LATEST NORTHERN NEWS. The Enquier has Northern dates to the 1st inst. from which we make the following extracts;

CATURE OF THE ARIAL -The money obtained by the Alabama in capturing the California steamer Arial amounted to but $5,000 in Treasury notes, and $1,500 in silver. She had no gold on board in consequence of a fear of her capture.

The Yankee Brigadier General, Henry Prince, has been assigned to an important command in North Carolina. Is Foster to be susperceded?

Stuart has had a brush with Col. Candy, at Occoquan, in which the Yankees sustained considerable loss. The Herald ays Stuart was worstel in his · brush with three Yankee regiments and a section of a battery at Dumfries. It says he captured one gun, but was compelled to leave it. After his brush with Candy, Stuart made his way to Anaudale by way of Bull Run and Wolf Run, thence to Vienna.

Morgan has busted up communication between Nashville and Louisville Railroad for at least thirty

STUART AGAIN.

The Enquirer of yesterday says, we learn that Gen Stuart encountered a large force of Yankees, near Aldie, in Loudoun county, Monday, and dispersed them, after killing a number and capturing about a hundred and fifty prismers. No loss on our side.

Gen. Studt has been within 12 miles of Alexandria. It will be seen from our Fredericksburg dispatch that he has since cossed the Potomac.

Ninety-two Yankee prisoners arrived here, yesterday, by the Central cars, and we are informed that about two hundred, captured at Occoquan, will arrive to-day.

MORE RUMORS FROM BELOW.

Our vigilant Kinston correspondent calls attention to the rumors of the enemy's movements about Newbern. If our military authorities but keep their eyes as thoroughly open as those of our correspondent, the enemy can steal no man'h upon us. Of course our correspondent gives the following items as mere ru-

KINSTON, Jan. 2, 1862. EDITOR STATE JOURNAL: We have just heard startling news from below. It is reported upon what is said to be pretty good authori y that the enemy are coming up the Neuse rivor in their gun-boats and transports. It is the opinion of some that their object is to land a heavy force at the mouth of Big Swift Creek, on the north side of the Neuse and make a feint in this direction, whilst a land force will march towards Wilmington by the way Swansboro', Onslow county.

I give you this news as I receive it. It may be true or it may not, but I am really fearful that there is some fire as well as smoke.

It is also reported and many believe it to be true, that the Abolitionists are landing a heavy land force at Swansboro, from Morehead city, to move against Wilmington in the rear.

It may be worth notice that the Standard has not published President Davis' proclamation relative to Butler and his crew. It may be accidental, as it was in the case of its neglect to publish Butler's infamous proclamation, declaring the women of New Orleans common prostitutes.

RICHMOND, Jan. 2. Two hundred abolition prisoners arrived here today from above.

CORN LAW IN ALABAMA. The Legislature of Alabama has passed a bill requiring that no person, except the producer and miller, shall sell corn without first obtaining a liceuse from the judge of Probate of the county in which the corn is to be sold, and the party so licensed is not allowed to sell corn at a greater profit than 20 per cent. on the price paid to the producer and charges, exclusive of the fees and taxes on the license; and 10 miller is allowed to sell corn except that which he receives as toll for grinding, or which he produces himself. Heavy penalties are fixed to the violation of this law; and the exportation of corn from the State is forbidden, except by permission of the Commissioner's Court of the county from which the corn is to be exported, and excepting, also, corn belonging to the Confederate Government or to any of the Confederate States. This law has been approved by the Governor.

ELECTION OF A LINCOLN CONGRESSMAN IN THE NORFOLK DISTRICT .- We learn that the election recently held in the Norfolk District for a member of the Lincoln Congress, resulted in the election of Warren W. Wing, at present the editor of the Eincell organ in Norfolk. Wing is a Northern man by birth, but has for some years been a resident of Norfolk, where he was engaged as a mechanic in the Navy Yard. Subsequently he foamed a partnership in the drug business with a gentleman of that city, and distinguished himself by genteely robbing his associate in business .- Dispatch.

