EDITORS PILOT:—I notice in your valuable paper of the 22d an article signed 'Injured Pedestrian,' warning the city fathers of an impending lawsuit on account of a hole in the pavement in front of Mrs. Hardy's boarding house. Now, the precipice from the pavement leading into this dangerous hole is nearly two inches. Just below, where Johnson's pavement ends, there was an offset 4 inches deep, leading into a hole all the way down the sidewalk, until Maj. Brown filled it up with brick and sand. Have not heard whether anybody was sued about this precipice, or not. Have not consulted the Coroner's report as to casualties at this point, but suppose there must have been several. 'Injured Pedestrian' fails to inform us as to the character of his injury—whether it was personal or loss of property. Neither are we enlightened as to when, where or how the injury was produced. Revolutionary war, Jesse Holmes, colliding with a lamp-post, mixing with John Barleycorn, or stepping off a two-inch precipice. Do not sue this week, as things will be somewhat mixed, and Esquire Barrow, no doubt, will be busy holding inquests; Esquire Best busy looking after carp, and Esquire Grogan has made up his mind to talk some Greenbacks this week, if he does not have sick-headache.

SOLID EQUESTRIAN.

Well Provided With Limbs.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16.—A female negro, thirteen months old, which has four arms and four legs, is now in the care of Harry Farmer, of No. 821 Walnut street, and is attracting much attention. The child moves its natural arms and legs as well as any child of its age, crawling about the floor and using its hands without constraint. The mother of the child, who is from Charleston, S. C., says that she has borne five children, the last alone being in any way peculiar. She says the infant has been healthy from its birth.

There were about 1,000 bushels of rice on our market this morning, finding a ready sale at $1 to $1.06.—Newbern Nutshell.

The cannon's roar is heard in China. The French have taken Sontay.

Congress adjourns to-day until the 3d of January.

"Sarah," said a mother to her daughter, "has Henry proposed yet?" "Not yet, ma; but I think he will before many days." "What makes you think so?" "Because he asked me if you expected to live with me if I married, and I told him no."
