Bob Ford, the slayer of Jesse James, is just a little troubled at the acquittal of Frank James. He says he would feel safer if Frank was locked up. He does not intend to provoke any quarrel and will try to keep out of James' way, but if attacked will try and defend himself. In closing an interview at Indianapolis he said, "I know very well if any one had killed my brother as I killed Jesse James I should not rest until I had taken his life."

DIED AT THE DINNER TABLE.—Yesterday at noon Abram Connelly, an aged man, took his seat at the dinner table at the residence of Mr. Joseph W. Kee, on Tryon street, near the Lutheran church and had commenced to eat his meal when his head suddenly fell forward on the table and he was dead before any one could jump to his side. Mr. Connelly was 82 years of age and was a rock mason by trade. He had been drinking heavily for the past few days, and this is supposed to have brought on an attack of apoplexy.—Charlotte Observer.

Adam is said to be the only man who never tantalized his wife about "the way his mother used to cook."

We have news from Marion, N. C., to the effect that the brothers-in-law, Preston Teale and Marshall Jones, who have been bad friends for sometime quarreled a few days ago. Teale went home, Jones following him, and entered his house. Jones attempted to follow when Teale sprang out and attacked Jones with a butcher knife, inflicting thirteen wounds, one in the abdomen and the others in the back. Jones is still alive but cannot recover.

Thirteen thousand pounds of red pepper were received at Laredo, Texas, a few days ago, from Mexico.

NORFOLK, Va., September 13.—Bankers, merchants and capitalists of Norfolk met today and resolved to subscribe all the money necessary to build a railroad to bring the Richmond & Danville system into Norfolk. George S. Scott and W. P. Clyde, members of the syndicate controlling the Richmond & Danville Railroad, were invited from Richmond to examine this harbor and its facilities. They spent today inspecting the shipping advantages and terminal facilities of the port. They will submit the proposition of the conference to the syndicate.

TRENTON, September 13.—The Democratic State Convention assembled here at noon today and organized by the election of Geo. O. Vanderbilt as permanent chairman. Lyman Abbott was nominated for Governor on the second ballot, amid great confusion. The Albright men jumped on their seats, cursed the nomination and declared they would bolt. A motion to make the nomination unanimous was howled down and without adjournment the convention dispersed.

Norfolk Ledger: A party of engineers started out this morning to survey the much-talked of railroad from here to Goldsboro, N. C. The road is said to be the N. Y. & Charleston Railroad. The terminus in this city will be at what is known as Milligan's Woods and the Bear Trap. The road will be an air line from this city to Goldsboro.
