NEW SERIES.

C. C. RABOTEAU, Editor.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

vertisements will be charged 25 per cent higher. A beasonable deduction will be made to those who ad-Vertise by the Year. Letters to the Editor must be post paid. Money for the Office may be sent by mail at our risk, in payment for subscriptions, advertisements, jobs, &c. IJ OFFICE ON PATETTEVILLE ST., ONE DOOR BELOW not forbear making the following extract, complishment of both." expressing in truthful and eloquent terms the lack of a proper State pride, among the well informed portion of our people-which utation :- Carolinian.

STATE PRIDE.

cy of State pride. Among the cultivators tle. In this spirit we have a word now for ple and a majority of them vote for a Conof the soil, among the more ordinary class- the men in South Carolina, who are anxious vention. Would that call a Convention? es of our citizens, I trust, nay I believe, this for a bad freesoil President. Now is their By no means. Two-thirds af all the is not the case. But among the educated chance. The freesoilers are preparing to members of both Houses of the Legislature portion of our people, this want of State bring out Hale for a third candidate, and he must vote for it before it can be called. pride is sadly conspicuous. Its monuments is bad enough, in all conscience. Come are around us in every direction. In our out, then, Southern men, who are not satisunequalled forests,-in our deserted farms, fied with Pierce and King, but would rath--in our dilapidated villages,-in our de- er have the worst man the North can furcreased representation in the NationalLeg. nish, out with your banner cry, Hale to the islature. A large portion of our products rescue! If his election be best for the are ascribed abroad to other States. They South, and you say it is, then as honest men, deck themselves, as it were, of the plumage as good patriots, you are bound to support of which they have despoiled us. We share him with all your might. If it is best for little in the profits derived from converting our raw materials into articles of immediate our raw materials into articles of immediate of which independence, open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true manliness. our taw materials into articles of immediate use,—of sending them to foreign markets, a freesoil idol, then give your active aid to belp them to it. Surely, you will not refuse tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through. Don't begin it tutions are seldom or never altered by bare below to foreign markets, and I tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through. Don't begin it tutions are seldom or never altered by bare below to foreign markets, and I tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through. Don't begin it tutions are seldom or never altered by bare below to foreign markets, and I tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through the markets, below the foreign markets, and I tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through the markets are seldom or never altered by bare below to foreign markets, and I tunic open, before it had grown upon and closed courage, true mandiness.

Carry a thing through the markets are seldom or never altered by bare below to foreign markets, and I tunic open, and I tunic use,—of sending them to foreign markets, and making those exchanges which of themselves alone have rendered so many nations will go for the best man of course, and Hale bounds prescribed by the Constitution; for both ancient and modern, proud, prosper- comes up to your very ideal of perfection- Constitutions are framed to protect minorilow-citizens are enriching, with their talents away with a sour face, from your own pre- selves. and their wealth, other States, and in the scription? The dose would be rather nau- Butwhere and among whom did the idea we do hereby ordain and adopt as a rule of linian wanders from his native land, and not, as good men and true, refuse it. How fore the people; but at Raleigh, among leaves the sweet fields of his childhood with the people would chuckle, to see these poscarce a tear of regret. Home! that word litical doctors gulping down their own pills! Suffrage. The object was and is, to beof such magic power over most hearts, seems How the crowd would stare, with a seven guile the people into the notion of a Conto have with him an indefinite signification, days wonder, to see a band of real Souther-vention and get them to elect members to each, and every military officer in this or at least to know no limit but the widespread regions where the stars and stripes for the good of the country !" of America are seen to wave. This is the more obvious and deplorable, from the contrast it presents to the chivalrous State lead you directly to this. You say that pride of two sister States, on our right hand and on our left. An imaginary line separates us from Virginia on one side, and from worst man is the best. You desire to see Free Suffrage -will have been accom-South Carolina on the other—each of them favoritism, corruption, and oppression in plished, and there will be no further use termine all matters of controversy, accordto each of these lines, on the North and on therefore, you will not bid God speed to deception from being too glaring, submit peace, union, and harmony in said counthe name of Virginia is uttered by every one you say, out with your ticket and cry hur- tion will be as far off as ever. loveth; and when spoken by another, it wakes you cannot do this! It would be best for cating a Convention, or in favor of submit. in this province. up his spirit from its deepest slumber, and the country, but then your principles are in ting the question to the people, of wishing "ABRAHAM ALEXANDER, Ch'r. fills him with the highest sense of his dignity as a man. "I am a Virginian," he comname of Carolina is as potent to conjure you can prevent and will not, comes of By electing members to the next Legisla- David Reese, John Davidson, Richard you!" with as is Virginia on the North. But between the two lines we have no name of an active agent in effecting it. If, then, the tive enactment, it can be obtained; but by power to wake up an enthusiasm of spirit, good of the South in the election of Sew- electing those who go for it by a Conven- THE CONVENTION QUESTION. power to wake up an entire and and Hale would justify your indifference tion, it will be lost. Now is the decisive The Whigs desire that when amendance again. No tears now; poor man you can and cause kindred hearts to leap to an embrace. Strange, unaccountable insensibili- towards their opponents, it would also war- time. ty? That here,—standing upon the very rant your active exertions against them; and they should be made by a Convention, by Again home early. There is a smell of soil that has been consecrated by heroic therefore by your self-interest, by the docson that has been consecuted by deroit blood; that here,—in the very vicinity of the blood; that here,—in the very vicinity of the very Mecca of Liberty,—a North Carolinian riots, you are bound to go for Hale. So up make a few simple alterations in our Conit will prevent a constant partisan warfare clothes, and the undertaker is screwing make a few simple alterations in our Conit will prevent a constant partisan warfare Mecca of Liberty,—a Rotal Carolinan with your banner, my brave fellows! Let should feel no State pride, is altogether incomprehensible. That his cheek should us see whether you can rally under it with Constitution altogether? not glow at the recollection of May 20th, heads up. - S. C. Ban. "I am a North Carolinian, and in that State Percys, Dukes of Northumberland " beside her; and mingle the name of Mecklenburg with that of Boston. But it is not

