The Plot.

The riot was the work of Mahone's scheming, to lay the foundation for throwing out the vote of Pittsylvania county, in order to aid his plot to capture the State Senate. To-day his toenail governor has stationed two companies of military in our streets, for which there was no occasion, but to aid in his scheme. He has instructed his black allies in Danville, North Danville, Chatham, New Design, not to vote, and this is to make out a case of intimidation, to further aid in his scheme. By throwing out the vote of this county the Democrats will lose a Senator and three Delegates.—Danville Register, Dem.

We learn from a gentleman who has been upon the spot that in Gaston county, not far from the Whetstone Mountains, there is a very ancient tunnel, supposed to have been made by the early Spaniards. The probability is it is even older. It is known to be a full hundred years old by the testimony of aged people who were living twenty years ago who learned from their fathers that the tunnel was in their boyhood as it was in their children's time. We call the attention of Col. Cameron to this interesting fact in case he is not aware of its existence.—Wil. Star.

The iron rails for the extension of the railroad to this place have arrived and a few weeks only will be necessary to make the road in readiness for the trains. The building of the trestle at the L. C. Mills will require probably three weeks. By the 1st of December the last nail ought to be driven and the whistle of the engine afford daily music to our people.—Leaksville Gazette.

Ex-Mayor Howell, Gen. Slocum and Treasurer Witte of the Brooklyn bridge trustees, are in favor of making the bridge free.

The funeral of the late Gen. James B Stedman took place at Toledo, Ohio, last Monday. Ten thousand persons were present. A carload of flowers was sent by friends in New Orleans.

Mr. W. J. Ycung, the worthy superintendent for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind is sick. His many friends will regret to hear of his sickness.—Raleigh Visitor.

Ten tramps were fined $1 each and costs in Greensboro on Monday, and being unable to pay they had to work out the same. Tramps must go—to work.
