Germans Name Dictator For Trade, Industry

FULL NOTE ON SECURITIES IS STILL IGNORED

Dodd Calls for Appointment to Demand Rights for U. S. Investors

EQUAL TREATMENT FOR THEM IS GOAL

BERLIN, July 6.—(UP).—The financial and economic crisis, almost ignored in last week's bloody events impelled the government today to name Minister of Economics Kurt Schmitt as dictator of trade and industrial activities.

DODD WILL WARN AGAINST ILL FEELING

BERLIN, July 6.—(UP).—American Ambassador William E. Dodd called for an appointment with Foreign Minister Konstantin von Neurath today. It was believed he intended to discuss the moratorium on foreign debt services.

HULL HAS NO REPLY FROM RECENT NOTE

WASHINGTON, July 6 (UP).—The United States government will insist that American holders of German bonds receive the same financial returns as British investors, the state department indicated today.

NEW DEAL HAS SET BACK FROM F. R.'S DISTRICT

WASHINGTON, July 6 (UP).—Slipping again into the role of "lone wolf," Senator William E. Borah (R., Ida.), departed last night on a one-man crusade against bureaucracy and monopoly under the "new deal."

The thundering oratory of the venerable Idahoan, which crackled about the League of Nations during the famous senate fight, will roar from town halls and auditoriums from coast to coast as the Borah of old lashes out again.

Cheered by hundreds of telegrams and telephone messages which greeted his speech in which he sounded his battle cry the night of the Fourth of July, Borah said yesterday he would rest in Chicago for several days before beginning a speaking itinerary which will carry him as far west as Seattle, Wash.

His itinerary will be governed chiefly by financial considerations. Borah is not a wealthy man and has no civic or political organization backing him in his latest fight.

In taking his battle to the country, Borah will attack two phases of the "new deal": 1. Bureaucracy which he contends is depriving Americans of their constitutional liberties; 2. Monopolies which gouge the consumer as a result of suspension of anti-trust laws.

Always a "question mark" in Republican party politics, the Idaho senator is undertaking to arouse public sentiment chiefly in a demand for restoration of anti-trust laws. He decided to lead the lone fight only after high officials of the Republican party had refused to include the issue of alleged monopolistic price fixing in their strategy for the forthcoming congressional elections campaign.

Meanwhile, the French embassy categorically denied charges that France was involved in the plot to overthrow the Hitler regime.

The reports were circulated after the shooting last Saturday of General Kurt Von Schleicher and his wife. An official explanation said Von Schleicher had been plotting with a "certain foreign power" against the Nazis.

News throughout the third reich emerged from the latest Nazi turmoil without suffering fresh persecutions. Fears that the storm would turn in their direction, forcing them to flee the country were allayed as Chancellor Adolf Hitler turned his attention to a peaceful campaign for consolidation of his new power.

NEW DEAL POLL.—The Literary Digest's President Roosevelt poll shows three out of five approving the new deal, it was announced today. Vermont is the only state disapproving the president's administration and his strength has increased 3.83 per cent since the election.

Girl Tortured In Ozark Feud

Chinese torture methods were invoked by Ozark mountain feudists in their attempt to force Miss Effie Jackson (above), Marshall, Ark., stenographer, to reveal the whereabouts of one of their foes. The girl said her head was plunged repeatedly into a bucket of water and matches were held to her feet. An appeal for state troops to halt the feud, in which four have died, was made by her employer to Governor Futrell.

BORAH STARTS LONE CRUSADE

To Carry on Single Handed Fight Against "New Deal's" Bureaucracy

WASHINGTON, July 6. (UP). Slipping again into the role of "lone wolf," Senator William E. Borah (R., Ida.), departed last night on a one-man crusade against bureaucracy and monopoly under the "new deal."

ROOSEVELT IN PUERTO RICAN HARBOR TODAY

Cheering Crowds Line Docks as Cruiser Houston Enters Mayaguez

GIVEN RECEPTION AT HAITI ON THURSDAY

MAYAGUEZ, Puerto Rico, July 6. (UP).—The U. S. S. Houston, bearing President Roosevelt on his vacation cruise arrived here today. Cheering crowds lined the docks and a band played as two destroyers escorted the cruiser into the harbor.

ABOARD U. S. S. GILMER WITH PRESIDENTIAL PARTY, July 6. (UP).—President Roosevelt stepped ashore at Cap-Haitien, chief port of Haiti, yesterday and voiced an appeal that the people of the island republic carry on in a spirit of friendship with the United States after the early withdrawal of U. S. marines.

In genial good humor, the chief executive drank a toast to the Haitians as they cheered him to the echo, adding: "To your government and people—may our friendship ever continue."

The president, making his first foreign call on his vacation cruise to Hawaii, was greeted by President Stenio Vincent and high government dignitaries as the cruiser Houston nosed into the blue waters of Cap-Haitien's tropical harbor, and dropped anchor.

Vincent, assured Mr. Roosevelt of the close relations and affection between the people of America and Haiti. He intimated that the Roosevelt administration's withdrawal of marines, long garrisoned in the island, had gone far to remove hard feelings.