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—Though we have advantages that I thus speak. But I would sections—was considered advantageous to before the two Literary Societies of David- bind us down in inactivity. I would shiver the East, as may be seen by reference to sion College, delivered in '49, highly com- the ice that freezes up those noble impulses the table on our first page. mended, it has never been our good fortune that should bear us on to prosperity. Eco- But a change in the basis would also therefore insert, what we believe to be the to meet with a copy of it until to-day. We nomical maxims have obtained among us, affect many Western counties, which will act of our fathers; and we give the names have perused this address with great plea- most ruinous in their tendency; and physi- influence them to oppose a Convention. of patriotic men who lived and acted, all sure; it abounds in just and patriotic sentical facts exist, that are adverse to our in- And when we consider that it requires a that they here declared: ments, clothed in chaste and beautiful lan- terests. I would see the one discounten- vote of two-thirds of all the members of guage. Notwithstanding the length of time anced and the other overcome. And you, both Houses of the Legislature to call a which has elapsed since its delivery, we can- my young friends, can do much in the ac- Convention, it will at once be apparent that

PREACHING AND PRACTICE.

It is ever a thankless office to obtrude adhas done so much to retard the growth of vice upon those who have not asked it, but if it comes, asked or unasked. When we proper time, exert all their powers against to America, and to the inherent and unaour good old State, both in wealth and rep- a good opportunity is positively irresistible, "But with regret I say it-there is in our see a fair chance to reduce preaching to a Convention. own State a lamentable (nay, shall I not be practice, the effort to restrain ourselves is pardoned for saying, a shameful,) deficien- vain-we must spur up the preacher a lit- that the question be submitted to the peo-

Yes, gentlemen, unless you have lost all them to Freedom." That when Lexington that Gen. Pierce's grandfather was a native will be adduced. is mentioned, he should not place Charlotte of Ireland, and first settled in Massachuand our plains as fertile,—our streams as week, and was so overcome that he has since been plan, it gives the people more time to expure, and rush as boldly from our hills,- unable to attend to his usual duties.

From the Mountain Banner.

the proud fame of our sister republics of er. On joint ballot the west has a majori- we would reject the whole.

any attempt to call one will result in a failure. It could not obtain even a majority. Many of those now most clamorous for submitting the question of Convention or our invasion of our rights, as claimed by no Convention to the people, would at the Great Britain, is an enemy to this country, apprehension, and she tries hard to make

But suppose, for the sake of argument

Perhaps it may be thought that the oppose a Convention if a majority of the blood of American patriots at Lexington. sure. people signify their desire to have one .-

he hears the Declaration of our IndependTerry, a farmer, of Sargerfield, was killed Terry, a farmer, of Sargerfield, was killed amine any proposed change and inform their importance demands."

Inc. Times is issued every Thursday, and mailed to subscribers at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in six mouths; and Three Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in six mouths; and Three Dollars if payment be delayed to the subscription year.

The Times is issued every Thursday, and mailed to subscribers at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in six mouths; and Three Dollars if payment be delayed to the subscription year.

