Local News.

The last day of July.
The days are perceptibly shorter.
Commissioners' court next Monday.
Whow! Is this hot enough for you?
The Republican Executive Committee of Warren county is called to meet here to-morrow.
Tobacco curing is the order of the day now. Good cures are being made, so the farmers we have seen say.
Higgin Bros., as clever merchants as any town has, have something new and interesting for you to read in their new ad. this week.
These wide awake, ever obliging merchants, Messrs. Jackson & Gregory, have a most interesting new advertisement in this issue. Be sure and read it.
The grand jury of last court was rather a remarkable and able body of men. The cause of its remarkability and ability was that out of the eighteen men exactly one half, nine, of them were half-headed men.
We are exceedingly hard pressed these hot days, and respectfully ask those who owe us to help us out. Country produce taken in payment of subscriptions. Don't forget us friends. An editor can't live on promises.
If you are in need of job work of any kind remember that we wish to serve you and promise to keep the money here in the county. Don't forget that we have a full supply of blank chattel mortgages on hand. Give us a trial.
A very distinguished North Carolinian has been in our town this week, Dr. Stephen B. Weeks. He has been in search of historical facts, especially of fact concerning Hon. Nathaniel Macon and events of his day.
The Populist convention here last Saturday took particular pains, on motion of Rev. Jas. A. Pitcheford to endorse the Republican nomination of Rev. M. E. Hall, for one of the county commissioners, but said nothing about the other part of the ticket.
If you wish a good Warren county paper that will give you the county news you can get it only by subscribing to THE RECORD, price $1.00 per year, 50 cents for six months. THE RECORD is sent out every Friday morning without fail.
One of the speakers in the convention here last Saturday said he was in favor of endorsing Bryan, the Democratic nominee for President and was heartily cheered, and very soon another speaker declared that the Populist party must not endorse anything the Democrats did, and he was also heartily applauded.
Mr. S. A. Beardsley, of New York State, father of our county road supt., is in our county on a visit to his son. Mr. Beardsley says that the rural districts of his State, New York, are largely in favor of the free coinage of silver, and that we need not be surprised to learn after the election that the Empire State has elected Bryan and Sewall de laos.
Several speeches were made in the Populist convention last Saturday strongly endorsing and recommending the People's Paper, one delegate going so far as to say that it was the only paper worth taking in the county. After the convention several members of the convention canvassed the crowd soliciting subscribers. Of course this made us feel bad.
Some have endeavored to construe our local last week on the fact of fever existing in our unusually healthy town, as a reflection upon our county physician. No such idea was in the mind of the writer of the local. We simply stated the truth but do not believe that the fever here is a result of any negligence on the part of our county physician, Dr. G. A. Fosta. The fact is that the severest cases of fever in our town were contracted by people who have been living elsewhere.
Mr. James W. White, Warrenton's favorite tailor, has quit the insurance business and formed an alliance with these enterprising merchants, Messrs. Jackson & Gregory, for the purpose of running a tailoring business in connection with their large and handsome clothing department. This arrangement enables them to fill all orders for clothing of whatever size, style or price. If they haven't the ready-made suit for you Mr. White is there, ready and perfectly qualified in every way, to make a suit to fit you at once. This is a good move, and should be appreciated by the public. We predict success for the new enterprise.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds, croup and hooping cough. It is pleasant safe and reliable. For sale by F. P. Hunter, Druggist.

Aycock & Co. have an immense stock of shoes on hand. Read their local this week.

The Record is ready, willing and waiting to acknowledge the receipt of fine watermelons &c.

Messrs. E. T. Rodwell and J. Willie White will leave for the Northern markets tomorrow to lay in a full and complete line of hardware which they will open up in the new brick store now being built, about the first of Sept. Look out for their ad, when they come back.

Rev. T. J. Taylor says that Mr. John H. Burroughs knows how to cure hams to suit his taste. At least the fine ham Mr. Burroughs recently brought to the Baptist parsonage was just right. We also learn that Rev. T. J. Dailey has been feasting on some of the same kind of hams. Let us add that editors are just as fond and just as appreciative of nice cured hams as preachers. Don't forget the poor editor.

One enthusiastic speaker in the Populist convention last Saturday said that he neither knew nor had heard of any one who had ever declared himself a Populist and then left the party for either of the old parties, but before they got through a colored delegate nominated a well known colored man as delegate to one of the conventions, who two years ago was a most ardent Populist, but it was announced in convention that this colored brother wouldn't do because he had gone back into the Republican party, whereupon it was stated that said colored brother was in the court room and that he should be given a chance to say where he stood, but the colored brother grinned and kept his seat, therefore his name was withdrawn and the speaker who had made his boast in the beginning of the convention had learned what he had not known before.

OUR CITY REPORTER.

