1. Resolved, That we have meabated confidence in, and attachment to, the principles of the Wmo Paner; and we believe their success will promote the prosperity and advance the honor of the Country; secure the stability of the Union; and perpetuate the the Messings of 'roedstn.

B. Resolved, That whilst we are firmly determined to meet and repel all enumerhments upon the conatitutional Rights of the people of North Carolina; yet are we equally resolved to uplied and defend the integrity of our National Union against all assaults by whern-sower made, and from whatsoever quarter

3. Resolved, That upon the perpetuity of our Using depends that Independence and Liberty which we possess, and which were the work of the joint msula and efforts; of the common dangers, sufferings and success; of our Revolutionary fathers; and which we are bound, by every consideration of gratitude to them ; of interest and honor to ourselves, and duty to our posterity; to maintain and defend,

4. Resalved, That we believe a large portion of the American people desire the restoration of harmony and concord to our country, by a fair and honorable adjustment of the agitating questions connected with the Institution of Domestic Slavery; and they demand that their peace and-comfort shall be no longer disturbed by keeping open, as capital for demagogues and funnties, those delicate and dangerous

5. Resolved, That we approve, and believe a large majority of the people of North Carolina do al prove the general plan of the Adjustment reported to the Senate of the United States from the Committee of Thirteen; and desire that, with such smemments as our friends in Congress may deem necessary just and proper, it should be adopted, and become law of the land.

6. Resolved, That our confidence in the ability, intogrity, and putrousen of the President of the United States, GERERAL ZACHARY TAYLOR, Is undiminished; and we feel convinced that, regardless of the abuse, misrepresentation and calumnies of his ouemies, he will prove himself to be what he has always been, a true friend to his country ; that he will do his duty and his whole duty to that country; and that his course in the administration of the Government will be conservative and patriotic.

7. WHEREAS, A large number of the people of the State, without distinction at political party, have indicated a wish to have the State Constitution amended, so as to give to voters for the House of Commons the right to vote also for Senators: AND WHEREAS, it is a fundamental principle of popular government, declared in our Bill of Rights, that all political power is vested in, and derived from, the People only :-

Resolved, in the opinion of this Convention, that the Legislature should adopt some mode, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution, by which the sense of a majority of the People may be clearly ascertained, and their wishes carried out, in referonce to said proposed amendment of the Constitution.

8. AND WHEREAS, many People of the State have indicated a desire that the present mode of etecting Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, Treasurer, Comptroller, Secretary of State, Justices of the Peace, and other State officers, shall be changed, so as to give the election of said officers directly to the people themselves: And wighters, the voice of the people, without distinction of party should be surpassed in the place. All orders left at Mrs. Market House, will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.

ALEX. HARDIE.

Resolved, in the opinion of this Convention, that the Legislature should also adopt some mode, in accordance with the provisions of the constitution, by which the sense of a majority of the people of the State may be clearly ascertained, and their wishes carried out, in relation to the manner of electing said officers or any of them.

9. Resolved, That the official conduct of his Excel- Fine Boots, North or South. lency, CHARLES MANLY, during his present term of service, mests with the hearty approval of to be genteelly dressed without a pair of O. L. B's this Whig Convention; and we should fail of our Best Boots. whole duty to our constituents, and of justice to an able, a faithful, and a patriotic public officer, if we chould withheld our thanks from one who has devoted himself to the preservation of the honor and the interests of North Carolina.

The North Carolina Rail Road.

THE General Commissioners of the North Carolina Railroad, hereby announce that at a Meet-ing field by them at Chapel Hill on the 5th and 6th days of June 1850, it was ascertained, from additional returns made by the local Commissioners, that the sum of one Million of dollars had been subscribed in the capital stock of the said Company; and the first instalment, of five dollars per share, on the said sum of one million of dollars, to wit: the sum of fifty thousand dollars, having been received by the Treasurer of this Board, the said Commissioners preferred and certified duplicate de-Commissioners preferred and certified duplicate de-clarations of the foregoing facts, with the names of the subscribers, one the amounts by them re-spectively subscribed appended thereunto, and have caused one of the said declarations to be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State according to the requirements of the 5th section of the act of to the requirements of the son section of the act of the General Assembly ratified the 27th day of Jan-nary 1849, entitled "An act to incorporate the N.