The Times is issued every Thursday, and mailed to subscribers at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in six mouths; and Three Dollars if payment be delayed to the subscription year.

The Times is issued every Thursday, and mailed to subscribers at Two Dollars and Fifty Cents if not paid in six mouths; and they can vote upon it understandingly All the alterations made by a Convention of demagogues and settled at once.

Carolina. We do not believe the people as a mother? Is there no electric spark that can another? Is there no electric spark that can be struck out, to send its kindling impulses to mish it to not be provided from the people as a matter of the people and they can vote upon it understandingly All the alterations made by a Convention will be taken out of the location of demagogues and settled at once.

But if this Democratic Governor is afraid to trust the people and they can vote upon it understandingly All the alterations made by a Convention another? Is there no electric spark that can be submitted to the people as a world and they can vote upon it understandingly All the alterations made by a Convention another? Is there no electric spark that can be submitted to the people as a world and they can vote upon it understandingly and they We take the position that a Convention people for their ratification or rejection, knows that; once put before the people, the It is a good staunch table the coffin rests gating his enemies in the most merches ple under the son. Why, then, should we cannot, at this time, be called in North and they can vote upon it understandingly another? Is there no electric spark that can are so dissatisfied with their Constitution would be submitted to the people as a But if this Democratic Governor can Ay, of family—keep down outcry, or the corruption" made against Messes. Adams be struck out, to send its kindling impulses to wish it torn up and another constructed. whole—as a kind of 'omnibus'—and tho' only prevent the people from expressing nurse will be in. Look over at the pinched and Clay, and gave his testimony in the into every heart in our beloved Republic? The proposition, too, to alter the basis of they might desire some of the changes and their will, what will be the result? Why, features; it is all that is left of her! And following emphatic terms. To fuse into general feeling of patriotism, representation has aroused the vigilance of be opposed to others, yet they could make representation has aroused the vigilance of be opposed to others, yet they could make Not exceeding fifteen lines, will be published one time for One Dollar, and Twenty-five Cents for each subsequent insection. Court orders and Judicial Advantage of the public good, all those hard subsequent insection. Court orders and Judicial Advantage has been 4 years progress- where is your heart now? No, don't thrust of the published one time for One Dollar, and Twenty-five Cents for each and zeal for the public good, all those hard the Eastern and middle portions of the compelled to the compelled to the public good, all those hard the Eastern and middle portions of the compelled to the com and selfish principles that now keep us a- State, and arrayed them, irrespective of adopt all or reject all. For our own part, part, and render us insensible to the common welfare? It is not that I would unent basis gives the West a majority in one Suffrage, other amendments might as to Justices the same; and how long the Another day. The coffin is gone out. will of the people ought to be obeyed; but (20rm of May, 1775.) "That whosoever directly or indirectly abets, or in any way, form, or manner, that your heart is wrapped up in her becountenances the unchartered and danger- ing, would be nothing.

THR MECKLENBURG DECLARATION OF IN-

DEPENDENCE.

County, do hereby dissolve the political now as when you were a lone man, wide will not offend the sick sense now. They of December, 1824; my determination to bands, which have connected us with the spread and superficial. They have caught have half opened the window, that the vote for Mr. Adams, and not for Gen. Jack-Mother Country, and hereby absolve our- from domestic attachments a finer tone room so long closed, may have air. It will son. Presuming that the publication was selves from all allegiance to the British and touch. They cannot shoot out ten not be too cold. She is not there: Crown, and abjure all political connection, drils into barren world soil and suck from contact, or association with that nation, thence strengthening nutriment. They who have wantonly trampled on our rights have grown under the forcing glass of the Carry a thing through. That's it, don't prompted you to render this voluntary and and liberties, and inhumanly shed the home roof, they will not now bear expo- do anything else. If you once fairly,

Legislators must carry out the will of a majority of their immediate constituents, and right ought to be, a sovereign and selfgovunless the counties represented by two- erning association, under the control of no There is a heart bond that absorbs all oth- this turning backward, this wearying and thirds of the members should have power, other than that of our God, and the er; there is a community that monopolizes, fainting of soul and purpose. It bespeaks majorities in favor of a Convention, no general government of the Congress;—to your feeling. When the heart lay wide imbecility of mind, want of character,

"That as we acknowledge the exisboth ancient and modern, proud, prosper-ous and happy. A great portion of our felsame degree impoverishing their own, by a seous, we must confess, but then it is for of a reform Convention originate? Not a life, all, each, and every of our former change of domicle. Yes, the North Caro- the health of the body politic, and you dare mong the people -not in any canvass be-