Mr. J. Norbert Thomas came home yesterday from Durham, sick.

Miss Minnie Longhin left last Saturday on an extended visit to her sisters.

Judge W. A. Montgomery was in town a day or two last week.

The well known physician, Dr. O'hagan, of Greenville was here last Saturday and Sunday on a visit to Mrs. Shaw and Pendleton.

Mr. James W. Cole is in Enfield this week.

Mrs. D. H. Riggan and children left this week on a visit to friends and relatives in Wake Forest.

Miss Emma Riggan, of Wake Forest, who has been visiting here for some time, left for her home this week.

Mr. Joe Hattcock, who has been confined to his room for several weeks, is out on the streets again.

Mr. R. H. Ford went back to Raleigh this week to engage in business for a while.

Mrs. W. S. Terrell, of Warren Plains accompanied by her handsome nephew and two pretty nieces, son and daughter of Mr. Tom Terrell of Raleigh, were in town this week.

Mr. Geo. V. Boyd with his bride arrived last Wednesday after an extended tour through the Northern cities and Canada. They are domiciled at the pleasant home of Mrs. S. P. Arrington.

Mrs. Clifton and son and Miss Mollie King, all of Louisburg, came in town yesterday on a visit to relatives and friends.

Miss Addie Shaw, after a months visit to her father, Capt. Shaw, left Wednesday for Raleigh.

There were 18 conversions during the late protracted meeting at Warren Plains; and 9 additions to the church.

Warrenton is being filled with summer visitors.

Mr. Edgar Allen and family left Monday for Louisburg, and will make it their future home.

Miss Lesie Hunter, one of Oxford's sweetest young ladies, is visiting the Misses Herman.

Mr. Russell Young, of Wilson, spent Monday with his uncle Mr. T. L. H. Young.

Misses Pendleton and Clark left Saturday for Greenville, where they will spend some time.

Mr. Eddie Wilcox with his bride are in town visiting the family of Mrs. M. J. Wilcox.

Miss Mary Davis, of Louisburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. S. Allen.

Her numerous friends will be glad to learn that Miss Estelle Davis is very much improved. She is still at Panama Springs.

We are glad to hear the condition of Dr. King is much better, notwithstanding the excessively hot weather.

The Populist County Convention.

The Populist of Warren county assembled in convention here last Saturday. It was not near so largely attended as we expected. In fact there were very few here. But few of the townships had as many people in the convention as they were entitled to as delegates. One township, Fishing Creek, had no representative in the convention. The personnel of the convention was upon the whole, good; but it contained some notable characters in our county, some who have been noted as acrobats, not only in politics, but in other callings of life. The main speakers of the convention were the preachers, who have seen fit in this life to mix politics and preaching.

The convention was called to order by Major W. B. Fleming, chairman of the Populist Executive Committee. The convention was at once organized by electing Major Fleming, permanent chairman, and Mr. H. E. Whitke, secretary.

While the committee on credentials was out, calls were made for several to address the convention.

Rev. T. B. Reeks was called for, but he respectfully declined to have any thing to say.

Rev. L. C. Perkinson was next called for and endorsed the convention by lauding the Populists and denouncing the Democrats. We listened closely but heard no word of condemnation or reproach of the Republican party fall from the Rev. gentleman's lips, but he poured out invectives against the Democrats, the party of his other Anglo-Saxons.

Mr. Jos. S. Jones had nothing to say when called, nor did Mr. H. B. Hunter, Sr., but when the Rev. James A. Pitcheford was called, the welkins were made to ring. He gave a brief biography of himself and the woeful and terrible treatment he had received from some people, who know him better than we do. Abused the Democrats, but opened not his mouth against the Republicans, and finally wound up by telling the old, stale, campaign story of the boy with the basket of pebbles.

Mr. Thos. Connell, the old war horse, who has been seeking office for the last eight years, to our certain knowledge, now regaled the convention by denouncing the Democrats and declaring that the Populist party should never, no never, help the Democrats elect Bryan or any other man. Not a word did this distinguished, horny handed son of toil have to say against the Republicans. By this time the committee on credentials was ready to report, so speech making came to a close.

All editors present were invited to take seats in the bar, and this editor accepted the invitation and took a seat next to Mr. T. R. Walker, editor of the People's Paper, (some one came by and remarked that, "The lion and the lamb shall lie down together.")

