SOLONS FACE HEAVY TASKS IN COMMITTEE

Many Bills Being Shaped Up for Presentation at Raleigh

WILL SOON CLOG THE LEGISLATIVE MILL

By HENRY LESENE

The Times-News Bureau

Sir Walter Hotel

RALEIGH, Feb. 6.—The work of the finance sub-committee, facing the task of drawing up an entirely new revenue bill, the basis of which is now expected to be a general sales tax, will overshadow everything else on Capitol Hill this week, although various other sub-committees will be engaged in drafting bills that can be counted on to clog legislative machinery for many days to come.

Under the Moore resolution adopted early in the session, the finance and appropriations committees were instructed to prepare their new bills early this week, but despite many long sessions, sometimes as many as two a day, the committees still have a lot of work ahead. The finance committee has given a hearing to virtually every business interest of the state, but since it decided to scrap the budget revenue bill, it is, theoretically, at the same point of progress it was three weeks ago.

A sub-committee composed of two senators and six representatives has been appointed to the job of drawing a new revenue bill, and early this week it is expected to take up the question of a general sales tax, which is expected to be the most acceptable form of sales levy. No general income tax bill has been introduced in the legislature this far, but this will be no obstacle in the way of the sub-committee.

The committee last week heard Senator Clement explain his production tax bill, placing a tentative levy of one-half of one percent on all manufactured products. Senator Hinsdale also gave a detailed account of his selected commodity tax bill, almost identical with the one which deadlocked the 1931 session. And Senator Larry Moore outlined the advantages of his bill imposing a tax of one mill per kilowatt hour on electrical energy.

Major bills pertaining to election laws, highway safety, the industrial commission and the workman's compensation act, the school term, the administration of public schools, marriage laws, the consolidation of various departmental agencies are expected to come out of committee rooms during the week.

A sub-committee on education is now attempting to draft a general bill embodying many provisions.

Norment Quarles Wins Fourth Ring Bout This Year

Latest Decision Is Over National Intercollegiate Title

Norment Quarles, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Quarles, of Hendersonville, proved his ability as an amateur boxer on Saturday evening at Chapel Hill when he won a decision over Bobby Goldstein, University of Virginia lightweight, and holder of the national inter-collegiate championship in his weight.

Young Quarles, known to fans here as "Baby," is in his first year as a member of the Carolina boxing team. As a freshman boxer he was undefeated and to date has won four fights as a varsity boxer this year. His first three fights were by the knockout route and he won a decision over Goldstein on Saturday night.

Quarles is normally a featherweight, but was moved up to the lightweight class this year as Carolina coaches possessed two good fighters in the lower class. This means that Quarles has given away poundage in every fight this year.

Fans here eagerly awaited the outcome of the bout on Saturday night, as it was the first great test in Quarles' college ring career. His opponent was rated as one of the outstanding men in his class in amateur ranks in the country. In addition to being inter-collegiate champion in his class he was a former winner of the Golden Gloves in his weight in New York City.

Quarles is a clever boxer and possesses a punch in both hands. It was his ability to hit with either hand that gave him knockouts in his first three fights this year. Quarles is one of the most consistent trainers ever to perform on any team at the university, according to coaches, and is in perfect shape for all of his bouts.

County Agent Is Ill With the 'Flu'

Tractor Demonstration Is Postponed

County Farm Agent O. B. Jones is confined to his home by an attack of influenza, and announces that the fact that he probably will be unable to get around for a few days will make it necessary for his appointments for that period to be postponed. One of the appointments to which Mr. Jones referred was the tractor demonstration, which was scheduled for today at Fanning Fields Farm at Fletcher. This was postponed on account of the severe cold weather.

LONG RESCUES ORLEANS BANK

Halts Run on $64,000,000 Institution Through R. F. C. Loan

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6. (UP)—United States Senator Huey Long today covered himself with glory by saving the $64,000,000 Hibernal Bank and Trust company, which had been threatened with a general run, until the Reconstruction Finance Corporation pledged a loan of $20,000,000 during the night. The run was blamed on Representative Hamilton Fish of New York, who asked Rudolph S. Hecht, president of the bank to resign as chairman of the advisory committee of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation due to the failure of the Union Indemnity Title company, after getting a Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan.

W. G. PAINTER PASSES AWAY

Pleasant Hill Resident To Be Given Burial on Tuesday P. M.

