber on hand for a price, without a copartnership, under the firm of for freight or baggage under any circumstances.

Review. Line to be formed at 10 o'clock.

Regiment North Carolina Militia are hereby review, at noon, on the appointed day.

Brigade of the Militia of North Caroline, viz.

FRENCH AND ENGLISH SEMINARY For Young Ladies,

AT BORDENTOWN, NEW JERSEY. THE duties of this Seminary will be resumed on Monday, the 24th September The peculiar feature of this establishment consists in its being essentially a French School, that language being constantly spoken general satisfaction.

and with their teachers. The department of modern languages is under the charge of the subscriber himself, assisted by a lady lately from France. The English department is entrusted to Miss M. Turner, from Boston, who is assisted by Miss E. Lunt, from Portsmouth, N. H.

Music is taught by Mr. Edward R. Hansen, from Denmark. Drawing, Mr. H. Whale. Dancing,

For information concerning the characof the Institution, the subscriber begs leave to tom House Wharf, the efer to Col. J. D. Jones, and Levin Lane, of Wilmington, Mrs. Winder, of Smithville, Gen. Wm. Hill, of Duplin county, and John Burgwyn, of Newbern, who now have children under his care.

A catalogue containing terms, &c. may be had at this office. For further particulars, application may be made either personally, or by

A. N. GIRAULT,

To Printers and Publishers. HE subscribers have just completed their new specimen book of light faced book and job printing types, flowers, and ornaments, the contents of which are herewith partially Diamond, Pearl, nos. 1 and 2, Agate, nos. 1, 2, and 3, Agate, on Nonparcil body Nonpareil, nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, Minionette, nos. 1, and 2, Minion, nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, Minion on Brevier body, Brevier on Minion body, Brevier, nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, Brevier on Burgeois body, Brevier on Long Primer body, Burgeois on Brewier body, Burgeois, nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, Burgeois on Long Primer body, Long Primer, nos. 1, 3, and 4, Long Primer on Small Pica body, Small Pica, nos. 1 and 2, Pica on Small Pica body, Pira, nos. , z, and 3, Pica on English body English, nos 1 and 2. Great Primer, Paragon, Double English, Double Paragon, Canon, Seven line and ten line Pica ornamental 6, 7, 9, 12, and 15 lines Pica shaded, 8, 10, 15 and 16 lines antique shaded. Also, a large and beautiful collection of flowers from pearl to seven lines pica, which are not to be found in any other specimen, a new assortment of ornamental dashes, a variety of card BY THE WILMINGTON & RALEIGH RAILROAD bonders, near two thousand, metal ornaments, brass rules, leads of various thickness, astronomical and physical signs, metal and brace dashes, from 3 to 30 ems long, great primer and double pica scripts on inclined body, diamond and nonpareil music of various kinds, antique light and heavy face two line letter, full face Roman and

Eight line Pica Gothic, condensed to 25,

Five line Pica to twenty,

and other blacks, nonpareil, minion, and brevier Greek, Hebrew, and Saxon. A large variety of ornaments, calculated par ticularly for the Spanish and South American markets. Spanish, French, and Portuguese ac- | services. North, upon the arrival of the passengers; and cents furnished to order, with every other article travellers are referred to Mr. B. F. Halsey, their made use of in the printing business. All of agent at Halifax, upon whose representations which can be furnished at short notice, of as good quality, and on as reusonable terms, as at any

Italic nonpareil, minion, brevier, long primer,

CONNER & COOK, Corner of Nussau and Ann streets,

New York.

August 15th, 18:8. 139 3w Proprictors of newspapers printed within any part of the United States, or the Canadas, who will copy the above advertisement three times, and forward a copy containing the same, will be entitled to their pay in any type cast at our foundery, provided they take twice the amount

NOTICE.

