Miss Eliza Egerton has been delighting her many friends in town and county by her presence, the past week or ten days.

The work Supt. of Roads Beardley has done on the roads near Axtell is splendid. The improvements are good and pleasant to the eye.

Her many friends and the trading public generally will be glad to know that Miss Mamie Watson is back at her post at the Allen & Fleming Co's. store.

The concert to raise funds to buy an organ for the M. E. Church promises to be something real good. It will be given to-night in the auditorium of the High School building.

Three of the Warren Guards' best soldiers went to Charleston, S. C. this week with the Vance Guards. They were Messrs. Charlie Ford, Charlie Halthcock and Welden Hall.

Another railroad wreck this week at Manson. Seven freight cars destroyed by fire. No one hurt seriously. Our good friend Mr. Frank Rose informs us that the wreck burnt up a well and all the water therein.

In a private letter from Dr. Burbank he tells of his great loss and sorrow he sustained on Easter Sunday in the sudden death of his wife at Concord, S. C. Dr. Burbank and lady spent several weeks here the first of this year and made many friends who sympathize with him. Mrs. Burbank was buried at Cheraw, N. C., her native place, and the Dr. is there now, resting.

Last week we chronicled the death of Mr. Geo. W. Rooker, of Fishing Creek township. The sad intelligence has reached us that when the neighbors returned from the interment of Mr. Rooker, whose remains were carried to Halifax county for interment, they found Mrs. Rooker dead. This is sad indeed and our deepest sympathies go out to the orphaned children of this deceased couple.

The ever progressive News & Observer, of Raleigh, came to us the 8th. inst. in another mammoth edition, 49 pages, elaborate illustrated and a thing of beauty and joy forever. The progress of N. C. during the last ten years is set forth very pointedly and getting out these large editions so frequently here of late that we all stand in wonder and admiration at the energy and push put forth by this most excellent daily. Hurray, for the News & Observer and its talented editor, Josephus Daniels.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

Books of the "Book Exchange" will be exchanged on the 15th and 20th of each month, No. 1 sending No. 2, No. 2 to No. 3 &c.—No. 34 will send to No. 1. They will meet the first Monday in May at the residence of Mrs. Pendleton.

Our Inez correspondent leaves us in the dark as to what he meant in last week's paper by saying that the Co. Supt. of Public Schools' visit down there last week left two or three girls dead. We are not aware of the fact that we killed any one; on the contrary the girls were so nice and kind expressing their pleasure at having us with them that we were utterly surprised to learn from our correspondent that such woeful results followed our visit. Explain yourself, Inez.

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Virginia Mand Hawkins, sister of the Misses Hawkins who are running the most excellent, Miss Hawkins' school of our town, died suddenly. Her remains were buried in Fairview cemetery Tuesday morning, Rev. Mr. Joyner, of Littleton, conducting the burial services. Mr. Thos. W. Hawkins, of Charlotte, and Mr. Joe Hawkins, of Vance county, brothers of the deceased, together with other relatives and friends from a distance were present at the burial.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked, "In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to pills?" Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more mild and gentle in effect and more reliable as they can always be depended upon. Then they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by all Druggists.

Even the people who have money to burn can't take it with them when they die.

Death of Mrs. Overby.

Mrs. Ann M. Overby, beloved wife of Mr. J. B. Overby, died at the residence of her son in law, Mr. J. Wiley Harris, on the 3rd day of April 1902 in the sixty second year of her age.

She was the eldest daughter of Henry and Martha Overby, of Mecklenburg county, Va. She was one of twelve children, only three of whom remain on earth—Mrs. Alcot, Clarksville, Va., and two brothers, one in Georgia and the other in Kentucky.

She was united in marriage to John B. Overby on the 3rd day of May 1860. To them were born six children, four sons and two daughters, all of whom survive, except one daughter who died in Dallas, Texas, about six years ago.

Mrs. Overby was converted and united with Buffalo Baptist Church when she was about fourteen years of age, and continued a devout christian to the time of her death. Almost her last words were "I am going home to die no more." Her sickness was long and painful, but her end was peace.

To her sons, and Mrs. J. Wiley Harris, her daughter, and her broken hearted husband, the loving sympathy of the community is extended.
She was a sincere christian, a good wife and mother, and a kind neighbor. Those who were intimate with her knew her as one of God's jewels.
