

We give to day, an account of the amicable adjustment of the personal difficulty which existed between Senators Clay and King.

See Mr. Webster's letter to Mr. Ewing, in this paper.

"What shadows we are and what shadows we pursue."—It is stated, says the Philadelphia North American, on good authority, that Judge Barbour, whose recent decease at Washington was so sudden, wrote a letter to his family on the evening of his death. He stated to them that his health was never better, and his prospect of returning to his home in Virginia to him was delightful. The mail following the one which conveyed this letter, carried the heart-rending intelligence of his death!

WILMINGTON, March 18, 1841.

To the Hon. W. C. Preston.

Sir—The Whigs of Wilmington beg that you will accept the compliment of a Public Dinner, at any time that may suit your convenience, as an evidence of their high regard for your public worth and private virtues.

With much respect
Your friends and ob't. serv'ts,
E. B. DUBLEY,

W. C. Lord, Alex. McRae,
F. C. Hill, Benj. Gardner,

John Hill, Joshua G. Wright.

WILMINGTON, 18th March, 1841.

GENTLEMEN:

Pressing engagements at home, which have been long postponed by public duties, compel me to decline the compliment you have so kindly tendered. Under other circumstances it would have given me the highest satisfaction, to acknowledge in a personal interview my sense of your favorable consideration, and to join in the expression of our common gratitude for the signal events which have lately marked the history of our country, to which the State of North Carolina has so eminently contributed. I earnestly hope, as I most firmly believe, that the recent change will be the harbinger of many blessings, and that the wise and moderate councils of the new Administration will so commend themselves to the patriotism and enlightened judgment of all sober minded men, as to reduce the pre-determined and violent opposition to a mere faction. After the heats of the contest have subsided—an event which all must desire, and all should contribute to consummate, I doubt not that the good intentions of the Administration will be appreciated, and that they will be strengthened and made efficacious by a prudent and deliberate public opinion, advisory in its character, and altogether distinct from the wild and dangerous impetuosity of partisan excitement. Indeed I feel the deepest assurance (and upon this I most heartily congratulate you) that our triumph has been for our country, and not for a party; and as all the elements at have the dignity of patriotism, so the means adopted will be characterized by a corresponding gravity and deliberation. The condition of the country, internally and externally, imposes an awful responsibility, and exacts the profoundest wisdom for its restoration. How this has come to pass, should not furnish grounds for mutual and unavailing reproach—but how it is to be remedied, should urge us to conciliation and united efforts. Animated by this spirit, those who are now in power will not consider themselves as victors entitled to spoils—but as servants to whom are confided important trusts and the performance of high duties.

Again gentlemen, I thank you for your favorable consideration of my humble efforts, and beg you to accept assurances of the great respect with which I am

Your obt. servant,
Wm. C. PRESTON.

To E. B. Dudley, Esqrs. and others
Wm. C. Lord, } Committee.

WILMINGTON, March 20, 1841.

To the Hon. Wm. R. King.

DEAR SIR—Your friends in this vicinity, anxious, in some measure, to manifest the unaffected pleasure which your presence among them affords, have constituted the undersigned a Committee in their behalf, to express to you the high esteem in which they hold both your public character and private worth; and to congratulate you on your unwavering, praiseworthy and high-minded course you have pursued throughout the unprecedented and vexatious struggle that has recently agitated the councils of our common country.

We hail, with the most lively emotions, your arrival among us—among your old and steadfast friends and acquaintances—who, with the genuine spirit of North Carolina, are ever proud to award honour to whom honour is so justly due; and on whose behalf, we embrace the present favourable opportunity, most respectfully to solicit the pleasure of your company to a public dinner, on such day as may best suit your convenience.

With sentiments of the greatest respect,
Your obt. serv'ts,

GABRIEL HOLMES,
H. L. Holmes,
Wm. A. Berry, Wm. S. Ashe,
Jas. T. Miller, Doyle O'Hanlon,
Owen Holmes, Jr.

