Crops are looking excellent.

See executor's notice in this week's issue.

County Democratic Convention to-morrow.

Wheat harvesting is in full blast with us this week.

The water-melon crop promises to be an excellent one this year.

We never saw a better prospect for a corn crop in Warren county.

The schools have all closed and the small boy is decidedly happy.

Dr. P. J. Macon reports corn pudding for dinner on the 8th inst.

Aycock & Co. have something new and interesting to say to you in the business local column.

Let Warren county send no uncertain data sound on the financial question to the State or Congressional conventions.

'Mrs. Caseley' has something interesting to say to our readers this week. Look it up in the business locals. It will pay you to do so.

Remember that we will do your job work just as cheap and just as neat as any other house. We are fully prepared to serve you. Give us your work.

The E. C. Medical Society, at its session in Winston-Salem elected our townsman, Dr. G. A. Pleas, delegate from N. C. to the Medical Society of Virginia.

Enfield's tobacco market seems to be an assured fact. They are building two large warehouses and several prize houses, and expect to open the market on the 1st of August next.

Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Allen lost their little baby last Sunday. Its little body was interred in the old cemetery. The little one lived but a few hours and then went back to the God that gave it.

The Warrenton R. R. Co. have had their engine and coach thoroughly overhauled and repainted. The coach looks like a brand new one with its new coat of paint inside and out, put on by Mr. W. D. Rodgers.

Verily, death is abroad in our land, especially among the infants. Rev. W. J. Taylor held services over two infants at Warren Plains last week, one the infant of Mrs. Lambert, the other of Mrs. Roberts. We hear of three or four deaths every week.

We had a pleasant letter from Mrs. S. T. A. Jeffress, of Texas, last week containing a $1.00 for the renewal of her subscription to THE RECORD. She writes us that cotton is in full bloom around her, and cars for roasting in abundance.

Special attention is called to the business card of Mr. W. L. Hicks Jr. in this issue. He has been at work, in the tailoring business, for the last four years with our former townsman, Mr. O. O. White, at Bristol Tenn, which is of itself a guarantee that he will do honest good work. We commend him to the public.

The franchise granted Mr. Straus to erect telephone lines in Warren county (see report of commissioners' court) means a good deal to Warren county. We hope those who are able, throughout the county, will subscribe to it and lets have all parts of the county connected together by telephone. With a telephone connection with every post office in the county we could give you a county paper that would have the county news in it to perfection.

Capt. N. L. Shaw, Grand Dictator of the Knights of Honor for N. C. left this week to attend the session of the Supreme Lodge of United States and Canada, which meets in the city of Louisville Ky., We are glad to learn from our exchanges that our worthy citizens is doing a work in the interest of the order he represents, which is appreciated and reflects credit on him.

Prof. Dargan left for South Carolina last Monday, where he will spend about a month and will return accompanied with his wife and daughter. We are glad to announce the fact that he will return. Every body, who knows him, likes him. He is an acquisition to any community. Our people will extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. and Miss Dargan, who will come back with him to live among us.

The People Believe what they read about Hood's Sarsaparilla. They know it is an honest medicine, and that it cures disease. That is why you should get Hood's and only Hood's.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, relieve constipation and assist digestion. 25c.

OUR CITY REPORTER.

Mr. N. F. Alston is at home again.

Mr. Pretlow, of Franklin, Va., was in town this week.

Miss Emma Williams, of Raleigh, is here for a month.

Dr. A. S. Pendleton, of Boston is here for a short visit.

Mr. T. W. Hawkins, of Littleton was on our streets this week.

Mr. Joe Hawkins, of Vance county, has been on a visit to relatives the past week.

Masters Claud Judd and Ben Powell of Henderson were visiting in town this week.

Dr. J. R. Palmer, now located at Franklinton, N. C., was in town last Saturday.

Misses Lily Arrington and Sue White attended the commencement exercises at St. Mary's, this week.

Mr. W. T. Fleming went to Wilmington last Friday to spend a few days with his college chum Mr. John Gore.

The stuffed Wolf skin created quite a sensation on our streets last Thursday, but it was so much like a dog we could'nt tell the difference.

Her many friends, are glad to have Miss Eliza Egerton of Asheville among them again. She is here in search of better health, and we are sure she will find it.

Miss Maggie Hudgins gave a splendid concert at Warren Plains Tuesday night. There were 43 pupils and every one took some part in it. There was an immense crowd notwithstanding the inclement weather and every thing passed off in just the right way and just the right time.

Death of Little Virginia Boyd Fleming.

Little Virginia Boyd, three months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Fleming died last Tuesday evening. We sympathize with the bereaved parents whose hearts are thus so badly torn by the Reaper's Scythe, but they should not weep for the dear one. Its soul is in heaven, at rest, free from pain forever more. "The child cannot come to them, but they can go to the child." Let this comfort them and lead them heavenward.

Democratic Primary Convention.

At the Warrenton Democratic Primary Convention, held here last Saturday, the following gentlemen were elected delegates to the county convention:

From East Warrenton Precinct:—Dr. R. D. Fleming, R. O. Talley, W. A. Bennett, J. C. Hardy, Dr. P. J. Macon, Tasker Polk, Capt. W. J. White, H. Palmer, Jr., R. B. Boyd, H. A. Poole, Peter Arrington and John Hall.