Suffrage. It being killed off, perhaps they command and authority, he acting conforwill provide for taking the sense of the peo- mably to these regulations. And that evple on a Convention; though we do not ery member present of this delegation shall at you across the table; they bow carelessbelieve they will. The object for which henceforth be a civil officer, viz. a Justice ly over the way; they do not know what When once fairly in a work, don't give it polished diamond is nevertheless a diathe very impersonation of State pride. Up their worst forms in the seat of power, and, for it. But they may, to prevent the ing to said adopted laws; and to preserve the South, there is an enthusiastic unity of Pierce and King. Now, gentlemen, if you the question to the people, well knowing ty; and to use every exertion to spread the feeling and interest. On the Northern side are in earnest, if you believe a word that that, be their vote as it may, a Conven- love of country and fire of freedom throughout America, until a more general teaves your house; is he wise, you ask from object to object. Fortune, success, lady, as he heard Gruff scolding like for as he would the name of her whom his soul rahs for Hale and-and-Garrison! Oh, We do not accuse all those now advo-ty as a man. I am a viiginian, he complacently says to minsell, and has more principles would be distributed by the same principles would be distri pride in that mought than it a diadem span didates, surely the same principles would tion hobby, who, we are fully persuaded, o Downe, Ezra Alexander, William Gra ed. were noting it ins train. To be a virginian suggests to his mind all that is great in man, and all that is fair in woman. To love Virginia, is to be heloved by him, and Zaccheus Wilson, sen. Waightstill Avery, her's does not. Her lips move; it is your matter, and that no one else can do it at peas for best coffee, once; and it wan't to praise ber, is the highest passport to his favor. Pass our Southern border, and the > ments are to be made to the Constitution not find them! ses a Convention. Why? The follow- Does he fear to waken her? Are the people so dissatisfied with their ing extract from his inaugural address He asks you a single question about the ence read or spoken of, he should cry aloud is "a lineal descendant of the family of ment? We presume no one will have the linear to local and its place supplied with a new instruction in the constitution of the family of ment? We presume no one will have the linear to local and standard or spoken of, he should cry aloud its retention in the constitution of the family of ment? We presume no one will have the linear to local and standard or li hardihood to answer this question affirma- than for life, are questions of Constitution- not speak. was struck the first note of that noble an- The Baltimore Sun says, "It appears tively, but if he has, we hope some proof al reform, which I recommend to the favorable consideration of the General As- thily like a cat. If a few simple alterations, then, are to sembly. There are other amendments to The man has done his work well for all currence and instantly ran to him and threw there was a strong effort in New-Hamps be made, why not have them made by the Constitution that have attracted public that. It is a nice coffin—a very nice water upon him, but to no effect. There shire a year ago, to change this intolerant be made, why not have them made by the Constitution that have attracted public that. It is a nice commanded were no marks of the lightening upon him or his clothes. The deceased was about 33 because that Constitution, and it is well coffin! Pass your hand over it—how or his clothes. The deceased was about 33 because that Constitution, and it is well because that Constitution to which I doubt not, you will position separately and directly before the Governor is afraid to trust the people. He She loved mignionette.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1852. Mr Dallor Haywood

derate the just cause of pride in other States.

No! As a North Carolinian I rejoice in

On joint hellet the most head of the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same: and how long the the people ought to be obeyed; but as to Justices the same as to Justice what they will be when they do get has gone. Virginia and South Carolina. Nor is it that I desire a vain-glorious display of our own I desire a vain-glorious display of our own lately been impugned from a high source. they expect to ride these hobbies for years Go into your parlor that your prim house- fore Mr. Adams did himself. These dec-

THE DYING WIFE.

BY "IK MARVEL."

The wife over whom your love broods, is fading. Not beauty fading; that, now

She sees with quick eye your dawning come after.

"That we, the citizens of Mecklenburg centered your affections. They are not stand its phials and silver bell: the perfume unequivocally, between the 1st and 15th when you had such a sweet escape when kind. evening drew near.

careless while you are steeped in care .- ever did anything that way. You and writing, and yet, like Colonel Want They hustle you in the street; they smile Be strong minded. Be pluckish, patient, ington, of Revolutionary memory, he goers were all undertakers.

