HOUSE OF COMMONS.

At 10 o'clock the Speaker called the House to order.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson.

Mr. Mann, of Hyde, was sworn and took his seat.

Mr. Person offered the following resolutions, and on motion of Mr. Shepherd, the rules were suspended; they unanimously passed and were sent to the Senate:

1. Resolved, That the Confederate States of America have the means and the will to sustain and perpetuate the Government they have established; and to that end, North Carolina is determined to contribute all of her power and resources.

2. Resolved, That the separation between the Confederate States and the United States is final, and that the people of North Carolina will never consent to a re-union at any time or upon any terms.

3. Resolved, That we have full confidence in the ability and patriotism of His Excellency, President Davis, and that his administration, is entitled to the cordial support of all patriotic citizens.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the policy for the conduct of the war set forth by His Excellency, Governor Vance, in his inaugural address and messages to the General Assembly, and that he ought to be unanimously supported in the manly and patriotic stand he has taken for our independence.

On motion of Mr. Watson, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to refer so much of the Governor's message as relates to imprisonment of private citizens by the Confederate authorities, to a joint select committee.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Kirby, Fleming and Russ.

BILLS ON THEIR FIRST READING.

Mr. Russ, to authorize twelve justices to hold county court in Bladen county. The rules were suspended and the bill finally passed.

Mr. Hawes, to repeal the 1st, 2d and 3d sections

100th chapter Revised Code, entitled Rivers and Creeks.

BILLS ON THEIR SECOND READING.

The bill to authorize the Governor to impress the labor of slaves in erecting fortifications and other works for the State. The Military Committee reported a substitute, which allows reasonable compensation for their labor and full compensation to their owners in case they escape, are killed or captured.

Mr. Cowles opposed the amendment allowing compensation. The amendment was adopted, ayes 33, noes 30. The bill passed its 2d reading.

The bill for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers. It authorizes justices of the peace to give certificates to the relatives of sick soldiers, which will entitle them to free passage over the State railroads.

Mr. Walsler explained the object of the bill.

Mr. Person, while in favor of the object of the bill, had an insuperable objection to it in its present form, it was unconstitutional. The Legislature could not enforce free passes on rail-roads, they were private property, and the Constitution declared private property could not be taken without compensation. The bill was recommitted to the Military Committee.

The bill for the relief of the widows and families of deceased soldiers passed its second reading after a strong appeal in its favor by Mr. Walsler. It appropriates $500,000 for their support until the Confederate Government undertakes to do so.

BILL ON ITS FIRST READING.

Mr. Burgin, to repeal the 9th Section of the Charter of the Greenville and French Broad Railroad.

A message was sent to the Senate proposing to enter into an election for Confederate States Senator at 1 o'clock and nominating the Hon. W. A. Graham and the Hon. George Davis.

On motion of Mr. Williams the inquiry was extended to the office of Solicitor for the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

The following Bills were read the second time.

In reference to taxes and liabilities of Sheriffs. It has reference to remitting taxes upon property carried away or destroyed by the enemy—passed its several readings.

To authorize the Courts of Quarter Sessions to erect workhouses in connection with the county jails. The Justices may compel prisoners, if mechanics, to work in these houses to indemnify the county for their support. Passed its second reading.

Mr. Mann, of Pasquotank and Mr. Fowle supported the bill. Mr. McKay opposed it on the ground of its being an unnecessary expenditure. The bill was rejected.

To authorize Thomas J. Kerr, late Sheriff of Duplin, to collect arrears of taxes. Passed its second reading.

At 1 o'clock the House proceeded to vote for Confederate States Senator as follows:

The Secretaries and Walter H. McIlwain, Esq., were appointed a committee to verify proxies, and report the amount of stock represented.

The meeting had not fully organized up to half-past 12 o'clock there not being a majority of stock represented. It is probable the organization will be effected to-day.—Wil. Journal, 26th.