THE subscriber, having qualified at the last term of the Court of Pleas and warded on the Railroad, must be sent be- Quarter Sessions of New Hanover county, as tween sunrise and eight o'clock, A. M. Any administratrix of the estate of A. L. RIVERA, day. Nothing will be received, unles it is put estate to make payment to herself, or to L. H. up in the most substantial man ier. Every thing Marsteller, Esq. who is legally authorized to act M. A. RIVERA, > Wilmington, Sept 17th, 1838 140 3w EXECUTOR'S SALE.

THE subscriber, as Executor of Mrs. Sarah Stone, late of Raleigh, deceased, will Articles will be deliverd at, and taken from sell at public auction on Monday and Tuesday the following points on the road, viz. Rocky the 29th and 30th days of October next, at her and all the stock of HORSES, CATTLE, and HOGS, and the PLANTATION UTENSILS, consisting of CARTS, WAGONS, PLOUGHS, &c. and on Wednesday the 31st of October, all the NEGROES belonging to said estate-forty six in number-consisting of men, women, boys, girls, and children, will be offered for safe. The negroes will be sold in FAMILIES, pursuant to the directions of the will.

> TERMS. The crop and plantation utensils will be sold on a credit of six months, for all sums the negroes, to the amount of about $5,000, will North Carolina, in Roleigh; and the balance will be sold on a credit of six months. Bond and Raleigh, N. C. Sept. 3d, 1838. The Advertiser, Wilmington, Spectator, Newbern, and Western Carolinian, Salisbury, will please publish the above for six weeks, and forward their accounts to the Standard office. 1 Price $4, 50.

NOTICE.

ND possession given on the 1st of October A the comfortable DWELLING HOUSE on Market street, at present occupied by Mr. G. R. French.

TO RENT.

R. H. COWAN. 140 2w September 21st, 1838.

A NIGHT WITH THE FIENDS. Founded on Fact.

BY THEODORES, FAY, THE subscriber would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Wihnington and the sur-I would have giren worlds to recall rounding country, that he has located himself the action. I had no excuse, It was a permanently in this town, and is now ready to deed done with my eyes open. The begexecute all orders in his line. Having been for gar who seals to save his wife and chilsome time engaged in the well known establishment of Mr. Charles D. Carr, of Charleston dren from starving, has the sympathy of ON HAND, A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF the northern cities. Also, a general assortment FANCY WEARING APPAREL A few doors south of Reston's Railroad Hotel deliberately, with my eyes open to the consequences. I knew the nature of what VILL be sold at public auction, on Mon- on the grounds of innate depravity. day the 1st of October, 1838, at the Cus- who professed a scorn of wrong—w was accustomed to self-examination and self-dicipline-who knew what guilt was -who felt, while I did it, that it was lay-is of African oak. She can be made a profitable and horror. place. It was at a ball, amid music, and AJOR General JAMES B. WHIT-FIELD has appointed the following days bosom. I felt that I had recorded in the him who becomes entirely their slave. Was it decided by a convention? No!