From West Warrenton Precinct:—H. A. Boyd, Jno. A. Dowtin, J. H. Kerr, Jr., H. S. Hanks, Jr., J. L. Palmer, J. O. Drake, G. W. Reams, R. A. Hawkins, Dr. T. F. Jernigan, Jno. A. Hudgins, Jno. W. Scott and J. R. Rodwell.

The primary unanimously instructed the delegates to present Mr. M. J. Hawkins's name to the county convention for the office of State Treasurer.

The delegation from Warrenton is for silver. There may be one or possibly two men on the list who are gold-bugs.

Warren Plains High School.

It was our good pleasure to attend the closing exercises of the Warren Plains High School, last Tuesday night. This school, the past session, has been under the management of that most excellent teacher, Miss Maggie W. Hudgins.

Knowing the teacher, we expected something good and were not disappointed. The entertainment in all its details showed the master hand and head of its principal. A large concourse of people were there, not more than half of them finding room inside the building. The refreshing rain had just fallen, cooling the atmosphere, causing the large crowd to be in excellent spirits, consequently good order prevailed. The programme was carried out in excellent order and good taste.

The general verdict of the large audience was that it was one of the best entertainments they ever attended. It was truly a splendid entertainment. We cannot afford to make special mention, because it is unfair to do so where all did so exceedingly well.

There was only one prize awarded and that was for the most improvement in penmanship. Rev. T. J. Taylor presented the prize, a beautiful copy of Tennyson's Poems, to Miss Lollie Stansberry, the winner, in a neat well worded talk.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Death of Mrs. Charlotte E. Davis.

Wednesday afternoon all that was mortal of the late Mrs. Charlotte E. Davis was laid to rest on the South-eastern slope of Fairview cemetery—a beautiful spot selected at her request by her faithful and devoted son.

The funeral services were conducted from the Methodist church of which she was a most consistent and acceptable member by her pastor, Rev. P. L. Herman.

She had been a great sufferer for many long months, but through it all she was patient and never a word of complaint or murmuring escaped her lips. Her faith was unwavering and as she approached the end of life's journey, even as she was launching her life bark from the shore of time on the sea of eternity, when she was saying farewell to those dear ones she loved so well and who were so true and faithfull and loving to her, though so tired and weary, yet her mind was clear to the last and she gave to those about her bedside most comforting and satisfactory evidence of her conscious acceptance of the God she loved and whom she had worshiped and served through a long life. She has gone to her final rest—"rest for the weary"—where there shall be no more suffering, no more sorrowing. May her distressed and bereaved children find sweet consolation in the fact that what is their loss is her eternal gain and may they seek to emulate the beautiful christian virtues of their sainted mother.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of Mrs. Pendleton's school and the Academy were just splendid. The first night, Thursday, was taken up mainly by the small boys and girls, and they all did remarkably well, reflecting great credit upon themselves and upon their faithful teachers. The second night Friday, was the equal of any entertainment ever given in the historic old Academy building. The plays and recitations were of the higher order and were exceedingly well rendered. Where all did so well, we forbear mentioning any particulars.

The programme, both nights, was interspersed with delightful songs and instrumental music.

The building was packed both nights, and a large crowd hanging around the doors and windows, who could not get inside. We have been attending entertainments at the Academy for the last twenty years or more, but have never seen a more orderly gathering of people, a more appreciative or a better looking crowd. Every thing passed off charmingly, without a hitch or bother. The boys and girls now their parts thoroughly, and if there was a single instance of prompting, we did not hear it. The public feel grateful to Mrs. Pendleton and Prof. Dargan for their untiring efforts in training our boys and girls and in giving us such an elegant entertainment.

Both should receive the substantial amount request and aid that they deserve from our people. We sincerely hope to see the old Academy next session full of bright boys under Prof. Dargan, and Mrs. Pendleton with all the pupils she desires.

Ridgeway High School Commencement.

The evening of June 5th witnessed the closing exercises of the celebrated Ridgeway High School. A large concourse of patrons and friends assembled on that occasion to note the progress of the students and to enjoy the intellectual feast prepared for them. Nor was there disappointment. The exercises justified the high reputation of the school.

In the delivery of the speeches, and in the rendition of the music, the results of thorough preparation were manifested.

All the pupils acquitted themselves handsomely.

The speeches were appropriate, well adapted to the young orators, and impressively delivered.

The money debate was good, and we now, have six young debaters thoroughly prepared to instruct their friends upon the relative merits of gold and silver.

Mrs. Dargan, who presides over the musical department, deserves the compliments freely bestowed for the skillful training of her pupils. Space will not permit an extended notice of individual work.

We congratulate Mr. Graham and his able assistants and we predict for his school a reputation second to none in the south.

The Dear Old Dollar.

How dear to our hearts is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view—the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things that to us seem so new; the wife spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange thing they tell. The coins of our fathers! We're glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right well—the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar that we all love so well.—The Masonic Journal.

WONDERFUL are the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and yet they are simple and natural. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes PURE BLOOD.
