Mrs. Mary Green, our post mistress, spent a day or two in Granville county, this week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Blackwell, who is very ill.

Taylor's mill pond is posted against fishing with nets. All parties are hereby notified of this fact and must govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. Geo. S. Miles and his entire family left us last Friday for Newport News, Va., where they will reside in the future. We regret their going, but wish them well.

Miss Nena Parker, of the Raleigh D. D. & B. Institute, came down home last Saturday to be here at the dedication of the new Baptist church, returning last Monday.

Boys, don't shoot the birds yet. The prohibitory law does not expire in Warren county till Nov. 1st. If you are caught shooting birds before then you are likely to be punished for it.

Mr. J. H. Jeffress, of Palmer's Springs, Va., was in town last Saturday and took back with him Mrs. A. V. Fleming, who is still out there with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Jeffress, who is ill.

Don't forget the Confederate reunion and picnic here on next Tuesday, Oct. 16th. Every body come and bring a well filled basket with you. Hon. Claude Kitchin, Messrs. Tasker Polk, John H. Kerr and others will make speeches.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to any Druggist and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

Mr. R. T. Arrington, of Petersburg, Va., well and favorably known by most of our readers, died at his home in Petersburg last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers and Capt. W. J. White, of our town attended the burial last Saturday. Mrs. Rogers remained in Petersburg this week.

The Tar River Baptist Association is in session this week with the church at Cornuth, Franklin county, N. C. Rev. T. J. Taylor is attending. He carried Mr. J. W. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder, out with him last Tuesday. Several passed through town Tuesday morning from the northern section of the county on their way to the Association.

While so much is being said about the grave of Nathaniel Macon—and justly so—yet there is another neglected and almost forgotten grave of a distinguished Warren countyman that ought to be looked after. Gov. Turner's grave is on the Bronson place near town, in the old Park's burying grounds. There are men now living who remember seeing the body of this distinguished son of Warren buried there. Mr. William Watson, of Henderson, witnessed the burial. It does seem to us that this spot should be properly located and marked. Let's have some one to look after it.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at a drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c. per box.

See administrator's notice by C. S. Tharrington.

A good many teachers were on examination this week.

Mr. A. B. Casey, a former Warrentonian, was here yesterday.

Rev. D. L. Earnhardt, of Ridgeway, was a pleasant caller at The Record's office on Wednesday.

Register of Deeds, J. A. Dowlin, is confined to his room with a severe attack of sore throat.

Mr. G. O. Gregory, of the University of Va., spent last Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. C. E. Jackson.

Another new post office has been established in the county. This time it is "Jack," at King's old store in Riverton township.

Mr. J. E. Clark and niece, Miss Willis Hargrove, of Washington, N. C., are here on a visit to Mrs. V. L. Pendleton.

Bring your baskets along early next Tuesday and leave them at Centre warehouse with M. B. Alston and W. A. Overby.

Mr. M. J. Hawkins, of Ridgeway, was in town two or three days this week on county business. Work will soon begin upon the jail and court house.

Several of our people, including ladies, gentlemen, boys and girls, took in the Richmond Carnival this week. Not knowing all who went we refrain from mentioning any.

Mrs. Sallie J. Foote left us last Monday for Wake Forest, where she will reside for sometime. We shall miss her greatly, and hate very much to part with her, and we all hope to have her come back to us as soon as possible.

Miss Helen Williams, of Louisburg, was a pleasant visitor in our town a few days this week, guest of her cousin, Miss Bessie Lee Taylor. Miss Williams' solo singing in the Baptist church here last Sunday was excellent and greatly appreciated and enjoyed by our people. Come again, Miss Helen.

Mr. J. W. Bailey staid over here from Sunday and delivered a highly instructive and interesting lecture to the High School students in the school auditorium on Monday night. A good many of our citizens attended, and all speak in the highest terms of Mr. Bailey's lecture. His theme was "Making a Career."

Warrenton county's famous apple—the Gully—is very scarce this year. Mr. L. N. Watson, who is most excellent authority on such things, says that the original gully apple tree was first found and cultivated in Warren county near Axtell. The apple first discovered by a Mr. Davis, growing in a gully—hence its name—and they really grow better and taste better around Axtell to-day than any other place on the globe—so far as we know.

Doubtless it will be a surprise to his many friends to know that Mr. E. T. Rodwell, formerly of this place, but now of Richmond, Va., was married last Wednesday, Oct. 9th, 1901. His bride is Miss Lelia Drake, of Cold Water, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Rodwell will visit Chicago, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and other points, and then make Richmond their home. Our very best wishes are extended them.

We acknowledge receipt of a neat invitation to the marriage of Miss Mary Beaufort Davis, the beautiful and highly accomplished daughter of our esteemed countryman, Mr. Geo. W. Davis, of Aroola, to Mr. St. Leon Scull, a lawyer of prominence in Windsor, N. C. The marriage will take place in the M. E. Church, at Aroola, this county, on Wednesday, Oct. 16th, 1901, at 8 o'clock p. m. A distinguished part of ladies and gentlemen from all parts of the State will witness the marriage of this very popular couple.

Our prize watermelon contest is closed. It was not a very successful one this year nor was it at all remunerative to the editor. However, we will fulfill our part of the contract. Mr. Peter F. King, of Oakville, gets the first prize, a year's subscription to The Record and Home & Farm, with a melon weighing 65 pounds. Mr. G. W. Davis, of Aroola, gets the second prize, a year's subscription to The Record, with a melon weighing 58 pounds. Mr. W. W. White, of Manson, gets the third prize, six months subscription to The Record, with a melon weighing 55 pounds. The fourth prize was not taken.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all Druggists.

Our military company were out on drill last Wednesday. Capt. Price will have his company out in full force at the old soldiers' reunion and picnic next Tuesday.

We take pleasure in giving space to Congressman Kitchin's letter and direction about obtaining a free rural delivery mail route. He is anxious to serve his constituents in every way possible and will help you in this matter.

Mr. A. F. Ebrame, our popular Co. Surveyor, was in to see us this week, and is complaining greatly because of the fact that he is compelled to keep bachelor's quarters. Girls, such a nice fellow ought not to be allowed to have to do this way.

Miss Bettie S. Hall left us last Saturday for Elm City, N. C., where she has charge of the central telephone office there. We shall miss Miss Bettie and commend her to the people of Elm City. Miss Lou Hall has charge of the central office here.

The sanitary committee of the county is to be commended for the regulations they adopted last Monday in regard to the sale of second hand clothing &c. in the county. Read the resolutions in the proceedings of the Board of county commissioners printed in another column.