> "Confined to last in fires, Till the foul crimes, done in my days of nature

Are burnt and purged away." The Commanding Officer of each Regiment above named is hereby required to have his Regiment in complete order, at the usual place of Night came. Night! At this mysterious period, the guilty have a foretaste of their punishment. In summer I should have gone out and wailed till morning. But it was a cheerless November night. went to bed. In a little while a sort of oblivion descended upon me, faintly lighted with images of the gay scene where I had spent the evening, and where I had unfortunately laid this sin upon my soul. My imagination retained a dim sense of music and dancing, and careless voices, and flashing light, till their oft trepeated The Officers, Noncommissioned Officers, and impressions pained me; and over the Musicians, will meet in Wilmington, on Friday | whole, mysteriously and darkly, like a cloud, or an impending danger, lay the definite conviction and shame of that act -a sense of remorse, apprehension, guilt, and folly, from which I strove to recoil and creep away, and hide myself in sleep, or oven death. And, in those vague moments, wavering between the real and the unreal, grotesque beings, whose shapes were drawn in lines of light upon the black air, darted around, and made faces at me, and held a sort of devilish revel over my torments as I lay powerles on. settle the same with Major James T. Miller. my back. Such visitations might come Pleparing to go south with my steamboat, I find to a dead man in his coffin. And a power seemed whispering. This it is to commit a sin!' I did not think of it,' said I, The price for a passage to and from Smith | could not help it.' And, for a moment, ville in the Cotton Plant hereafter, will be $1 50 this seemed a triumph to me, and I shouted the fact sturdily in the faces of the fiends, and I called the good angels to they do not like my terms, they can go elsewhere. help me, a poor, misused mortal, set upon in this fashion by a parcel of infernal devils. But a voice, after a pause, answered, as if with a silent smile, ' You knew what you did !- you gratified your wish-you agreed to pay the price-you scorned consequences -- you have no excuse-you are bought and sold-you are ours!' And I answered, 'It is true! and strove to hide himself. I would have crawled into any cave; and all the while the dancing went on, and the music playand any other kind of country produce that may ed one continual tune and gay crowd philosophical in their temper than one moving and bowing around, and beautiful female faces, with radiant smiles and careless words, came and went in throngs by N. P. Willis in the N. Y. Mirror. and masses, with a floating change and a > off a precipice-started-and awoke. was something unearthly about them.

the monstrous and the preternatural. And soon, amid these huge shadows THE Brick Stores near the South East corner of the Town Hall, at present occu- a sound from some warping pannel, or, on my honor! You will find England, desire. pied by Charles Nixon, and Dr. Foy. Possession given 1st October next. Apply through Messrs. the Steam Packet GOV. DUDLEY, without a turned on my pillow and strove to sleep. left his clothes for you to wear after him! written order from me, as I will neither sign All that I had ever done wrong, or un- Pen and ink cannot, take the gloss off nor pay any bill, without such written order kind, or doubtful, sat around my bed like your eyes, nor can any man look through mortuis nil nisi bonum.) which, like the into a fiend, and at the head of this agreeacing and that old tune again.

by a gleam of comfort, Something which tell you what picture was produced in resolved itself at last into a smoothing and their brain by the things they saw; but most gentle spirit, seemed to steal in un- if they forestalled novelty by that, I would drown.

vils, and whispered in my ear:

your burden, but you most bear it yet a lume. little longer .-- When the cock crows your | I have run my ploughshare, in this fur-I felt the ghost of " buried Denmark." - Yield with patience and be wiser to-mor- the corner of the street, by a club, by > distinctly heard the slapping of the fel- off without a buzz. fell into a quiet sleep.

'But what was the erime!' demanded my wife when I read her this essay. 'The reader will know it,' said I.

'Not at all,' said she. 'I assure you I ave not the slightest idea of it.' 'Let them guess then!' said 1.

'They will think you have been rob bing the mail.' said she, 'or committing murder. What is it you have done to oring on yourself such terrible torments ?' 'I drank three cups of strong tea!' said with a blush. "And it serves you perfectly right' said my wife, with a look of indignation? A POET AND HIS CRITICS.

Weextract the following remarks, more would have expected from a poet, from No. 8 of the 'Letters from under a Bridge.

