VOL. 5.

WARRENTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1899.

NO. 5.

Local News.

See Mr. J. B. Davis' local ad. about Sheriff N. M. Jones went to Raleigh this week.
Mr. B. G. Green visited Raleigh this week on legal business.
Mr. Buck Hunter was here two days this week with his parents.
Mr. J. J. Myrick, of Littleton, came in to see us last Wednesday.
See about the cows Mr. C. A. Cook is advertising in the business locals.

Be sure to remember the democrat in town convention next Monday night.
Miss Dolly Daniel, of Littleton, is visiting the Misses Grahams this week.
Mrs. C. T. Bailey, of Raleigh, visited friends and relatives here the past week.
That clever traveling gentleman, Mr.
O. P. Shell, Jr., was in to see us last Monday.

Miss Annie Abernethy ran down to see her mother last Saturday, returning on Sunday.
Tarwater Bros. received a car load of horses and mules yesterday. They are nice ones. See their local ad.

Shippers, Oxfords and Summer wash goods are the things Jackson & Gregory are talking about in their ad. this week. Look it up.

Every body welcomes to town Mrs.
Henry Williams and family. They occupy their residence on court house square, recently vacated by Mr. H. W. Palmer.

Mrs. Winnie Blackwell, of Wilton, Granville Co., N. C., came in last Wednesday on a visit to her sister Mrs.
Mary Green. Mr. Newton accompanied Mrs. Blackwell.

Let the democrats of the town meet in their convention next Monday night and nominate a full democratic ticket and elect it, and thus set an example for the county for 1900.

Dr. J. R. Palmer, of Hookerton, N. C., was in to see us last Saturday. The Dr. came up on some business, and only spent a few days in the county.
He says he is doing well, and very well pleased with his new field.

Joe. White Camp Confederate Veterans had an interesting meeting in Warrenton on the 19th. In our next issue we will publish the proceedings in full. The delegates appointed to the Charleston Convention are: T. J.
Pittsford and F. C. Vaughan, Alternates, H. B. Hunter Jr. and J. K. Plummer.

Our friend and townsman, Capt. N.
E. Shaw, from the favorable newspaper reports, must be doing well in Western N. C. and is making quite an impression on those he comes in contact with. His letters in the Biblical Recorder, of Raleigh, are splendid. Capt. will be home about the middle of May.

It is hoped that Warrenton will have a good baseball team this Spring and Summer and give us some nice, interesting games of ball. There is, and will be, excellent timber here this summer to organize a team that can and will wipe up anything that dares tackle them. Organize boys and lets have some games.

Mrs. Sallie Allen, of Artell, celebrated her twentieth birthday last Wednesday with a family reunion. She had her children, grand children and great grand children with her. The wish of every body who knows this most excellent lady is that she may live many years yet. She is remarkably active and energetic for her age.

At the request of several of the leading democrats of Warrenton, notice is hereby given that a convention of the democrats of the town is called to meet in the court house next Monday night, April 24th, 1899 at 8 o'clock sharp, to nominate a full fledged democratic ticket for town commissioners and Mayor, to be voted for on Monday, the 1st. day of May, 1899. Every democrat in the town is earnestly requested to be present and take part in the convention.

Warrenton has one thing that our citizens are proud of and that is the barber shop of Washington Harris.
Waddie has recently had his shaving parlor thoroughly repaired and it presents a neat, clean, comfortable appearance. We know of nothing more pleasant than to fall into the chairs and hands of Waddie, and under his skillful manipulation have a shave or hair cut, sweetly dozing while the work is going on. It is a pleasant place, with a polite, genteel barber and a clean nic shop and it is recommended to our readers to stop there.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with my self or children.
—W. A. Stroud, Fernside City, Md.
For sale by F. P. Hunter, druggist.

