A Love Story in a Few Lines.

John Strathern, a rich Australian, met his betrothed, an English lady, on the transfer platform at Council Bluffs the other day by appointment. Each had travelled one-third of the circumference of the globe to meet without waiting each other's arrival over a half an hour. They had not met each other for ten years.—Chicago Times.

The Baptist congregation will occupy their new church next Sunday. ... Mr. F. M. Thompson's son, quite a little fellow, broke his leg while playing at school yesterday. ... The protracted meeting in the Methodist church continues. There have been a number of conversions and several accessions to the church. ... The Franklin Times says that a Pennsylvania company has contracted to work the Pertis gold mine on a large scale. ... The proprietors of the Gulf coal fields in Chatham county are about to test the value of the property. They have employed a mining expert, who will bore to a depth of five hundred feet. ... Last March, while plowing on his farm near Gibsonville, Guilford county, Mr. James Smith found a stone which the Greensboro jewelers pronounced an emerald. He refused an offer of one thousand dollars for it. It has just been examined by an expert in gems, who pronounced it a crystal of quartz penetrated by long hair—like crystals of green actinolite or byssolite, and containing cavities filled with liquid.—Lexington Dispatch.

VANCE ON WILSON WOMEN.—

We heard Gov. Vance say that he did not remember to have ever seen so many large, handsome, well-developed women. "Why," said he, "they beat the women of the Blue Grass country, although it wouldn't do to tell my wife so."—Wilson Advance.

Shocking Disaster.

We understand that a very serious disaster happened last night at Laurinburg. There was a gathering of colored people in McLean's Hall, about 40 persons being present, when first the floor, and afterwards the walls of the building, gave way and fell in a mass of ruins. There was a wild scene for a short time, but after all had been extricated it was ascertained that the disasters were much less than was at first feared. In all it is said that eight persons were injured, two of whom are severely hurt and may die.—Wilmington Review.

Murder in Iredell.

Charlotte Observer: From a private letter we learn that a man named Warren Minish, living in the extreme northern portion of Iredell county, was killed by his wife last Friday night. He had gotten out of bed, and was sitting in a chair putting on his shoes, when his wife, a daughter of Daniel Ball, gathered up a new axe, and in the language of our correspondent "cut his head all to pieces." No cause is assigned for the dastardly deed. The woman was lodged in jail at Statesville last Saturday.

The Shelby Aurora says that while two hunters, Mr. John Hoyle and George Hunt, were out hunting for turkeys, they became separated in the woods, and after rambling for a time Mr. Hunt, on hearing a noise in the woods supposed the object to be a turkey, and it is feared that the wound is a fatal one.

Francis D. Brown, a Philadelphia letter carrier, fell dead Thursday while preparing to take a Turkish bath.

The coinage of the United States Mint, at Philadelphia, for October was $1,359,914, of which $1,050,050 were silver dollars.

GREAT BARGAINS IN PIANOS & ORGANS!

A fine-toned, 7 octave piano, worth every cent over $300—for one hundred and fifty dollars.
One of the best toned, 6 octave pianos in the country, for seventy-five dollars. Both pianos in splendid condition.
Also, a large Mason & Hamlin Organ, 2 manuals, or banks of keys, with 2 octaves of pedal bass; 4 full sets of reeds of 6 octaves, and 2 sets of Pedal Bass; a splendid organ for a church Sunday school, or Lodge room. This organ would cost five hundred dollars at the manufactory, but will be sold for two hundred dollars. Can be seen at the Opera Hall, in Winston. Apply to
