Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Boyd Russell and Miss Webb, both of Va., on the 20th inst.

T. M. Brown, of Shocco, has a cow that has calved twice this year, once in January and again in December. Both calves are strong and hearty.

Miss Lucy Hawkins' school gave a candy stew to invited guests last Monday night and the boys and girls, who attended, all report a delightful time.

Mr. James Hendrick, of Va., informed us the other day that his little son, 11 years old, caught and safely landed from Roanoke River, a carp weighing 11 lbs. and 7oz.

Mr. H. J. White will put in some mills at his cotton gin, now in a few days, and will be prepared to make meal and crushed corn. This will be quite a convenience to our people.

Mr. John W. Wiggins, one of Warrenton's oldest and best known citizens, left us last Friday for Yanceyville, N. C., where he will reside in the future with his son, Mr. Jack Wiggins.

The Henderson Gold Leaf is sweet sixteen. She is a beauty and one of our best and most highly esteemed exchanges. May bro. Manning have the support that his able paper deserves.

The State Pension Warrants are all here and the Register of Deeds is handing them out as fast as those who are entitled to them apply. Sheriff Davis will give you the money for them if you will have them properly endorsed.

Our local last week calling attention to the unexpected and nocturnal leaving of Mr. Nunn, one of our visiting photographers, was not intended to convey any idea that Mr. Nunn left here under a cloud, or stole away to avoid paying any debts, or any thing of that kind. On the contrary Mr. Nunn conducted himself as a gentleman, while here, and left without owing a cent, so far as we know, and carries with him the respects of our town. We simply meant to refer to his sudden leaving, without any notice to the public.

Why suffer with Coughs, Colds, and LaGrippe when LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE will cure you in one day. Does not produce the ringing in the head like Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. Peter Arrington, formerly of our town but now of Clarksville Va., and Miss Kate Pendleton, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, will be married in the Episcopal church here, on the 24th inst.

Senator Morgan's resolution on the Emigration Bill in the Senate the other day requiring all emigrants landing here to be able to read the Ten Commandments was defeated by that body. The Decalogue is not popular with the nation's fathers, it would seem.

The Episcopal church here has called Rev. B. S. Bronson as their rector, and he has accepted and will serve them from now on. We hope to have Mr. Bronson's regular appointments by our next issue, so that his appointments may be kept constant in the directory. Mr. Bronson is well known here and greatly beloved and respected. The Record is glad to hear he has been tendered the rectorship and that he has accepted the same.

The proprietors of Rheumacide, the new vegetable compound for the cure of rheumatism, seem to think they have a great remedy and claim that cures are the best evidence. Cures should be the yardstick by which medicines are measured. See advertisement in another column. 37-4m.

Death of Mr. Plummer W. Green.
While all is life and bustle preparing for the Christmas holidays; death, ever relentless, always certain, has visited our town and laid his icy hand upon one of our best known and most highly respected citizens.

Mr. Plummer W. Green quietly passed away last Tuesday afternoon, at his residence in Warrenton, surrounded by his devoted daughter, sister and brother and friends. Mr. Green was blind. Has been blind for many years, caused by injuries received in the late civil war, through which he served as gallant a soldier as was in Lee's army. Mr. Green though totally blind, knew his friends remarkably well by their voices, and he was a most delightful companion. Everybody liked him.

He was a consistent member of the M. E. Church and died in the christian's hope.

He was 63 years old. He leaves an only daughter to mourn the loss of a father that loved her tenderly. His remains were gently laid to rest by his friends in the old cemetery Wednesday evening. Rev. P. L. Herman conducted a short funeral service at the M. E. Church which was concluded at the grave.

To his only daughter, sister, brothers, relatives and friends we offer our sincere condolences. But they should not mourn for him. He has gone to his bright home above where his loving wife, who preceded him a few years, awaited his coming, and where all is light and joy—no blindness there—no sorrow there.

"The Lady of Lyons."

The "Lady of Lyons" was rendered in the Town Hall last Tuesday night to a full house. The entertainment was simply splendid. Every body who attended spent a pleasant and enjoyable evening. The ladies and gentlemen, entirely home folks, deserve much credit for the excellent manner in which they acquitted themselves and for the elegant entertainment they offered our people.

They all did remarkably well, and it is to be hoped that we will be given several such entertainments during the long winter evenings.

The music was a treat indeed. The Record in behalf of the managers of the entertainment and of the entire audience desires to return sincere thanks to the gentlemen from Middleburg for the sweet music given us. We would like to hear them often and see them often too, for all five of them, composing the band, are handsome gentlemen.

Special thanks are due the ladies of the M. E. Church who labored so diligently, and who arranged the stage so nicely, for their efforts in getting up the entertainment. We hope, and expect, that they realized a good sum for the M. E. Church, in whose interest the entertainment was given.

We must not forget to mention the farce "The New Woman" which brought down the house and sent every body home in a good humor. Let us have some more like it.

Dr. F. A. Macon and sister, Miss Lizzie Macon, of Henderson, came to the play last Tuesday night.

Rev. A. McCullen, of Henderson, was in town this week.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c, and $1.00 per bottle at Dr. C. A. Thomas'.