The exchange of compliments and good will messages came at a reception for the Roosevelt party at the spacious clubhouse ashore.

Recovery Review Board's Dismissal Order Is Belated

WASHINGTON, July 6.—(UP).—The Darrow recovery review board was formally notified of its dismissal by President Roosevelt today.

The board actually ended existence six days ago, the White House revealed, but the executive order was overlooked in the flurry of the president's departure.

CANNON OPENS DRY CAMPAIGN

Bone-Dry Banner Raised in New Formidable Prohibition Drive

WASHINGTON, July 6. (UP).—Under a bone-dry banner held aloft by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., the nation's anti-liquorites have launched a formidable drive to restore prohibition.

In fashion reminiscent of the bar-smashing days of Carrie Nation, church bodies throughout the country are uniting under the Cannon standard and prophesying bad times for John Barleycorn.

They've set out to carry the fight into the schools, the churches, to the fall congressional elections and to the White House, and publicity bureaus have taken up the pen to keep the world abreast of developments.

In the background, but not as yet actively supporting the campaign, the Women's Christian Temperance Union is girding itself for the fight and is expected to move to the election front in September.

Anti-Saloon League headquarters at Westerville, O., has become increasingly active and the league probably will occupy a front-line trench when many congressmen, who dropped all dry pretense and came out as dripping wet, go to the polls for vindication.

Word of the campaign which made a gasping start in a sham-ble left by the epeal cyclone, came from Bishop Cannon whose own ecclesiastical group, Methodist Episcopal Church, south, has come out with old-time vigor against the saloon.

"Now that the unthinking, reckless and deceptive craze for repeal has spent its force," he said, "the people are discovering the wreckage which has been wrought. For repeal has developed the most distressing conditions I have ever known."

"Leaders of both political parties declared most positively their opposition to return of the saloon in any guise and also for the protection of dry territory. The president of the United States as late as December 30, 1933, appeared publicly to the Democratic leader of Missouri to defeat legislation which would permit return of the saloon. But within 30 days the president himself signed a bill which brought back saloons to the District of Columbia, over which legislation he had absolute veto power."

"Notwithstanding, therefore, all the pledges which were made, the saloon has returned, not only with its former evil accomplishments, but with the addition of barmaids, and with indiscriminate patronage by women."

"The president, it was recalled, was defeated by Herbert Hoover in his home county. Newell stumped the district supporting the president's entire program. The president's home village also voted against the "new deal" by giving Bontecou a majority. Bontecou will succeed the late J. Vriswold Webb of Hyde Park, virtual next door neighbor of the president who died after a lengthy illness."

HOLC Loans Are Over One Billion

WASHINGTON, July 6. (UP).—The Home Owners Loan corporation expended more than one billion dollars to ease mortgage burdens to hundreds of thousands of small householders since its establishment.

LONG MACHINE PASSING BILLS OF VENGEANCE

Kingfish Dictating 'Spite' Tax Measures Against Press of State

COTTON EXCHANGE, UTILITIES STRUCK AT

BATON ROUGE, La., July 6. (UP).—Senator Huey Long is wreaking vengeance on newspapers, the cotton exchange and utilities.

His political machine yesterday as Long stood on the floor of the law-making body rammed a two per cent tax on gross advertising on six leading newspapers; passed the house and sent to the senate a bill providing a heavy tax on cotton futures and public utilities took the same course.

Bitter quarreling preceded both votes. "The newspaper tax is an example of what will happen to the little country papers if they don't get right," warned one of the legislators.

Protests that no other state imposed such a tax and that it infringed on the freedom of the press was scoffed at.

The cotton exchange has threatened to leave the state if such a tax is imposed on it.

"The newspaper tax applies to 'periodicals with more than 20,000 circulation.' There are only four. They have all opposed Senator Long during his rise to power. The levy is two per cent of gross proceeds from advertising."

Governor O. K. Allen, satellite in the Long administration, sat beside Speaker Allen Ellender on the rostrum. Huey Long stood on the floor.

At the height of the session, George Reyer, superintendent of New Orleans police and a group of detectives from that city arrived to protest another "spite" bill, passed yesterday by the senate. It would take control of the police department away from the mayor and city council and vest it in a "brain trust" of college professors and civic leaders.

The Long faction has threatened revenge against New Orleans since the city defeated the Long ticket in the last municipal election.

Seek To Revoke TVA Power As Utility Concern

Oral Hearing Begins on Privileges Granted by State of Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 6.—(UP).—Oral hearing will open today on a petition by ice and coal dealers of Alabama which seeks to have the state public service commission reconsider its order permitting the Tennessee Valley Authority to operate as a utility.

The TVA yesterday filed answer with the public service commission citing that the petition should be disallowed because points in dispute, as set out by the ice and coal men, were settled when the original order was issued to the TVA by the commission.

Under the order, the TVA was given permission to operate as a utility and sell electrical appliances in the state through its auxiliary agency, the Electric Farm and Home Authority.