That was a horrible affair is Portsmouth, Va., last Sunday evening, in which Mr. Robert J. Shaw, son of our esteemed countyman, Mr. Jesse L.
Shaw, of Littleton, was shot dead by one Hutchins. It seems that Shaw was forbidden by Hutchins to visit his home, and Sunday evening Hutchins unexpectedly returned to his home and found Shaw there with his (Hutchins') wife. In attempting to get away Shaw was shot and died immediately. Hutchins gave himself up to the authorities and will be tried for murder. Shaw's body was brought to Littleton for interment. The affair is a horrible one both on account of the cause and results. Mr.
Shaw leaves a wife and five children who were living with him in Portsmouth.

It is seldom that the poor editor finds such rare cases in the desert of his dreary life as this scribe had thrust upon him last Saturday evening and Sunday. Saturday a very urgent invitation came to us to partake of an o'possum supper at Mrs. Sallie Rodwell's residence. We went and found her entire family of children and grand children there, and a delightful supper spread with a fine fat possum gracing the foot of the table. The evening was spent in delightful discourse with friends, and music in abundance.
Sunday morning our clever friend, Mr.
J. J. Fisher, sent us, ready dressed, a fine rock fish which gave the entire family a splendid dish for dinner. May these good friends be prosperous and live long and happy lives, is the sincere wish of this Recorder.

Death of Rev. T. B. Reeks.

Rev. T. B. Reeks was born in Granville county, N. C., June 4th, 1825.
Was married to Miss Annie E. Brane in November, 1847. Died the 10th day of April, 1899.

Brother Reeks joined the North Carolina Conference of the M. E.
Church South in 1844 at Pittsboro, N. C. and was there in his 55th year as an itinerant Methodist preacher. He had been in feeble health for some years which necessitated his taking a superannuated position in 1888. Despairing of the recovery of his health at the conference of 1893 he asked for and obtained a superannuated relation.
During the work of his active ministry he served many churches and left wherever he went his impress as a man of God. He was anxious to do the work of the ministry—even when failing strength admonished his friends that he was overtaxing himself he insisted on making appointments and preaching the gospel.

He leaves a family of children who were trained in the nurture and admonition of the Lord by him, all of whom are members of the church that he served so faithfully and loved so well.

It was our privilege to visit him several times during his affliction and we always found him resigned, patient and awaiting the summons that he felt would soon come to call him up higher.
He lost his home by fire last year and nearly all of his earthly effects but none of these things moved him to complain—his home was in heaven.
God raised up for him a home for the time being in the hospitable home of his brother-in-law, John M. Brane, Esq., where he died—his own home not having been rebuilt.

As a man and a citizen brother Reeks was universally loved and esteemed.
As a minister he was always regarded as a pure man against whose character never rested a stain.

The large concourse of people who gathered to honor his memory, and who followed his remains to their last resting place tell in what esteem he was held by his friends and neighbors.
We laid him to rest in the old Brane burying ground by the side of his wife who had preceded him to the grave.
He rests from his labor and his works do follow him.

WAKE FOREST ITEMS.

A negro thought to have escaped from the pest house at Raleigh passed through here Tuesday afternoon. An attempt was made to arrest him and send him back, but he made good his escape.

That "spring is coming" is a true saying, but that "spring has not come" is also true. Two or three bright, balmy days, fooled some of us into believing that spring was really here, but —"one swallow doesn't make summer."

Prof. and Mrs. Cullom will leave for Louisville, Ky., about the first of May, where they will visit relatives and attend the Southern Baptist Convention, beginning on the 12th. For that reason Prof. Cullom has advanced his Bible examination several weeks.

Two cases of smallpox have been discovered just without the corporate limits. After being examined they were at once removed to the pest house and put under guard. This dread disease is confined almost entirely to the negro race, yet they seem to have no fear of it.

After this week the boys will settle down to work in earnest, preparing for examinations, which will determine whether they shall advance one class or be relegated to that number known as "fails." Commencement week follows immediately after examinations, and then we go home. Happy thought!

Ex-Governor Peter H. Bell.

WARRENTON, N. C.
To the relatives of the late Peter H. Bell, ex-Governor of the State of Texas.