WILMINGTON, March 20, 1841.

GENTLEMEN:

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your polite invitation to partake of a public dinner, and can but regret that the nature of my engagements, will deprive me of the gratification of meeting my old and valued friends at the festive board. The unwavering kindness, for so many years manifested towards me by the citizens of Wilmington, has deeply engraven on my heart sentiments of friendship and gratitude, which no time or absence can ever eradicate. Be assured, Gentlemen, in whatever situation I may be placed, you will have my best wishes for your prosperity and happiness. Be pleased to tender to those for whom you act, and accept for yourselves, the assurance of my sincere respect and unalterable regard.

To WILLIAM R. KING.

The 26th number of ANDERSON'S BIRDS OF AMERICA has been received. Every man of taste regards his character as such, if he does not subscribe to this valuable and useful publication.

EUROPEAN.

The steam ship CALEDONIA left Liverpool on the 4th, and reached Boston on the 20th, Saturday. The news of the suspension of the Pennsylvania U. S. Bank reached Liverpool on the 3d and London on the 4th, so that the effect it had is hardly known.

Money was easy in London.—Good commercial paper was discounted at 4 1/2 per cent. The State of the money market however, is thought to betray a want of confidence to do business. The political news is pacific. The McLeod affair has not again been taken up by the Parliament and the national feeling is represented as more pacific than that of here.

The Governor Jenner, an American emigrant ship, sailed from Liverpool for New York on the 13th February, with 124 persons on board, and was sunk 2 hours after, 20 miles north of Holyhead, by the Nottingham steamer from London, and every soul perished except the Captain and Mate. All were asleep except the watch, and she sank in one minute after the collision.

The news from the Continent is unimportant.

THE DEEPEST SNOW YET.

It commenced snowing in this City, on the 16th about 10 o'clock at night, and continued without intermission until the same hour the next night. It is the deepest snow of the winter, and measures some eight or ten inches on a level. The Western and Southern Mail arrived on the 18th, but the Rail Road was so blocked up, we had nothing from the North.

GREAT FLOOD.

The unprecedented quantity of Rain, which has recently fallen, has caused an extraordinary rise in all our water courses—the greatest, it is said, since 1791. At Smithfield, the river has overflowed its Western bank to the distance of nearly half a mile, while Weynesboro' is perfectly inundated. We understand, that the inhabitants there, as at Venice, visit each other in their Gondolas (called Canoes) the streets and lower parts of the houses being entirely submerged.

The "Fayetteville Observer" says, that the River, at that place, rose 55 feet above low water mark, reaching within 11 feet of Clarendon Bridge, and backing water up Cross Creek, over four mill-dams, to the very heart of the Town.

NEW YORK AND VIRGINIA.—The Inspection Bill which recently passed the Virginia Legislature, provides that any vessel whatever, owned in whole or in part, or commanded by any citizen or resident of the State of New York, or any vessel bound to any port in New York from Virginia, shall be subject to inspection—foreign and national vessels excepted.

The design of the inspection thus ordered is "to see that no slave or person held to service in Virginia, or person charged with the commission of any crime, shall be concealed on board said vessel."

The captain or owner of any such vessel departing without inspection is subject to a penalty, for the benefit of any person who will sue for the same. Every vessel as above described that enters within the limits of Virginia is to be taken possession of by the inspector, and to be held by him until a bond with two securities is given by the captain or owner to secure the payment of any judgment rendered on violation of the act. If the captain or owner cannot procure such a bond, then his promise, under oath, not to violate any of the conditions of the Act, shall be sufficient. Every vessel is liable for the expenses of her inspection.

The Act is not to go into force until May, 1842. The Governor is also authorized to suspend its operation if the Governor of New York shall comply with the requisitions of Virginia for the surrender of three persons demanded as fugitives from justice, and if the New York law entitled "an act to extend the right of trial by jury," shall be repealed.