* * "Experience was always new mocking contrast. Then I fell abruptly to me, I do not seem to myself ever to have seen the Rome I once read of. The keep out such stray caule, or there are I groaned aloud. The chamber was Venice I know is not the Venice of story lighted by the faint beams of a night nor of traveller's books. There are two subscriber, are requested to come forward and lamp, casting grotesque and giant sha- Londons in my mind-one where I saw dows upon the walls and ceilings. There whole shelves of my library walking I about in coats and petticoats, and another MILES COSTIN. had not thought that chairs and tables - where there was nothing visible through tellectual eye be fixed for a long time on those homely and familiar objects-could the fog but fat men with tankards of por- one continuous series of operations; to be look so strange and impressive. There ter, -one memory of it all glittering with versatile, the mind must glance from subwas a bar lying huge and black across lighted rooms, bright and kind faces, man FINE looking HOUND SLUT; she is the room-a massive semi circle, broken all manly and woman all wemanly, and of a bindle or tan, tall and exceedingly fine by an angle of the cornice, appeared like another memory, (got from books) where a segment of Saturn's belt-and a rugged every man was surly and dressed in a profile, that frowned like the spectre of buff waistcoat, and every woman a giant- down, the latter is sporting onward on some giant, held forth a threatening arm, ess in riding hats and boots. It is de- easy wing. and impressed me with a solemn sense of lightful to think how new every thing is, spite of descriptions. Never believe, dear doctor, that there is and that deathly silence, (broken only by an old world. There is no such place, perhaps, a wall settling more heavily into France, Italy, and the East, after all you its foundation, secret tokens of time, un- have read and heard, as altogether new heard by the sleeping millions around,) as if they were created by your eye, and the fatal act which had marked my past were never sung, painted, nor be-writevening, appeared before me like a ghost, ten--you will indeed. - Why, to be sure! with a haunting power. All the darkest | What were the world else? A pawnaspects of life presented themselves, as I broker's closet, where every traveller had friend, a company of devils, each event converted them as you do. I do not believe the gentle process of nature, seals up the simplest matter-sunshine or verdure- grave, and covers it with verdure and ble levee the deed of yesterday, a mocking, has exactly the same look to any two peo- flowers. heartless demon, and then came the dan- ple in the world. How much less a human lace a landscape a broad kingdom! At length this awful ordeal was varied Travellers are very pleasant people. They observed among this set of chattering de- las soon read them as beseech a thief to steal my dinner. How it looks to one · Patience, mortal, and receive this hour pair of eyes would be a good reminder as a lesson. You shall not sink beneath pencilled on the margin of many a vo-

persecutors will disperse. Take care row, upon a root of philosophy, which has you do not put yourself in their power cured heart aches for me ere now. Istruck again. The earth is inhabited by two upon it, almost accidentally, while admin-S.C. as a cutter, he hopes that he will give the judge who condemns him -and the races-inan, a traveller on his way to istering consolation, years since, to a senhomicide, whose crime is committed in a heaven, but sore beset by the other race, sitive friend whose muse had been congust of pission, may find consolation in the devils. There is but one method of signed, alive and kicking, to the tomb by Fine Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vestings, repentance, and in the consciousness of escaping these gentlemen, who now a blundering undertaker of criticism. which will be made as fushionable as in any of the infirmity of human nature. Men sin crowd your chamber so hilariously. It read the review and wrote on it with a from ignorance, from temptation, from is by following the ways of right and wis- pencil, 'So thinks one man in fifteen milwant of experience. I had perpetrated this dom. They have, comparatively, no lions; and, to my surprise swere my depower over those charmed paths, but it is jected friend, like master Bernardine, that the condition of your existence that, when he would consent to die that day, for no I was doing. There was no adequate you err, you are exposed to their mischie- man's persuasion.' Since that I have temptation for it. I could only explain it vous malice. Indeed each error creates made a practice of counting the enemy; its own tormentor. Each man, according- and trust me, dear doctor, it is sometimes who professed a scorn of wrong-who ly to his deeds, is honored with a retinue worth while not to runaway without this of these disagreeable companions, who ac- little preliminary. A friend for instance, quire more power the more they gain. with a most boding solemnity, takes you They retire from around you during the aside, and pulls from his pocket a newsing up a store of repentance-I had yield- day to watch the effect of new temptations, paper containing a paragraph that is ed, and I regarded myself with contempt as an angler keeps himself concealed to aimed at your book, your morals, perhaps catch the fish; even, when hooked, gives your looks and manners. You catch the Nothing could be more pleasing than him the line in order to plunge the barb alarm from your friend's face, and fancy the scene in which this accident took vet deeper in his victim. In crowds, in it is the voice of public opinion, and your moments of passion, and times of pleasure, late is fixed. Your book is detestable, dancing, and pretty women. All the ele- they leave their prize apparently free; but your character is gone -- Your manners ments of happiness seemed to lie around. in solitude, illness, and during the night, and features are the object of universal Was I happy? No. Remorse filled my they assume their dominion; and wo to disapprobation. Stay! count the enemy! book of fate a deed not to be erased-from As for you, you have committed an ac. By a caucus? No! By a vote on the deck which was to spring shame and suffering. tion for which you must bear the penalty, of a steam boat! No! By a group at dinner party? No! By whom, then? The face of my instructress was near One small gentleman, setting in the dingy me when she spoke, and she kissed my corner of a printing office, who puts his forehead. Then came the dancing and quill through your reputation as the enthe old tune; and the crowds and the de- tomologist slides a pin through a beetlemons, and in the pressure I was nearly in the way of his vocation. No particusuffocated. Struggling, attempting in lar malice to you. He wanted a specivain to call out, I was at the point of dis- men of the genus poet, and you were the solution, when, in frightful convulsions, I first caught. If there is no head to the once more awoke. At that instant the | pin, (as there often is none,) the best way cock in the neighboring barn-yard gave is to do as the beetle does-pretend to be a sudden, loud, and exultant crow, and I killed and he forgets you, and then slip

