

PUBLIC

SALE OF LAND.

In obedience to a decree of the Court of Equity, I made at Spring Term of the Superior Court for the County of Franklin, D. 1851, in the case of William O. Jeffrey and others. Petition for sale of land for partition.

Will be sold to the highest bidder, on a credit of twelve months, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisa, on the second Monday of June next, that being the 9th day of the month, a Tract of Land containing two tracts and thirty-five acres, adjoining the lands of Nicholas B. Mendenhall, Mrs. Delam, Washington Branch, and others. The said tract is well watered, has a tolerably comfortable dwelling house, suitable out houses, and is desirable as a Summer residence from its fine location for health, good society, and within 14 miles of most excellent Male and Female Schools. The plantation is in pretty good repair, and enough land sufficiently open and prepared for cultivation to employ two or three hands to advantage. Also, one other Tract of Land containing one hundred and forty acres, which they inherited as Heirs at Law of a deceased brother, A. S. Jeffrey, as will appear by deed from Washington Harris, Sheriff.

Bond and approved security will be required of the purchaser. The 21st day of April, A. D. 1851. 24 JI THOS. K. THOMAS, C. M. E.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

The undersigned Commissioners will receive sealed Proposals until Saturday, the 7th day of June next, for building a Jail in the Town of Louisa, N. C., 24 by 44 ft., two stories high. The lowest story to be brick or rock, and the upper story to be brick. The plan of specifications are filed in the office of the Clerk of Court County, for the inspection of those who may wish to enter bids for the contract. Bids will be entertained for the rock and brick work separately or together.

- Boxes, shaving Brushes, scrubbing Brushes, shoe Brushes, clothes Buttons navy, vest Buttons, navy, coat Buttons, dead-eye Blacking, boxes of Beeswax Combs, coarse Combs, fine Cotton, spools of Grass for hats Jack knives Handkerchiefs, cotton Handkerchiefs, silk, fancy colors Looking glasses *Mustard seed *Needles, sewing, assorted *Pepper, black *Pepper, red Razors, in single cases Razor strops Ribband, black and white Soap, shaving, in cakes Silk, sewing, blue black Scissors Spoons Thread, black, white and blue Tape, black and white Thimbles

*Mustard and pepper will be required at New York only, and in the raw state.

All the articles must be of good quality, equal to the best of those generally used in the service, and conformable to the samples of all of which have been selected and new; deposited at this Bureau, and in this Bureau, and subject to such inspection at the yard where delivered as the Chief of this Bureau may direct, and he in all respects satisfactory to the inspecting officer, and to be approved by the Navy Department. All the articles to be delivered free of all incidental expenses to the Government, in proper vessels or packages, and the price of each and every article must be the same at the respective yards, and to be paid by the Government, in which one or more dozen of the above articles are packed, and the boxes, bales or barrels in which the same may be delivered, shall be marked with their contents, the name of the contractor, and the yard to which the goods are to be sent; and when desired in good substantial shipping order.

The contractor must establish agencies at such stations other than his residence, that no delay may arise in furnishing what may be required; and the contractor or agent is to be promptly to comply with requisition, the Chief of the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing shall be authorized to direct purchases to be made to supply the deficiency, under the penalty to be expressed in the contract; or requisition, or a duplicate copy thereof at the Bureau of Provisions and Clothing, or at either of the navy yards aforesaid, shall be evidence that such requisition has been made and received.

Two or more approved sureties, in a sum equal to the estimated amount of the contract, will be required, and ten per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of all payments on account thereof as collateral security, in addition, to secure the performance, and not in any event to be paid until it is in all respects complied with; 90 per centum of the amount of all deliveries made will be paid by the Navy Agent within thirty days after bills duly authenticated shall have been presented to him.

Blank forms of proposals may be obtained on application to the Navy Agent at: Portsmouth, New Hampshire; Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk, Pensacola, and at this Bureau. Every offer made must be accompanied by a direct receipt of Congress making appropriations for the travel service for 1846-'47, approved 10th August, 1846, by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or holders of it, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation within five days, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed. The Bureau will not be obligated to consider any proposal unless accompanied by the guaranty required by law; the competency of the guaranty will be certified by the Navy Agent, District Officer, or some officer of the General Government known to the Bureau.

A record or duplicate of the letter informing a bidder of the acceptance of his proposal, will be a deemed the acceptance thereof, within the meaning of the act of 1846, and his bid will be accepted in conformity with this understanding.

Extract from the Act of Congress, approved August 10, 1846.

"Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passage of this act, every proposal for small supplies invited by the Secretary of the Navy, under this proviso to the general appropriation bill for the navy, approved March 3d, 1846, and any other bill, shall be accepted by a written guaranty, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation in such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed. No proposal shall be considered unless accompanied by such guaranty. If, after the acceptance of a proposal and a notice from the Secretary of the Navy, the bidder or bidders fail to enter into an obligation within the time prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with good and sufficient sureties for furnishing the supplies, then the Secretary of the Navy shall proceed to contract with some other person or persons for furnishing the supplies invited; and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the proposal so guaranteed and the amount for which he may have contracted for furnishing the supplies to be charged against the bidder or bidders, and he or their guarantor or guarantors; and the same may be immediately recovered by the United States for the use of the Navy Department, in an action of debt against either of all said persons." 22-4w