SPANISH MISSIONS.—One of the most expensive missions under the dynasty which has just expired, is the mission to Spain. The expenses charged to this mission, and actually drawn from the Treasury, from the 23d of September, 1829, to the 21st of December, 1836, are as follows:

Mr. Van Ness, $98,608 31
Mr. Barry, 14,511 75
Mr. Eaton, 14,162 00
Secretary of Legation, 11,500 00
$141,785 06
North American.

The Whigs of New York have nominated J. Phillips Phenix, as a candidate for the office of Mayor of that city.

The State of Delaware has a surplus of one million and a half of dollars.

FRANCE.—The extraordinary military operations of France, are still going on. Besides the fortification of Paris, the defenses of Cherbourg, Toulon, Lyons, Bayonne, Brest, Sedan, Dunkirk and Grenoble, are to be strengthened. One hundred and forty millions of francs have been appropriated for the fortification of Paris and much more will be called for. New barracks, military hospitals, store-houses and stables, arsenals and forts, are to be constructed. The standing army is to be kept up to 530,000 men.

The Hon. LEVI LINCOLN, of Massachusetts, resigned on Tuesday last his trust of Representative in Congress from the Worcester district, to which he was re-elected some months ago, which he was re-elected some months ago, which he was re-elected some months ago.

DAVID BRONSON (Whig) was last week elected a Representative in Congress from the Augusta district in the State of Maine, vice Mr. EVANS, resigned.—N. A.

COMMERCIAL DISTRICTS.—The command of the Navy Yard at Charleston, Mass. on Thursday morning, and was received with the customary salute.

GEN. GAINES'S SUIT.—Gen. Gaines's suit against B. Chew and others, is in a queer predicament.

Gen. Gaines wants to proceed in the Louisiana Court according to the rules of Chancery, as laid down by the United States Supreme Court. The district Judge will not permit it. The Supreme Court say they have no power to compel him to conform to those rules; and all that they can do is regularly to reverse his decisions on the question of practice, as often as it is brought up for their adjudication. They extremely regret the district Judge's course—they say it amounts in some cases to a denial of a man's rights—but they are powerless.—S. Louis Gazette.

BUTTER.—It is said that the excellence of the cream from which butter is made and upon which the flavor of the butter depends, arises very much from the purity of the water which the cows drink.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS sundry important and weighty matters, principally growing out of the condition of the revenue and finances of the country, appear to me to call for the consideration of Congress at an earlier day than its next annual session, and such matters as require extraordinary attention, such as the consideration of the convention of the two Houses, as soon as may be practicable, I do, therefore, by this my Proclamation, convene the two Houses of Congress, to meet in the Capitol at the city of Washington, on the last Monday, being the thirty-first day of May next. And I require the respective Senators and Representatives to receive such information respecting the state of the Union as may be given to them, and to devise and adopt such measures as the good of the country may seem to them, in the exercise of their wisdom and discretion, to require.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same with my hand. Done at the city of Washington, this seventeenth day of March, in the seventh year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and of the Independence of the United States the sixty-fifth.

W. H. HARRISON.

DANIEL WEBSTER, Secretary of State.

EXTRA SESSIONS OF CONGRESS.

The number of those which have convened during the existence of our government is as follows:

John Adams was inaugurated on the 4th of March, 1797. He convened Congress May 16, 1797. His first annual address was delivered Nov. 23, 1797.

Thomas Jefferson was inaugurated on the 4th of March, 1801. He ordered a called session October 17, 1803.

James Madison was inaugurated on the 4th of March, 1809. He convened Congress May 23, 1809, also, on the 25th of May, 1813.

Martin Van Buren was inaugurated the 4th of March, 1837, and convened Congress the 4th of September, 1837.

The New York Jurist says that Major General Scott has arrived in that city, on his way to the Niagara frontier, there to take measures to repel any partisan outbreak which might arise in consequence of the approaching trial of McLeod at Leekport; and that it is rumored at Washington that Mr. Crittenden, the United States Attorney General, will be present at Leekport during the trial, to act on behalf of the United States as circumstances may require.—W. T. Com. & Eng.

