Cuts Her Throat.

RICHMOND, MAINE, Sept. 29.—Intelligence was received here today of the suicide of Miss Mary Goff, a beautiful young woman living near Chambersburg. She stood before a mirror upon which was arranged a lot of toilet articles and roses. She then slowly cut her throat from ear to ear and did not cease until she saw that the jugular vein was severed.

In a gallery cut in the solid rock within a gorge about four miles from the Nile, to the east of Thebes, a most valuable discovery has been made of relics dating back to the times of the ancient Theban dynasties. They consist of four large papyri, each in a state of perfect preservation and of incalculable value to Egyptologists; 3,700 mortuary statues; the mummies of a large number of Theban kings, each with an alabaster canopic urn containing the heart and entrails of the deceased; fifteen enormous wigs, nearly two feet high, composed of frizzled and curled hair, belonging to Egyptian princesses, and nearly 2,000 other objects of interest.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—It is estimated at the Treasury Department that a reduction of the public debt for the month of September will be about $15,000,000.

There are on the criminal docket at this term of the Federal Court, which convenes to-morrow, 64 cases.—Greensboro Patriot.

The Greenville Reflector says: The largest mortgage ever offered for record in Pitt county was received on Monday. It is for $1,000,000, given by the Norfolk & Southern Telegraph Company to the American Trust Company, of New York.

Wilmington prohibits the sale of second-hand clothing in that city as dangerous to health.

Youth and Beauty Win the Race

Miss Phillips, the daughter of John Phillips, of the iron firm of Oliver Brothers & Phillips, of Pittsburg, eloped on Friday night with a glass-cutter named Fisher. The young people had been keeping company for sometime, and a day or two ago the girl's parents forbade her having anything to do with her lover. About 10 o'clock at night Fisher called at the Phillips residence in a carriage, halting in the rear of the house. The girl was ready and so was her mother. When the latter went to the front door the daughter ran out of the back door and thence across a potato field, followed by her mother. Youth and beauty won the race. The young lady reached the carriage considerably in advance of her pursuer, and, being helped in by her lover, the vehicle rattled away in the darkness. Pursuit was made, but the runaways succeeded in evading capture, and the next day they were married.

ACCIDENTAL KILLING.—Jos. Bartholomew a respectable young man 18 years of age, living near Bethlenem church in Nash county, accidentally shot himself in the breast while hunting on Monday. His death ensued in half an hour.—Tarboro Guide.

Mr. Henry Clark killed a rattle snake on Dr. Redding's farm last week, five and a half feet long with 14 rattles. . . . Mr. J. L. Taylor, of Adams Creek, has the champion grape of the season, it being very nearly the size of a hen egg.—Pamlico Enterprise.

A train on the Atchison & Santa Fe Railroad was attacked by a gang of cowboys in Kansas; the engineer was killed, the fireman fatally wounded, and the conductor shot at but escaped injury; the express car was attacked but the messenger repulsed the gang.