BUTLER'S COURSE FROM A NORTHERN POINT OF VIEW --- A WANKEE ON YANKEE.

It is surprising to see bow bold and outspoken some of the Northern papers have become under their recent reverses. The tide of reaction has set in. Language which months ago would have consigned one to Fort Lafayette is now boldly proclaimed, and commands thousands of willing ears. The New York World denounces the Administration for continuing Butler in office, and shows him to be a disgrace to humanity. Reviewing his course in New Orleans the World says:

"There are American journals so ignorant or so base as to praise the administration of Gen. Butler at New Orleans. The fact is that he not only disgraces the Union cause—he disgraces civilization and humanity itself. He would be without apologists in Algiers. He ought to be without eulogists in America. Silence concerning his abuse of power and malieasances in office, his brutality and the speculations at which he winks, if he does not share their profit, might be tolerated by the consciences of those who, hopeless of moving the mind of Mr. Lincoln, were unwilling to really obstruct the Government, or even seem to encourage disloyalty. But when that silence is misconstrued into approbation, when presses actually praise Gen. Butler, when presses exist which have the effrontery or the ignorance to represent the number of those who have taken an enforced oath of allegiance as the number of those whose hearts have been constrained to loyalty, then silence becomes a lie.-The truth concerning this basest and most unprincipled man, should then be told, and his misconduct be denounce as it deserves, that the shame of the loyal and honest millions whose Government Mr. Lincoln has sent him to represent, may at least be undeserved

We do not mean to deprecate the sharpness of Gen. Butler's pen or the cleverness of his chaning mind,-Pettifoggers have found themselves surpassed in their own arts, and thieves could teach Gen Butler nothing which he did not know. He has been outwitted. So much at least may be said to his credit, but that is all. Another syllable in his praise beyond that is false.

He has disgraced the army, for the army is honest; he has disgraced his Government, for his Government is yet gr at enough to be just; he has disgraced his country, for his name barbs the scorn of foreign enemies and justifies the severity of foreign friends; he has dishonored the chief magistrate, by prescribing him to ministers of the Gospel as the subject of their cumpulsory prayers; he has dishonored the North by incarcerating every mean and sordid characteristic which, falsely, Southern passion has ascribed to Northeru phiegm, by surrounding himself with men whose ill gotten gains, making disloyalty and loyalty profitable, cause disloyal to seem, respectable by comparison; he has disgraced his sex, for not even women have been exempt from his cruelty, but like men have been made to suffer as traitors for the self respect of their intercourse with him as women; if it is possible he has disgraced himself, for the mest subservient tool of Southern men and obsequious lauder of Southern institutions has become their most assidious enemy, seeking a place for the heel of power where once he stopped to lick the spittle of servility. Gen. Butler's whole career is known to very many loyal men at the North, who blush in silence and shame at the imbecility which tolerates him for an instant in power. The administration presses will act wisely not to praise him. They should be thankful if their own silence secures his immunity from public odium. Neither they nor Mr. Lincoln can secure him against the infamy of history.'

THE CAUSE OF THE SOUTH IN EUROPE.

The film which has gathered over the vision of the people of Europe, is being rapidly removed as regards the resources and character of the Southern people .-If the government of the Confederate States had paid a subsidy, from its contingent fund, for the establishment of a new-paper in London, the centre of English wealth and intelligence, the outlay would have been justified by the fruits, which would have led to more just appreciation of that character and those resources. The Yankees have monopolized from the commencement of the war, nearly all those aewspaper channels by which information flows from this side to the other side of the Atlantic. The defect has been, however, nearly fully supplied. The Index is a weekly journal established in London, having for its Editor Mr. Henry Hoste, an enlightened German, and for contributor's several intelligent Southerners residing in that city. The funds have been liberally provided by a Mobile Gentleman. A letter from London, published in the Mobile Register, contains the

The Index, we are glad to learn, has proved great success, and produced a political effect far beyond the most sanguine hopes of its friends. It has already taken the stand as a first class weekly. A gentleman, formerly of Mobile, and whose liberality in aid of Confederate soldiers and of the general cause has been so often noted in these columns, is the munificent supporter of the Index.

