The PILOT acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to the coming State Fair. Can't come, Mr. Williams, unless you send us a printer.

Rev. B. W. Daugherty accompanied his daughter as far as Greensboro this morning on her way to St. Mary's school.

The Detective Association has established a branch office at Winston, known as the Central Commercial, with Col Jno B Niles and W T Pfohl as managers.

We were glad to meet our old friend Prof. Winston, of the State University, on Saturday evening. He reports the new structure going up rapidly in the old Campus, and says that 180 students are present and more are coming. He left yesterday morning, after having spent two days with his brother, Mr. P. H. Winston, jr.

"Whispering Pines" has gone to press. We received the first copy by Sunday's mail, and it is a real home-folks work. John Henry tunes up the old Yaddin and makes the waving willows keep time to his measured cadences, while the Monitor stands by in mute admiration at the silence of that valley so gloriously broken.

W A Walker, esq., has been re-appointed postmaster at this place. Capt Hellen goes to the revenue office.

If you want a good time-piece look at the watches Cheap John has. He is offering a good second-hand silver, double-case, watch for $5.00, single case for $3.00. Clocks at $1.00 each.

A bogus check for $170 reached the City National Bank at Bridgeport, Conn.; it was cashed and forwarded by the People's National Bank of Fayetteville, N. C.

DUCK TOWN.—Almost like magic, a small village has sprung up at the forks of the Shallow Ford and Clemmonsville roads, a and a half miles west of Winston. Mr. H. Pitts has opened up a store there for the accommodation of the public. There is also a basket manufactory on a small scale, and a wagon shop, among the industries of Duck Town.

LEWISVILLE, N. C., Oct. 1, '83. MESSRS. EDITORS PILOT: Your correspondent begs leave to say that the Lewisville township Sunday School Convention, held at this place last Saturday, was a complete success and withal a very enjoyable occasion. During the morning exercise an election was held, which resulted in electing Mr. Binkley, pres., Mr. Spaug, vice-pres., and Eugene Conrad, sec. and treas. Among the speakers of the day we noticed your townsmen, Rev. Mr. Bowles and R. R. Crawford. It was indeed a very enjoyable day, and many a "how-dy-do" was passed between old friends who had not had the pleasure of meeting before in some time. I was very much taken with the singing, especially with that rendered by Mt. Tabor and Pleasant Hill schools. Our church is a new one, 40x60, well finished and supplied with neat furniture, having a capacity of over 400. While this church was in the course of erection many remarked that we would never be able to fill it; but twice have we seen it full and others standing around the doors unable to secure seats within.

Rev. T. H. Pegram, pastor in charge, commenced a series of meetings here yesterday being assisted by Revs. Hunt and Craft. Some seriousness is manifested and the outlook for a good meeting is very flattering.

Farmers in this section are quite busy attending to their grain farms and taking care of the present crop of tobacco. We wish to make a big display at the next Forsyth Wheat and Cattle Fair.

News is rather scarce. Good luck to the PILOT.

Yours &c., BONO.

A good deal of seriousness is being manifested at the series of meetings in progress at the M. E. Church. Let the good work continue.