I take this method of presenting to you the following resolutions, passed by the Legislature of the State of Texas on the 2nd day of March, 1899, in token of the esteem in which the memory of the late Governor Bell is held by the people of the State of Texas. A copy of which has been forwarded to me to be delivered to you.
I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
C. A. COOK.

By Mr. Bailey }
and Mr. Morris. } House Concurrent Resolution No. 27.

Whereas, The Hon. Peter Hansborough Bell, patriot, hero, soldier and ex-Governor of Texas, recently departed this life at his home at Littleton, North Carolina; and

Whereas, Immediately previous to his death he requested that the saddle that he rode and the pistols that he used in the Mexican and Indian wars, in which he so gallantly and valiantly served with distinction to himself and honor to the cause for which he fought, be presented to the State of Texas; and Whereas, The Legislature of Texas in the name of the people are desirous of publicly expressing their appreciation of his worth and distinguished public services, and their gratitude for these bequests of historic value; therefore be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that we have heard with sentiments of profound sorrow of his death, and that in the same his relatives and friends have lost one who was ever ready to serve them whenever called upon, and whose life was devoted to the cause of freedom and the betterment of the people of Texas, who honored him with the highest executive office within their gift.

Resolved, That the State Librarian be and he is hereby authorized to receive, in the name of the people of Texas, the aforesaid tokens of affection and friendship and to deposit them in the State library.

Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be properly engrossed and delivered to Col. Charles Alston Cook, at Warrenton, North Carolina, to be delivered to the relatives of the deceased.

Adopted by unanimous vote in House and Senate.

J. S. SHERRELL, Speaker H. of R.
J. N. BROWN, Speaker of Senate.

LEE J. ROBERTS,
Chief Clerk H. of R.
J. P. POOL,
Secretary of the Senate.

Jenkins-Green.

On Wednesday, April 18th. it was our pleasure to witness the beautiful and solemn rites of matrimony, at the Wesley Memorial Church, which was simply, but beautifully decorated with stately Callas, and rich ever greens.

Exactly at noon, Rev. A. McCullen, of Henderson, former pastor of the church, stepped within the chancel, and the organ under the skillful management of Miss Annie Hawkins, pealed forth the familiar strains of Mendels-son's wedding march. Simultaneously, from the lecture room Messrs.
John L. Henderson and Richard B.
Boyd, ushered in the single file, down the right and left centre aisle, the little flower girls, Misses Jennie Jackson and Mary Cook, both clad in fair-like robes of pure white, carrying cute little baskets of sweet spring flowers.
Crossing in front of the altar they paused a little in the rear of the semicircle, to be formed by the attendants who marched with graceful mien in like order, as follows:

Miss Daisy Williams, of Warrenton, and Mr. Brown, of Tarboro; Miss Pannie White, of Manson, and Mr. Butcher, of Petersburg; Miss Alice Jones, of Warrenton, and Dr. Whitehead, of Battleboro; Miss Katharine Stiles, of Petersburg; and Mr. G. C. Gregory, of Warrenton; Miss Ora Jenkins, of Hamlet, and Mr. W. K. Barham, of Warrenton; Miss Louise Hall, of Warrenton, and Mr. Wallace White, of Manson. The groom, Mr. John L.
Jenkins, attended by his best man, Mr.
Herbert Jenkins entered from the chancel door, then came the maid of honor, Miss Josie Cook, followed closely by the bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. L. Henderson, from whom Mr. Jenkins received the hand of the fair maiden, Annie May Green.

The short but impressive ceremony being over, the order of marching was reversed, the bride leading her attendants. Her rich but delicate mauve colored traveling suit with its pluk trimmings and the exquisite bouquet of La France roses was in beautiful contrast with the sheer white organdies and bouquets of white lilacs of her maids.

The attendants escorted the happy pair to Warrenton Plains, where they boarded the train for Tarboro, their future home.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr.
Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by C. A. Thomas, druggist.
