Commissioners' court next Monday.

Mr. John G. White spent a few days here this week.
Mr. W. K. Clements, of Shocco, is a visitor in town.
Miss Bettie K. Parker is on a visit to relatives in town.
Col. F. A. Macon, of Henderson, was here last Monday.
The Record's subscription list is gradually increasing.
See local adv. by John S. Andrews, offering corn and fodder for sale.
See notice of several important land sales by W. J. Calvert, trustee.
Stop borrowing your neighbors' paper. The Record costs only $1.00 per year.
The warehouse report that about 92 per cent. of the tobacco crop has been sold.

Col. W. T. Hughs, a prominent tobaccoist, of Louisburg, was in town last Tuesday.
Mr. Willie Pinnell and sister, Miss Lucy, of Louisburg, were visitors in town last Saturday.
Dr. Burbank and wife, who have been here for the past few weeks left last Tuesday for Littleton.
Mr. M. P. Burwell returned last Saturday from a hunting trip in the eastern part of the State.
Mr. Z. B. Cole, of Richmond, Va., who is now connected with the S. A. L. Ry., was in town last Tuesday.
Miss Nettie W. Gardner, one of our most popular young ladies, has returned from an extensive visit in the county to the delight of her many friends.

Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, of Weldon, is in the county, in the Churchhill neighborhood visiting relatives. We would be glad to have her visit Warrenton before returning home.
Mrs. J. W. Harris died at her husband's, near Vaughan, last Sunday night, at a good ripe old age. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband. Mrs. Harris died of pneumonia.

On account of the very bad weather the book club was not organized last Tuesday night. We have no doubt but what there would have been a large attendance so there will be a meeting for the aforesaid purpose next Monday night at the residence of Mrs. V. L. Pendleton.
We would like to see the newspaper borrower; the man who studies how to get a newspaper without paying for it; the postmaster who violates the law and allows customers to read other peoples' papers, classed with the anarchists as enemies to the commonwealth and abolished by statute.

The old John R. Johnson shoe shop has been sold to Mr. Jerre Draper, who has already begun tearing it down. This is one of the old land marks of Warren County. The old Bate county court house was sold and the timber was brought to Warrenton out of which this old shoe shop was built. In this old court house, Chief Justice Marshall held court and many other noted personages were known to frequent its haunts.

Last Monday morning Dr. M. P. Perry, of Macon, who is a fine shot as well as an excellent physician, saw four wild turkeys near the public road leading from Macon to Churchill. The Dr. borrowed a muzzle loading gun from a colored man who lives near where he saw the turkeys, and went after the fowls. He got in shooting distance, took dead aim, pulled the trigger—the gun snapped, and the good doctor took the gun down from his shoulder while the gun was stowing and stowing, and off the gun went, right-into the turkeys away and blowing powder into the Dr.'s, that it was amusing to see the Dr.'s disgust. We left him in the road declaring that muzzle loading guns were not worth twenty five cents a piece.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pain in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pain in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contracts any tendency of a cold to ward pneumonia. Sold by all Druggists.

See local adv. by the Warrenton Furniture Co.

Col. T. L. H. Young, of Dunn, was here yesterday on a business trip.
Mr. E. T. Rodwell, of Richmond, Va., is in the city looking after his customers.

Special attention is called to the new advertisement of The Allen & Fleming Company. Be sure and look it up.

Mrs. Peter Arrington, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, left last Wednesday for her home in Durham.

Superior court will convene here next Monday week. Judge Brown presiding. Both criminal and civil cases will be heard.

The North Carolina Dental Society will meet in Raleigh on the 19th, 20th, and 21st of June next. Our townsman Dr. Rob. S. Booth is on the committee to prepare a paper on aethodantha.

A light drizzling rain that froze into icicles made slippery the side walks and many of our "most dignified" have taken their measurements on the ground. The thermometer registered 13 degrees above zero Wednesday.

The Best Prescription for Malaria, Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chills Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

John Wanamaker says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to building up a town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor go where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town so well as a paper well patronized, and its power should be appreciated. The man who overlooks his town paper injures himself by injuring his town and townsmen."

NOTEBOOK ITEMS.

INEZ SQUIBS.

Mr. Hicks and family have recently moved to the Buxton place. Mr. H. is a native of this county.

Mr. W. H. Dameron says he worked insurance for his father last year for wages to begin with, then on commission and that his part of coms. was one hundred and forty dollars over salary, besides his father gave him a check for one hundred dollars recently.
Dr. T. B. Williams with Mr. Edward Collins, of Ridge way, spent last Saturday night with the Damerons, also our new pencher, Mr. Chedda.
There was a nice social gathering at Mr. Geo. W. Atkinson's hospitable home last Friday night. They report every thing pleasant and lovely.
Mr. J. A. Dameron is quite unwell at this writing (Monday).
Mr. Louis F. Thompson and family occupy the Mrs. Kate A. Williams' place this year.
Miss Pettie K. Williams, with Mrs. White and family, have moved to her new house near Mr. P. K. Williams.

See local adv. by the Warrenton Furniture Co.
Mr. William Watson is dead. He died at the residence of his son-in-law, Prof. J. T. Alderman, of Henderson, on the 22nd of Jan. 1902. If he had lived until the 28th of this month he would have been 88 years of age. Six daughters and two sons, and two son-in-laws and a host of relatives and friends are deeply bereaved on account of the death of this good man.
I regard Mr. Watson as one of the purest minded men I ever knew. His conversation was chaste and pure. I was intimately acquainted with him, and I never heard him utter a word that would not have been perfectly proper in the presence of ladies.
He never said anything against any one—even those that wronged him. Others might speak against them, but he would not. He was not only an honest man, he was kind and merciful.
He was a public spirited man, and was a great deal, well informed, and was a man of fine judgement. All who knew him esteemed him. It could not be otherwise; for he was a good neighbor, a true friend, and a lover of mankind.
He never united with the church, but he regularly worshipped with the congregation at Brown's Baptist Church. He and I frequently talked on the subject of religion in a personal way, and I am perfectly satisfied that he was a child of God, and that he has joined his wife and other loved ones in our Father's House.
I have lost one of my very best friends. Only a little while and we will meet again. T. J. T.

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day.
A Disagreeable Neighbor.
"I notice a coolness between you and Mrs. Nixdore. What is the trouble?"
"She sent her little boy over yesterday for a s-pladder we borrowed of her two years ago. The artful woman let it stay here all that time so she could send for it some day and make me feel cheap."—Chicago Tribune.
