GLENN'S

COMPOUND SPERMACETI SOAP,

For Chapped Hands, or a Rough Skin caused by Cold or Windy Weather, and for Washing Infants.

This admirable article will not fail to answer the purpose. It is probably the mildest soap in use, being composed of the finest spermaceti, which is one of the principal ingredients in Cold Cream and other emollient preparations, and of other articles well known for their peculiar qualities in softening the skin. These have been combined in the Spermaceti Soap, and afford a convenient remedy against, as well as a certain Cure for Chapped or Rough Hands. For washing Infants it is well adapted, being very mild and not liable to irritate the skin, like the ordinary alkaline soaps.

JOHN C. IN TOWN!

THE undersigned, who has just returned from the "unexplored regions" of the State of Nash, takes this method to return his thanks to the citizens of Raleigh, and the county, for their hospitalities, and to inform them that he wishes to purchase a few "Darkies." I will give as much for Boys between the ages of 10 and 25, and girls from 8 to 21, as any man on top of the ground. I am not very particular as to color, but would prefer mulattoes with "soap locks." Persons having such property for sale are requested to give me a call; and those that have not would do well to call also; as a few moments with me would no doubt remunerate them for the time.

I deem it unnecessary to say more, as there is not a man, woman, or child in the State, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, Hon Wm. H. Haywood, Jr. B. F. Moore, John C. Moore, and "Bog Oliver."

Mr. J J RYALS will attend to any calls during my absence. JOHN C. MOORE.

HOTEL.

Simon G. Hayes.

HAVING taken the House recently fitted up in the centre of the village and near the Depot, I am prepared to accommodate travellers.

As I have given references on my card, I will only remark that strict attention shall be paid to my stables, and those leaving horses with me, which shall be kept on reasonable terms. I need apprehend nothing as to their treatment or being used. I also keep the stage office for the west. Meals always ready upon the arrival of the cars, and persons conveying in hacks, buggies, or on horse back, to any of the surrounding country.

Persons wishing packages forwarded by the stage, by having them directed to my care shall always be promptly attended to

Ef The Danville Stage will leave HAYES' HOTEL immediately after the arrival of the Train of Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

A Daily Four Horse Line will also run from that Hotel to the Sulphur and Chonco Springs, during the Watering Season.