W. G. Painter, 66-year-old farmer of the Pleasant Hill section, who has been in declining health for the past several months, and who was stricken with pneumonia Saturday, died at the home Sunday night at 8:25 o'clock. Funeral services will be held from the Mud Creek Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. S. F. Huntley will be in charge. Interment will follow in the near-by cemetery.

Mr. Painter leaves a wife, who was before her marriage, Miss Matilda Shipman, and six children, Oscar Painter of Greenville, S. C., Lincoln Painter of Spartanburg, S. C., Mrs. Phanie Russell, Charlie Painter, Freno Painter and Miss Lucy Painter all of Hendersonville.

Mr. Painter leaves 21 grandchildren and had survived seven other children. Acting as pallbearers at the funeral Tuesday will be H. E. Drake, John Drake, Harvey Summey, Dall Nelson, Robert Summey and Sheridan Fisher. Honorary pallbearers will be: J. C. Drake, Joe Fletcher, John Summey, John Ficker, Sing Drake, Bill Mintz, Otto Brookshire, Otis Powers and Charles French.

TAX DELINQUENTS TO ACT ON JURIES IN TRANSYLVANIA

GOLF COURSE BILL OFFERED IN ASSEMBLY

Paves Way for Gift of Municipal Golf Links to the City

NO OPPOSITION TO MEASURE IS SEEN

Members of the Hendersonville Golf and Country Club expressed pleasure today over the contents of a bill introduced in the legislature by Representative T. R. Ray of Henderson county, which would enable the city to accept as a donation the 135-acre golf course which is being completed in Laurel park.

Little or no opposition to the bill is expected to develop here, it was said, the measure being merely another step in the development of plans to provide Hendersonville and its tourists with a first-class golf course. Approximately $75,000 has been spent on the course, and only a relatively small amount of work will be required to complete it.

The Ray bill, now before the house committee on counties, cities and towns, states that: "Whereas, Hendersonville is a well-known resort city, but has been without the advantages of a first-class golf course, thereby losing thousands of tourists who would otherwise spend their vacation in Hendersonville, to the great loss and detriment of the people of Henderson county generally, and

"Whereas, a first-class golf course for Henderson county and Hendersonville is hereby declared to be a public necessity, and

"Whereas, a tract of land consisting of 135 acres highly suitable for the development of a golf course has been tendered as a donation to the city of Hendersonville on which more than $75,000 has already been expended in the construction of a golf course under the supervision of a nationally known and outstanding golf architect, and

"Whereas, this golf course is now almost completed and the balance of funds necessary to its completion is to be advanced by a number of Hendersonville citizens and no part of the expense of the cost of same is to be borne by either the City of Hendersonville, the County of Henderson, or any other political subdivision of said county, now, therefore, the general assembly of North Carolina do enact:

"Section 1. That the City of Hendersonville is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire title by gift, purchase or otherwise to land for golf course purposes, and said land may lie either within, or without the corporate limits of the City of Hendersonville.

"Section 2. The City of Hendersonville is hereby authorized and empowered, in the discretion of its governing board, to construct a golf course under its own supervision or to lease any land so acquired under this act to some suitable and reputable person, firm or corporation under an agreement by the lessee to build, operate and maintain a golf course in such manner, and for such time as may be agreed upon between the parties to the lease. Provided, that the lessee shall always keep the golf course available to play to the general public of Henderson county and the visitors and tourists therein, under such reasonable rules and

HUNT CLUE TO SLAYER OF 15-YEAR-OLD GIRL STUDENT

While hundreds of police scoured the vicinity about Massapequa, N. Y., for the murderer of Mary Helen O'Connor (right) the girl's grief-stricken family (below) received mysterious letters and telephone calls which indicated that the assailant might have been a maniac, Miss O'Connor, a Rockaway Park high school honor student and beauty contest winner, was 15 years old. Her body, found in a wooded section of Long Island, indicated that she had been brutally slain while resisting a would-be attacker. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor, are shown in their home with their son, Jack, 10.

Barry Cites Statement of Senator Glass in His Defense

STIMSON PROCLAIMS LAME DUCK CLAUSE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (UP).—Believing that the domestic allotment bill cannot pass at this session of congress, and that President Hoover is favorably inclined, southern senators today moved for an early agriculture committee report on the Smith cotton relief program.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6. (UP).—Senator Glass, Democrat of Virginia, made similar allegation in the senate that some congressmen sell their votes for money. David S. Barry, senate sergeant-at-arms, said in his defense today at the senate judiciary committee hearings. Barry is under suspension due to a statement in a New Outlook article.