Your eye follows the physician as he yourself; is he prudent? is he the best?-Did he ever fail? Is he never forgetful? You are early home - mid afternoon .-

Your step is not lightly; it is heavy, terridieu!"

inscription upon the plate, rubbing it with

Some sprigs of mignionette are laying leaves a family of four children.

| themselves upon it; and it brings each pro- | That explains the whole matter. The carelessly in a little gilt edged saucer - | Colonel Benton and Mr. Clar.

velvet cushioned one over against you- thanks for this voluntary and faithful testiempty. You press your fingers on your mony,' as he termed it, which I now have eye-balls, as if you would press out some- here to show." thing that hurts the brain; but you cannot Your head leans upon your hand; your the following; eyes rest upon the flashing blaze.

Ashes always come after blaze. sick-softly, lest the prim housekeeper which is contained an article stating that

Your trials and your loves together have the bed. They have removed from the tion, and that I had communicated to you

CARRY A THING THROUGH.

soundly wide awakely begin a thing, let it "That we do hereby declare ourselves a You do not now look men in the face be carried through, though it cost your best

> And now those particular objects-alas know your ground, see your ground, see your way. This done, launch out with What anxiety pursues you! How you all your soul, heart, life, and fire, neither may struggle to fancy there is no danger! turning to right or left. Push on giantly; How it grates now on your ear-the toil push as though you were born for the veand the turmoil of the city! It was mu- ry work you are about beginning, as tho sic when you were alone; it was pleasant creation were waiting through all time for even when from the din you were elabor- your especial hand and spirit. Then you ating comforts for the cherished objects- will do something worthy of yourself and How it maddens you to see the world dally from one thing to another. N nan terrible bungle sometimes both at speaking up. Don't disgrace yourself by being on mond-though all will agree that its claim? The undertaker comes with his bill for this thing to-day, on that to-morrow, and to being a diamond would be more readily the dead boy's funeral. He knows your on another next day. We don't care if admitted if were polished. grief; he is respectful. You bless him in you are the most active mortal living; we your soul. You wish the laughing street don't care if you labor day and night, in a thing till it is fairly accomplished.

She presses harder your hand-"A- through in all its completeness and proporthey meant." tion, and you will become a hero. You A long breatle-another; you are alone will think better of yourself: ohers will GEN. PIERCE AND THE CATHOLICS. The world in its very heart admires the in the Philadelphia Ledger: Waverly Magazine.

> KILLED BY LIGHTNING .- Mr. Nelson and seeing the storm coming, loosed his horse and started for the house, but was struck on the way. His wife saw the oc-

In a late speech Col: Benton, after cartiams, on the Democratic principle that the imputed bargain, founded on my early Sit down in your chair; there is another Clay, in consequence, wrote me a letter of

Col. Benton read from the original copy

Washington, December 6, 1828; SIR: I have received a paper published Go now into your room where she was on the 29th ult., at Lexington, Va., in you had, to a gentleman of that place, ex-They have put new dimmity upon her pressed your disbelief of a charge injurious chair, they have hung new curtains upon to me, touching the late Presidential elecwith your authority; I cannot deny the expression to you of proper acknowledgements for the sense of justice which has faithful testimony.

I am, respectfully, your obedient ser'vi: H. CLAY.

Col. THOMAS HART BENTON:

GREAT MEN .- John C. Rives says!-I have seen the manuscript writings of Nine nenths of the "great men" who have shown in this country during withs last twenty years," are great men by the courtesy of the press and their contempsraries. When you come to rip-up their claims to the appellation of "great," everything about them rips up, and often nothing but an "old rip" is left: Still, greatnest sometimes exists without the ability to write clearly, or spell and Carry a thing through. Don't lea- and punctuate correctly. Cromwell made a

"Mrs. Partington, your neighbor, Mr season and out, be sure the end of your life Gruff, is rather irascible, I think," said will show nothing if you perpetually chan' the new minister on his first visit to the old fame, position, are nevergained but by pi- throwing balls at his new martin-house. ously, bravely, sticking growing, living, to Gruff kept a Grocery over the way, and was in a constant quarrel with every boy In short, you must carry things through, in the neighborhood. Mrs. Pattington if we would be anybody or anything. No looked at the Minister through her specia-They have sent for you; her eyes half matter if it is hard. No matter if it costs cles inquiringly before she answered. these. Stick to the thing and carry it box affectionately, "yes; indeed, I think through. Believe you were made for the he is a great rascal! He sold me burnt think better of you. Of course they will. The following advertisement has appeared stern determined doer. It seems in him its at To your Tents, Catholics! - Gen. best sight; its hignest object, its best treas- Franklin Pierce, the democratic nominee, to expunge the disqualifying clause; but a democratic majority of 18,000 against it

Unluckily for this dweller in "tents," years of age, and highly respected. He known, that Gen. Pierce was an advocate