low's wings. It was followed by the The only part of the calumny that I cheerful cry of a milkman. A faint sil- ever found troublesome was my friends, very light fell upon the wall through the insisting on my being unhapy about it; I openings in the shutters and curtains. The dare say you have read the story of The night-lamp burned lower and yet more German criminal, whose last requestdim .- Saturn's belt was scarcely visible that his head might be struck off while opposite the pitcher-handle. The huge he stood engaged in conversation-was bar had lost its sharp outline, but retained | humanely granted by the provost. The enough to identify it with the poker, and executioner was an adroit headsman, and the frowning giant had dissolved into the watching his opportunity crept behind outlines of an old robe de chambre, care- his victim while he was observing the lessly flung over the back of a chair. flight of a bird, and sliced off his bulb Blessed human shapes all, after the un- without even decomposing his gaze. It earthly images of night. I turned over was suggested to the sufferer presently with a sense of safety, of being among that he was decapitated, but he thought my fellow-creatures, and on the earth- not. Upon which one of his friends stepagain, of having expiated my crime, and ped up, and begging he would take the of having now life before me to try anew pains to stir himself a little, his head fell the path of virtue and wisdom, and so I to the ground. If the story be not true the moral is. In the many times I have been put to death by criticism, I have neyer felt incommoded, till some kind friend insisted upon it; and now that I can stand on a potato hill in a circle of twice the diameter of a rifle-shot, and warn off all trespassers, I intend to dely sympathy, and carry my top as long as it will stay on-behead me as often as you like, beyoud my periphery, it is very pleasant now

> The cagle suffers little birds to sing. And is not careful what they mean thereby." and then to pounce upon a bigger bird screaming in the same chorus. Nothing impairs the dignity of an author's reputation like a newspaper wrangle, yet one bold literary vulture, struck down promptly and successfully, serves as good a purpose as the bawk nailed to the barn-door. But I do not live in the country to be pestered with recentments, I do not well know how the thoughts of them came under the bridge. I'll have a fence that shall no posts or rails in philosophy."

> Profundity of thought is generally purchased at the expense of versatility. To be very profound, it is necessary the inject to subject, and brood over pone. Profoundity plunges to the depths, while versatility skims the surface, of the sea of speculation-while the former is going

SCRAPS.

The disappointment most difficult to bear, is that which attends a gratified

Men are apt to throw the blame on nature, which belongs to themselves; and are oftener shipwrecked by bad pilotage than adverse gales!

What an admirable epitaph on a pious

Not lost, but gone before!

The sentiment is magnanimous (de'

Feelings, habits, and principle s make up character.

The sacred light of the soul is an immortal element, which floods cannot