The editorial sanctum of the Index has become the focus and rendezvous of Southerners in London. It is a seminary of Southern intelligence and a school of Southern writers, not for its own columns, but for the other London papers. The cause of the South now engages some of the ablest pens in London. A few months ago these men knew nothing about us and cared less. Among the contributors and leader-writers for the Index are J. B. Hopkins and Percy Gre, g, Esqs. Both of them are Englishmen. The former has read a capital statistical paper before the Social Science Congress on the Productiveness of the South, which has attracted much attention and made Lord Brougham very angry. The same gentleman has already written an introduction to the "South Vindicated," by Gen. Williams, a book just published in London in magnificent style and well received .-This work, as some of our readers will remember. was first published under the title of "Letters during the Presidential Canvass of 1860, in Nashville," by James Williams, late United States Minister to Constantinople, and was the first book copy-righted under the Confederate States. Mr. Percy Gregg is one of the principal leaderwriters of the Saturday Review, the leading London weekly, and writes admirable Southern articles. He is an editorial contributor to the Morning Herald and Standard, both of which papers are in effect daily Southern ergans. The financial writer for the Index is Mr. George Mclienry, an ardent Southerner, though born in Philadelphia. This gentleman also does yeoman's service to the Southern cause in the Times.

There is no estimating the value of the labors of these Southern advecates upon the English mind. It is to them largely that we owe the remarkable change of public opinion in that country since the revolution began. British sympathies were at the beginning almost with the North, and as all American intelligence went out through Northern sources and with Northern colorings, it is not perceived now that revolution in sentiment could have been produced except by able representation of the truth and justice of our cause through the agencies to which we have al-

More of the Bridge Rurning in Tennessee-

KNOXVILLE. Dec. 31. The Yankee forces which destroyed bridges on the East Tennessee and Va. Railroad, consisted of one Indiana Regi ent. They captured Col. Love, of the 62d N. C. Regiment. It is supposed they destroyed Senator Hayne's plantation. It is said that Gen. E. Kirby Smith ordered three regiments of cavalry from Murfreesboro' towards Pound Gap to watch the country north of Cumberland Monntain, but the order was countermanded by Gen Bragg.

Further --- Dispatch from Gov. Harris. CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 31.

The Rebel has just received the following from Gov. arris, dated Murfreesboro | Dec. 31:

We attacked the enemy in his position at 5} a. m. The battle raged till 5 p. nr. Our left wing drove the enemy's right back upon Stono river. Our advance was steady but the resistance was stubborn. We captured four batteries and about 4,000 abolitionists-among them three Brigadier Generals. Loss heavy on both sides. Relative loss not known, General Rains, of Nashville, was killed. ISHAM G. HARRIS. (Signed)

From Vicksburg .-- The Enemy again Repulsed.

VICKSBURG, Dec. 30. A courier has just arrived, who states that the enemy attempted to storm our lines again this morning, but after a severe combat were repulsed with heavy loss. No further particulars at present. The loss of the enemy is said to be about three hundred killed and wounded, and four hundred prisoners. Our less is a put fifty killed and wounded.

From the North--- the Latest Humbug.

RICHMOND, Jan. 2. The Enquirer has Northern dates o the 1st inst. James Brocks made a speech in New York, on Tuesday, at a meeting at which resolutions were unanimously adopted, requesting New Jersey, on account of her revolutionary history and past associations, to invite all the States to meet in Convention, at Louisville, in February,

They also call roon New Jersey to ask permission of the President to allow her to send delegates to the States in rebellion, and invite their representatives in this Convention; and in the event the States in rebellion agree to be represented, they ask Lincoln to prociaim an armistice by land and sea for six months. Brooks was enthusiastically applauded.