GEN. WHITING.—The Wilmington Journal, speaking of the appointment of General Whiting to the command of the Cape Fear district, says the people feel the utmost confidence that all that military skill, determination and valor can effect with the means placed at his disposal will be done, and that, if the invader comes, he will meet with a warm reception.

LATEST FROM THE NORTH.

Our latest dates from the North are from papers of the 21st. The army correspondent of the Philadelphia Enquirer, writing from Falmouth, says:

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

The United States steamer, Ellen S. Terry, Capt. Chapin, arrived at this port on Saturday, from Newbern, N. C. She was taken in tow off Barbegat by the steam transport Cahawba, in consequence of her machinery being disabled. Ellen S. Terry brings the body of Capt. James M. Pendleton of New York, belonging to Gen. Foster's staff. Governor Stanley had received a letter, by flag of truce, from Governor Vance in answer to a former communication. Governor Vance states that he declines to arrange for any meeting between himself and Governor Stanley, and also for a conference of commissioners. He requests Gov. Stanley, if he wishes to make any propositions, to treat directly with the Confederate authorities at Richmond. North Carolina, he states definitely, will fight to the last drop of blood.

On the evening of the 17th inst., our pickets at Newbern were driven in by a large body of the rebels, and it was feared an attack was intended on Newbern, as it was then in a very weak condition, many regiments being absent on the late Hamilton expedition. Everything was prepared to meet the enemy by Col. Kuriz, in the absence of Gen. Foster. At 10 o'clock a. m., on the 12th, the rebels attacked our pickets on the railroad near Bachelor's Creek. The pickets held the cavalry in check until the Monitor, an iron clad railroad car, which mounted two guns, could be prepared for action. After a long fight with grape and canister, the rebels were repulsed. The twenty-fourth Massachusetts regiment lost one man in this action. A large force of cavalry have been dispatched to capture the rebels, as their force is known to be small. Their object was to capture the iron clad railroad car. Gen. Foster arrived at Newbern on the afternoon of the 12th, with reinforcements from the Hamilton expedition. C. F. Wall was killed, and Frederick Perkins was severely burned by the explosion of a mine, while Capt. Wall, of the gunboat Seymour, was destroying rebel fortifications at Rainbow Banks, near Hamilton.

IMPORTANT SEIZURE.

A most important seizure was made to-day of a rebel mail and contraband articles at the Kimmel House in this city. It is believed that for some time past the stage which runs hence to Lenordtown, in lower Maryland, has taken a mail direct to Richmond—reaching that city sometime on the next day. The budget captured to-day contained letters implicating several parties in the District. This seizure and the arrests which have followed will doubtless break up the valuable rebel spy system that is rapid in transmitting its intelligence to the South.

PACK MULES IN THE PLACE OF ARMY WAGONS.

It has been determined to replace army supply wagons, to a considerable extent, with pack mules, for the transportation of stores for the army. This plan was adopted over a year ago in Western Virginia by Gen. R. Slocum and has worked, with excellent effect. The cavalry is to be supplied at once, and it is believed that this change will add greatly to the mobility of this arm of the service, and enable it to equal that of the rebels in celerity of movement—a consummation devoutly to be wished.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF SENATOR WILSON.

Senator Wilson, Chairman of the Senate Military Committee, has just returned from visiting the headquarters of General Burpide. He and others are urging upon the military authorities the concentration of all our armies for the immediate capture of the Rebel Capital. They deprecate the dissipation of the military power of the government in numerous independent expeditions coastwise until this main point shall have been attained. It is believed, however, by high military authorities, that the forces now destined for the attack upon Richmond are amply sufficient, and those designated for the various expeditions elsewhere will not be required either to defend Washington or capture Richmond.

(From the Richmond Whig.)

ECONOMY IN SALT—ONE FOURTH THAT IS COMMONLY USED IN SALTING PORK MAY BE SAVED.

How the people are to get salt enough to save their pork is one of the most important questions of the trying crisis through which we are now passing. The custom is generally to kill about the first of December, with some during all the month of December, the whole quantity designed for the consumption of the year.