Stratosphere Apparatus Tested

Exacting tests are being made of every part of the equipment which will be used by Maj. William E. Kepner and Capt. A. W. Stevens in their stratosphere flight. Here the flyers are shown in the gondola, testing apparatus which will be used when they take off from the bowl in the Black Hills, near Rapid City, S. D.

CARNIVAL AND PAGEANT WILL BE STAGED AT LAUREL PARK; WILL BE MADE ANNUAL EVENT

C. of C. Sponsoring Spectacular Diversion Set August 16

Under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, plans are being made for a carnival and pageant to be held at Laurel Park lake on the afternoon and evening of August 16.

The Chamber of Commerce plans to make the carnival and pageant an annual affair to be presented each year during the month of August for the entertainment of visitors and in an effort to attract more people to this section.

The pageant will be presented this year will be "The Fire God" depicting the development of fire as it gives light, warmth and comfort to mankind. The pageant will open in fantastic fashion with the earth before the creation of the world as it is today. The theme will then gradually be developed through a fantastic and spectacular mode to the modern times.

The pageant and carnival will be under the direction of Mrs. Robert D'Arante, of New York City, and a former Charlestonian. Mrs. D'Arante was formerly Miss Saidee Brown of Charleston. She has done many such pageants in the north and east and in Charleston. More recently she has been touring the south with Misses Sally and Betty Silcox, concert dancers, of Charleston. These young ladies will be featured in the pageant. Local dancing talent and dramatic groups will be invited to participate.

Among the work done along this line by Mrs. O'Arante was the 20th anniversary celebration of the Aloha camps, when a similar pageant was staged. Some of the pageant music will be especially composed for the production.

In addition to local people, people of the surrounding counties and cities will be asked to participate in the pageant. Summer camps for boys and girls will also be asked to take part.

The pageant will be given in a spectacular setting in the middle of Laurel Park on a large barge which will be arranged as an island. Plans are being made to arrange seats for spectators up to about 5,000 capacity.

In addition to the pageant, a carnival will be held during the afternoon. At the carnival there will be booths for handicraft work done by the mountain people, and there will be a special row for summer camps, in which booths will show the work done by these camps.

Gypsy dancing, canoe drills by campers, tumbling, athletic contests, and water sports will be featured at the carnival. In addition there will be a canoe party. (Continued on page three)

DISORDERS IN MANY SECTIONS ARE REPORTED

Police Called as Textile Mills in Ohio Are Under Attack

TEAR GAS PUTS DOWN NEW MINING STRIKE

UNITED PRESS Violence in the two-months-old longshoremen's strike in San Francisco which resulted in the deaths of two men and the wounding of scores brought troops to the scene today to curb disorders.

The strike became serious with rioting when an attempt was made to open the port by running a picket blockade. The controversy centers chiefly around methods of hiring workers and does not involve wage increases.

On the Atlantic coast disorders occurred at Bridgeton, N. J., where several hundred angry farmers faced striking employes on a huge Seabrook farm.

Four men were hurt in a clash when they attempted to defy strikers and take out two tractors. Police were summoned. Strikers are demanding re-employment of about 100 berry pickers and canners laid off recently.

At Milwaukee new threats of trouble are rising out of charges that employes are not observing the agreement which ended the transportation strike there.

Strikers broke every window of the textile mills at Lockland, O., near Cincinnati, and police were called on duty there today.

Tear gas was used to disperse strike demonstrators at an independent mine at Jessup, Pa.

Hope grew early today for a settlement of the Great Lakes tugmen's strike in progress at Cleveland.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—(UP).—San Francisco was swept yesterday by the bloodiest rioting in three quarters of a century.

Striking maritime workers, pitting themselves against police, terrorized half of the waterfront and warehouse area of the city. Two men were shot and three men and a woman street car passengers were wounded.

Twenty-two others were wounded by gunfire so badly they required hospital treatment. Thirty others went to hospitals with wounds ranging from fractured skulls to cuts and severe bruises.

The total injured on the official casualty list was 52. Three times that number were hurt but not hospitalized. Fires were set, windows were smashed. Traffic was tied up and trucks were overturned.

FIRST TOURIST PROGRAM OUT

Burgin Reunion Sunday, July 15th

The Burgin family reunion will be held at Bethel church, near Old Fort, on Highway 28, Sunday, July 15, it was announced today.

Relatives and friends are cordially invited. Descendants of Major Ben Burgin living in Henderson county are especially urged to be present, it was stated.

REV. PHILLIPS IS GIVEN CALL

Associational Moderator Is Asked to Take Western Group of Churches

EAST FLAT ROCK, July 5.—Rev. N. B. Phillips, who has been pastor of the East Flat Rock Baptist church for the past nine years, and moderator of the Carolina association, has been invited to take charge of a field of churches in the west.

Rev. Mr. Phillips has not yet announced his decision in regard to this work but has it under consideration.

LAY CHARLOTTE DEATHS TO MULES

CHARLOTTE, July 6.—(UP). A shipment of FERA mules is blamed for the prevalence of Rocky Mountain spotted fever in this section. Three children have died of the malady in the past week. It is believed they were bitten by fleas from the mules.
