This year there is to be an exhibition of American Industries in Crystal Palace, London, England. The Anglo-American Press, of London, Dec. 7th, 1901, has a superb write-up of this enterprise and we note with pride that a Warren county man is one of the most prominent promoters of this great exhibition. It is Mr. Phos. L. Field, who is an honored and active member of the Advisory Board of this American Exhibition in the Crystal Palace. The Press give a most complimentary notice of Mr. Field with a two column picture of this successful son of old Warrenton.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by all Druggists.

We join his host of friends here in extending sincere condolences to the bereaved wife, daughter and son.

Obituary.

John Limer was born April 29th, 1839, in North Nibley, a village in Gloucestershire, England, and died at his residence near Warrenton, N. C., Dec. 23d, 1901.

He came to North Carolina in Nov. 1873 and by dint of hard work, diligent attention to business and habits of thrift and industry accumulated a good property and was regarded one of the best farmers of the county. He reared a large family of children, thirteen in number, ten of whom followed him to his grave in the burial ground at Providence, M. E. Church. Dwelling in different States and countries, all have reached a useful and respected manhood and womanhood.

The writer visited Bro. Limer several times during his last illness. His thoughts were naturally upon what was before him and how he had spent his past life. He said he had not lived as he ought and asked if then he should turn to God with the confessions of his misdeeds and beg that he be not rejected was there aught in His word to assure him that he would be heard. The plain, sweet promises of God's own word were read and prayer was offered. Light seemed to break into his soul. Among the last words we heard from him were these, I do not fear to die as I once did. I believe Christ has forgiven my sins and I trust Him for the salvation of my soul.

If I ask Him to receive me
Will He say me nay?
Not till earth, not till heaven
Pass away. D.

FISHING CREEK ITEMS.

We have had some delightful weather for winter but the cool wind has struck us again.

There will be considerable changes in our community this year. A good many are already moving and trying to get in a more prosperous business. Several of our young men speak of leaving home and friends to seek their fortunes in other parts. We hope they will succeed.

Our accomplished teacher, Miss Mary Gardner, has returned to her school at Marmaduke after spending a pleasant Xmas with friends at home.

The prayer meetings at Marmaduke have been suspended indefinitely on account of bad weather.

Hog-killing is over and people are ready to commence work.

Grass widows are numerous in our community—there are five. Your Sister is one and of the number and we all enjoy our love letters.

Mr. J. S. Powell has returned to his place of business in Norfolk after spending the holidays at home.

Mrs. D. F. Crinkley made a short visit to her Pa last week. SISTER.

A Card of Thanks.

DEAR RECORD:—Please allow us space through your columns to return our heartfelt thanks to your readers for the many kindnesses they showed us during our stay in Warrenton. We cannot hope that our lot will ever be cast among a kinder people. From the day we reached your hospitable town till our sad departure, there was one continued stream of kindness setting out way. Though, while in your midst we were called to pass through the "deep waters" our stay among you will ever abide a sweet memory. The holiest experience of our lives was on that beautiful morning the 11th. of Dec., when we accompanied our dear boy down to the very brink of the river, and heard his earnest "amen" to our parting word, "yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Then we kissed him "good by" and tried submissively to commit his spirit into the arms of his Saviour and his body to the care of our friends.

To our friends who have been called to pass through a similar experience since then, we extend our deep sympathy, and ever pray God's choice blessings upon all. Sincerely,
B. E. CLARKE AND WIFE.