BITTER COLD HITS CHICAGO

Suffering Most Severe of Year; Is Freak of Temperature

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—(UP).—The most severe cold wave of the year, thus far, and one of the strangest of all years, held Chicago and surrounding territory in an icy grip yesterday.

The official temperature in Chicago was two below zero Sunday. It remained at that point for three hours. During the same hours the temperature in the suburbs fell to 10, 14, and in some places 16 below zero.

The cold wave was strange because the territory which it struck was surrounded on all sides, the north included, by warmer areas.

The sub-zero wave, the second this season for Chicago, caused much suffering here, especially among the 20,000 or so men who had no homes. More than 17,000 were housed in shelters.

C. A. Donnel, government forecaster, said it would be warmer here today, but that another cold wave would sweep in Tuesday.

Opening of New Furniture Store Draws Big Crowd

Valuable Prizes Awarded at "Open House" of Houston Firm

A crowd which temporarily tied up traffic at 507-511 North Main street attended the formal opening of the Houston Furniture company's store Saturday afternoon.

Several valuable furniture prizes were awarded in connection with the opening, with Mayor A. V. Edwards drawing attendance tickets from a large box after most of the crowd had inspected the new store and then assembled on the sidewalk and in the street.

A. H. Houston, proprietor of the store, said that approximately 6,000 tickets had been distributed throughout the city and county and that apparently half of these were returned to the store for the drawing. The crowd was said to be the largest assembled here in recent years, and Mr. Houston expressed much pleasure over the response to the invitation to attend the opening. Names were written on the cards before they were deposited in the box, and it was necessary for the person to be present to be eligible to receive a prize. The awards were as follows:

Kitabeh range—Miss Ada Belle Bradburn, 836 Third avenue west. Kitcher cabinet—Mrs. W. J. Drake, 522 Kanuga street. Felt mattress—Bill Searcy, Seventh avenue east. Leather handbag—Miss L. L. Baker, 313 Grove street. Floor lamp—Mary Mehaffey, 618 Edgewood. Iron bed—Miss Alma Rawley, Zirconia. Porcelain top table—Mrs. C. F. Huffman, 416 Eighth avenue east.

DUTCH NAVAL CREWS MUTINY

Seaplanes Threaten to Bomb Cruiser if Not Surrendered

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Feb. 6.—(UP).—Naval seaplanes flew over the cruiser De Zeven Provinciën and threatened to bomb it unless the mutineers in control surrendered.

THE HAGUE, Feb. 6.—(UP).—Dutch warships sped in pursuit today of the Maverick, training ship, steaming in control of a mutinous crew of native Sumatrans, who overpowered officers and crew, and wirelessly they planned no violence, but are only protesting wage cuts.

The Dutch cruiser "De Zeven Provinciën" was reported in the hands of a mutinous crew of native Javanese yesterday. The mutineers steamed out to sea from the Port of Okhe, on the north coast of the island of Sumatra.

An official dispatch from the Dutch governor said the mutinous crew seized arms and ammunition aboard the warship, overpowered the few officers on board and put to sea. The cruiser was reported sighted at 8 p. m. last night west of the town of Melaboe, apparently

Woodrow Lyda Is Not in Court

The Times-News wishes to correct a statement made in Saturday's issue to the effect that Woodrow Lyda was one of two men charged with breaking and entering in the entry of the W. W. Hyder store at Dana, on last December 10, in which two men have been bound to court. Mr. Lyda was not one of the defendants and the name should have read Woodrow Lively, instead.

PRUSSIAN DIET MAY BE DISSOLVED

NORRIS OPPOSES NAMING OF TOO MANY SENATORS TO NEW ADMINISTRATION PLACES

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 6.—(UP).—A message from the yacht Nourmahal with President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt aboard last night, said she would enter Nassau, Bahamas Island, today, "to pick up a fishing pilot and bait."

President-elect Roosevelt last night was in Bahamas Islands aboard the Nourmahal, Vincent Astor's big sea-going yacht. Two radio messages to Marvin McIntyre, his secretary here, said: "Fine night at sea and all goes well. Will be off Settlement Point at 10 and proceed through North-west Providence Channel."

This message was received at the Fort Lauderdale coast guard station at 10:32 a. m. A second one relayed to McIntyre at 4:30 p. m. added: "Anchored under Stirup Cay; expect to go fishing."

Both were signed "Astor." Meanwhile, at the headquarters of James A. Farley, Democratic national party chairman, and Mr. Roosevelt's right hand man, preparations were being made for the resumption of patronage confer-