The months of December, January, February and March in our climate are cold enough to keep fresh meat in a cool dry house with little or no salt ten days or more, and yet as much salt is put on pork that is used in those months as is required to keep it through the hot months of the spring and summer. Correct this practice and thousands of bushels of salt may be saved in this State. The simple remedy by which this important saving may be accomplished is to kill just as it may be wanted during the four cold months, pork enough to last while it may be consumed fresh; one, two or three hogs, every ten days or at longer periods, according to the weather and the size of each family.

Suppose there are one million of people in the State who consume one hundred pounds of pork each, that gives one hundred million pounds to be salted. It requires one bushel of salt to cure, for summer use, one thousand pounds of pork, or one hundred thousand bushels of salt to cure the whole. Now, suppose one fourth is killed and used fresh, twenty-five thousand bushels of salt are saved. It matters not whether the amount here estimated to be consumed is accurate or not, the quantity of salt to be saved may be estimated by each family, according to the quantity they actually use. It may be said that to carry out the plan of killing hogs during all the winter will be attended with the additional cost of feeding a long time when grain is high; this objection may be answered at once by the fact that if judiciously fed, that is, if their food is frequently changed, the increase in weight will always pay the cost. To prevent the evil of the arrest of fattening, which is the consequence of the fright from killing some from a pen out of a number that is to remain, either put up in separate pens, distant from each other those that are designed for different killings, or have a slaughter pen at a distance from the main body to which those to be killed should be driven. No matter how cold the winter is, hogs will thrive if properly fed and fixed with warm dry shelters. Now, all this, may be said to be a great deal of trouble; very true, but I suppose that the saving of one-third or one-fourth of our salt is worth taking; some trouble. These suggestions are respectfully made by a

PRACTICAL FARMER.

A LOOK FOR THE TIMES.—Dr. P. R. Clements from Enfauia, Alabama, has in our city a machine for inventing which we think is just the machine for the times. This loom can weave with an ordinary hand about forty yards of good homespun a day. It is worked by a small balance wheel and crank. Dr. Clements proposes to sell the right for Counties for the State. Here is offered a splendid opening for an enterprising mechanic. The looms can be purchased in Enfauia, Alabama, for $57 each.—Milledgeville Union.

By the Governor of North Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, in order to stop, if possible, the wicked system of speculation which is blighting the land, and prevent the production of famine in the midst of plenty, the Legislature of North Carolina, by a joint resolution thereof, ratified on the 22d day of this month (November) has authorized me to lay an embargo upon the exportation from the State of certain articles of prime necessity, except to certain persons and for certain purposes:

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this proclamation, forbidding all persons, for the space of thirty days from the date hereof, from carrying beyond the limits of the State any salt, bacon, pork, beef, corn, meal, flour, potatoes, shoes, leather, hides, cotton cloth, and yarn and woolen cloth. The following persons are alone to be exempted from this prohibition, viz:

All Quartermasters and Commissioners, Agents of the Confederate Government and of any State of the Confederacy, exhibiting proper evidence of this official character; also all Agents of any county, district, town or corporation of other States, who shall exhibit satisfactory proof of their authority to purchase such articles in behalf of such town, county, district or corporation for public uses, or for distribution at cost and transportation, and not for resale or profit; also, all persons who may make oath before the nearest Justice of the Peace that the articles purchased are for their own private use, and not for resale, before they are removed; also, all persons who are residents who may have bought such articles, before the date hereof. The exception is to extend to salt made by non-residents on the sea-coast and in their own works, and to cargoes entering any of our ports from abroad.

Any of said articles that may be stopped in transitu from our borders are to be confiscated to the use of the State.

Until further orders the Colonels of Militia in the different counties, are enjoined to see that this proclamation is enforced.

Not intending or desiring to prevent the people of our sister States from sharing with our own citizens whatever we can spare, but to repress speculation so far as may be possible, I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to aid and assist me in the enforcement of this proclamation for the common good.

In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Senator, Captain General, and Commander-in-Chief, has signed these presents, and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.