Some confusion arose as to the terms of fusion which were submitted to the convention at this point. Major Fleming reported that the terms of fusion agreed upon with the Republicans was that the Republicans were to name the member of the House of Representatives, the Register of Deeds, the Surveyor and one member of the Board of Commissioners. The Populists were to name the Sheriff, the Treasurer and two members of the Board of Commissioners, while the Senator, for whom both Warren and Vance have to vote, was to be named by the Populists, and it was conceded that Vance was entitled to furnish the candidate. Now right here on this senatorial question is where the trouble came in. It appeared that both Republicans and Populists, in Vance had named a candidate for Senator, thus violating the contract. Some of the convention were in favor of not doing any thing till this senatorial matter was properly adjusted while others, and it proved to be a majority, were in favor of proceeding under the terms of agreement, and delegate to the Executive Committee the power to arrange the senatorship.

The next thing was a hearty endorsement of Hon. C. A. Cook for the House of Representatives. What a spectacle! A body of men, who claim to be the pioneers of the silver cause, endorsing a McKinley Republican for the only office they have any control over, that can in any way effect, directly or indirectly, legislation in favor of Bi-metalism—but they did it, and did it with unanimity.

Twenty-one delegates were elected to attend the State convention and twenty one to attend the Congressional convention.

W. B. Fleming and Thos. Connell were declared the nominees for county commissioners. J. B. W. Jones was nominated for sheriff and N. M. Palmer for treasurer.

The Republicans failed to name a surveyor and it was stated by some one in the convention that the Republicans wished the Populists to fill that position, since they did not have a competent person in their ranks for this position, but the convention declined to do so, showing very plainly to a man outside the rings, that neither party wished to tackle the public road question that they have been stuning so much. At this point the convention adjourned, without passing any resolutions or adopting any platform to show to the world where they stand or what they favored. Without any light being given us by the convention this scribe concluded that their platform must be what their acts indicated, to-wit: No set principles, but anything to beat the despised Democrats and help the beloved gold-bug Republicans; fusion with any body or set of men in order to get office, and a chance at the pie counter.

From every speech made in the convention, and from the parties who made the speeches, we concluded that the Populist party so far as Warren county is concerned lives and thrives on hatred and malice and abuse of their former associates, the Democratic party.

The Republicans of Warren are exceedingly generous in their terms of fusion with the Populists, they having four votes to one vote of the Populists. We asked a leading Republican why were they so generous, when it is clear that they could elect every officer in the county. His reply was, "Ah, we know what we are about. These fellows will have to go somewhere soon and we will swallow them up in the Republican party."

Benedict-Long.

WARRENTON, N. C., July 23.—(Special)—The most brilliant event of the season was the wedding to-night of Rev. Edward Benedict to Miss Kate T. Long, in Grace Episcopal church. The church was profusely decorated, and the ceremony took place at half past 9 o'clock, P. M. Rev. J. B. Cheshire, D. D., performed the beautiful ceremony, and was assisted by Rev. M. M. Marshall, of Raleigh. After the ceremony an elegant reception was tendered the bride and groom by Mrs. J. T. Gooch.

Many distinguished persons were present from this and other States. The groom is one of the most learned divines in the diocese, and is rector of Grace church here. The bride is one of the most beloved and most accomplished young ladies in the State. She has traveled extensively, and has a large circle of friends in this and other States. The happy pair leave tomorrow morning for New York, the former home of Mr. Benedict, and after spending some weeks at his beautiful home on the Hudson river, will take an extended trip through Canada and important places in the United States north of Washington.—News & Observer.

Rev. Edward Benedict is also rector of Emmanuel church of our town, and spends one half of his time here. Several of our people attended the marriage among them our most efficient post mistress, Mrs. Mary Green.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Advertising!

AT one time advertising was looked upon with suspicion. A prevailing belief existed that advertisements were simply snares of the crafty to entice the credulous, — announcements of somebody who wishes to "do" some body else.

But now a change has taken place. Advertising has risen to a position where it is respected and recognized as the most effective salesman.

There are instances where old methods survive, but they are few.

It will be found generally that advertised articles stand high among their class, that the names of merchants affixed to advertisements are, as a rule, a guarantee of the truth of the statements that preceded them. Advertised lines are usually popular lines—lines that, in the judgment of the merchant, will prove profitable to the customers.

If a thing is freely advertised today, it is almost a foregone conclusion that it is a good thing. Herein lies the reason why the people should with expediency take notice of the ads. which come before them.

Our stock of Shoes seems to us inexhaustible. We have something like worth in stock. Our stock of Clothing is hardly broken in sizes. We would say we have about worth of ready made Clothing on hand. We have said nothing about our full line of Dress Goods, Calicoes, Lawns, White Goods, Gloves, Mitts, Handkerchiefs, Hosiery, Corsets, Buttons, Belts, Hair-pins, Laces, Table Linen and Domestic.

$2000.00

Would say we have about

worth of Dry Goods proper. Every article of our immense stock can be bought at a reduced price.

Yours respectfully,
JACKSON and GREGORY.

P. S. — We expect to discontinue handling Furniture, so will sell out cheap.