A Query.—A correspondent of the Richmond Whig asks: "What authority had Mr. Van Buren to nominate Judge Madison to the Judgeship for the western district of Virginia? At the time of nomination there was no vacancy—Judge Daniel not having resigned. Is the appointment, valid and of any force? Certainly not, unless there can be two judges for the same station at the same time."

Sir David Wilkie is now at Constantinople completing a portrait of the Sultan, which has been expressly painted for her Majesty Queen Victoria.—N. A.

It is said to be in contemplation to create the Province of New Brunswick into an independent Episcopal See.—Globe.

Gen. Harrison rises at day break and it is said that he not a little astonished some of those who had business to transact with him, by making appointments for six and seven o'clock in the morning. To these primitive habits, Gen. Harrison is probably indebted in no small degree for the robust health which he enjoys.

The St. Louis New Era says "The Legislature of Missouri adjourned just in time, for it is literally true that there was not money enough in the treasury to have paid the members for a single day longer."

New Jersey.—George P. Mollison Esq. of New Brunswick, is here elected Attorney General of the State, vice Field, resigned, and Daniel Elmer, of Cumberland, Judge of the Supreme Court, vice Dayton resigned.

One Term.—The joint resolution to amend the Constitution of Pennsylvania, so as to provide that the Governor shall serve but one term in a period of nine years, passed third reading in the Senate of that State on Monday, by a vote of 19 to 9.

MR. RADDER. We learn from a variety of sources, that the Secretary of the Navy has made a decidedly favorable impression at Washington, and every body seems astonished that so "great a man" has not been in public life before. He has entered, at once, upon the vigorous discharge of the duties of his Department, and public expectation is high as to the reforms which he will bring about. There will be no disappointment either in this matter. His gigantic mind seems to comprehend, as it were, by intuition, every subject presented to him, in all its details and bearings. He has the moral fitness to do what he believes to be right, regardless of clamor or opposition, and to abstain from what he considers wrong, whatever inducements may be used to influence his determination.—Baltimore Register.

State Credit.—Joel Crawford, Esq., of Georgia, who a year or two since visited England for the purpose of procuring a loan of the bonds of Georgia, wrote as follows to a committee of the Legislature of that State on the 14th of November, 1840.—Baltimore American.

The leading object at which the Legislature of Georgia should now aim, with a view to carry on her public works, is the establishment of a high State credit; and I take leave to assure you, from much intercourse with capitalists on both sides of the Atlantic, that adequate and stable revenue laws are absolutely indispensable. They are not, or ought not to have any confidence in pledges of bank people to raise the means of maintaining the public faith, and therefore they will not rely on it. But let the State of Georgia impose the requisite tax, and such an earnest is given of her honest and resolute purpose to pay her debts, as will at once dispell all doubts.

The Hon. M. VAN BUREN, Ex-President of the United States, set out from this city on the 15th inst. for his residence in New York, accompanied as far as Baltimore by Ex-Secretary Forth and Ex-Secretary Poinssett. They spent Sunday together in Baltimore, and on Monday the Ex-President pursued his journey.—N. A.

The Penny Postage in Great Britain, which it was prophesied would not pay its expenses, has yielded £411,000 nett revenue in the first year of its experiment.

Tennessee.—At a Convention of Delegates held at Nashville on the 4th of March last, Major Jones, of Wilson county, was nominated as their candidate for Governor of the State at the ensuing election.—N. A.

President Harrison gave a large dinner party at the White House last week. Many Senators and some members of Mr. Van Buren's Cabinet were present. Men of all parties mingled freely in social intercourse, and a brighter day is now dawning at Washington.—Phil. North American.

The Hon. Charles B. Penrose has resigned the office of Speaker of the Senate of Pennsylvania, and the Hon. John H. Ewing, of Washington county, has been elected Speaker in his place.—N. A.
