Reselved, That whilst we are firmly determine ad to seed and repol all encroachments sport the constatutional Rights of the people of North Carolina; y 1 are we equally resolved to uphold and defend the stopping of ver Notional Union against all assaults by whomen versuade, and from weatsoever quarter

3 Remired, That upon the perpetuity of our Usion depends that Independence and Liberty which we possess, and which were the work of the joint counsels and efforts; of the common dangers, sufferrugs and soccess; of our Revolutionary fathers; and which we are bound, by every consideration of gratitude to them ; of interest and honor to ourselves, and duty to our posterity; to maintain and defend.

4. Resolved, That we believe a large portion of the American people desire the restoration of harmomy an ! concard to our country, by a fair and honorabie adjustment of the agitating questions connected with the Institution of Domestic Slavery; and they demand that their peace and comfort shall be no longer disturbed by keeping open, as capital for dema-gogues and fanatios, those delicate and dangerous o benieffs.

5 Resolved. That we approve, and believe a large majority of the people of North Carolina do a prove the general plan of the Adjustment reported to the Schute of the United States from the Committee of Thirteen and desire that, with such amendments as our friends in Congress may deem necessary, just and proper, it should be adopted, and breams the

6. Bolden's Bollar Magzine and Monthly

Review. THIS POPULAR MAGAZINE, which was strated two years since as a new adventure in publishing, with the object of affording to the reading masses of the United States a work of the highest class at the lowest price, has now entered upon the third year of its castence, with a circulation which must's its permanent continuance. The first number of the fifth volume for January is now ready, and the publisher respectfully solicits the attention and gatranage of all who want a monthly Literary Magazine, or who desire to encourage an undertaking which has for an object the dissemination of cheerful, healthy and instructive reading among the masses of the entire people of the Union.

Heldon's Magazine is illustrated overly mouth with a number of admirable wood engravings by the best artists, representing views of remarkable places and portraits of renarkable persons, mostly American.

The literary matter is furnished by some of the most able and accomplished writers in the Union: it consists of Essays, Historiettes, Sketches of Character, Poetry, Biographies, Tales, Translationf, Reviews of New Works, and a free comment on all the carrent topics of the month. Being intended for the lamily circle, the strictest care is exercised to exclude every thing from the pages of the Magazine of an immoral tendency. The work consists of 64 pages monthly, beautifully printed with new type on fine while paper. Terms to city subscribers 31 per annum, delivered. Bound vols. of the year 1849, in cloth, gilt edge and back, for sale at $1.50 cuch.
