Mrs. Mary Collins, of South Hill, Va., spent this week here with Mrs. J. C. Hardy.

Mrs. Geo. W. Alston, Jr., and family returned from a pleasant visit to Centerville last Thursday.

In Smith Creek township the name of A. J. Meeder instead of J. A. Meeder should have been given as poll holder.

Miss Bessie Taylor returned from Baltimore on Tuesday. Her assortment of millinery contains some beautiful creations.

Miss Alice Gregory has gotten back after a trip to Baltimore in quest of the newest shapes and styles in fall millinery.

Mr. Charles Henry Peete has returned in Charlottesville, Va., to continue his studies at the University of Virginia.

Miss Lucy Watson and Mary King, of Astell, were in town Friday. Miss Mary spent this week with her grandfather, Mr. H. R. Hunter, Sr.

Among the visiting lawyers attending court this week we noticed: Messrs. E. M. Pittman, T. T. Hicks, S. G. Deibel, H. Alston, David Bell, and Judge T. N. Hill.

Mr. Samuel A. Williams has gone to Richmond, Va., to take a course at the Massey Business College. Like a true son of Warren he ordered THE RECORD sent to him. We wish Mr. Williams much success in his studies.

Mrs. T. M. Caserley came home from the North yesterday accompanied by Miss Nell McAllister, an artistic trimmer. Mrs. Caserley has purchased a fine stock of millinery. The announcement of her opening will be made later.

Because Prof. John Graham threatened to whip him, Reuben Radtke, aged eleven, ran away from school last Friday afternoon. The Chief of Police and a few citizens scoured the town until a late hour, when he was found in the yard of his home curled up in a dog house fast asleep.

The Rev. B. S. Bronson was taken suddenly ill last Sunday and was unable to fill his appointments at the Episcopal Church. Mr. W. G. Rogers officiated at the morning services very acceptably. There was no night service. We are glad to learn that Mr. Bronson has completely recovered.

On Friday morning, just before day break Mrs. W. E. Johnson passed quietly away. The funeral services were held in the Baptist Church Saturday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. Notwithstanding the inconvenient hour, many of the business friends of Mr. Johnson were in the sympathetic crowd that gathered to pay their last respects to the dead. As the body was brought slowly down the church aisle the choir sang the first stanza of "Asleep in Jesus," and after it had been placed on the stools in front of the rostrum, the Rev. C. N. Wharton, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church led in prayer. Then the choir sang the rest of the hymn. Mr. Wharton read the 90th Psalm followed by the Rev. E. H. Davis, Pastor of the Methodist Church, who read 1 Cor. 15:20-50. The choir then sang the favorite hymn of the deceased—"O Paradise!" The Rev. T. J. Taylor made a few appropriate remarks from the text found in Matt. 14:12—"and went and told Jesus." Miss Ethel Allen sang as a solo "I must tell Jesus," the choir joining in the chorus. Mr. Taylor then made a very fervent prayer for the bereaved family and pronounced the benediction. The choir concluded the services with "Lead Kindly Light" and the body was removed. Interment was in Fair View Cemetery where the casket was placed in a cemented grave.

The Red X.

The Red X is put at the head of the first column on the first page when your subscription expires. It is merely a reminder that your time is out and no sensible subscriber gets mad over it. We know that it is very easy to overlook the fact that your subscription has run out and hence we call your attention to it. If you paper is Red Xed this week we would appreciate a prompt renewal. Money is more plentiful now and we would like to handle a little.

No Remedy Equals it.

Dr. C. Lutz, of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been a druggist and chemist for forty one years, says: "I can honestly say that I have never made or sold a Rheumatic remedy that gives such a large percentage of cures as URICOSOL. It also pleasantly builds up the general system. Every sufferer should try it and not be deluded into trying other things said to be 'just as good.' Druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

Water Melon Contest.

This contest has closed and the following were awarded the prizes: G. W. Davis, Arcola, 55 pounds. R. C. Twitty, Warrenton, 50 pounds. C. M. White, Manson, 49 pounds. W. W. White, Manson, 43 pounds.

We thank our friends for the enthusiasm displayed in this contest. We have credited the above with the subscriptions due them and hope they will enjoy the THE RECORD as much as we enjoyed the melons.

We are planning another contest the conditions of which will be announced later.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long siege like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe, sure, acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it.

Not Doomed for Life.

"I was treated for three years by good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, McConnellsville, O., "for piles, and fistula, but when all failed, Backlen's Arnica Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures burrs, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, eruptions, salt rheum, piles or no pay. 25c at C. A. Thomas' drug store.

A man has to steal things some times that he has no use for, just to keep his hand in practise.—Charles Alston.

Cured his Rheumatism.

Mr. Jno. Chick, of Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I feel very grateful to you for inducing me to use your Rheumatic Cure—URICOSOL. I had suffered intensely for two years, using all kinds of remedies, internal and external, without the least benefit. URICOSOL cured me."

It also cures all Bladder and Kidney troubles caused by uric acid. Send stamps for book of particulars to the Lamar & Rankin Drug Co., Atlanta, Ga., or URICOSOL Chemical Co., Los Angeles, Cal. Druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

"I may be yaller and covered with fleas, But my pants, thank the Lord, don't bag at the knees." A pup's soliloquy.

The Tobacco Market.

Tobacco has been coming in right along. The prospects for a fine crop are very good, and the farmers say that the prices are very satisfactory. The low grades, which are all that has been brought in, command unexpected prices.

Approaching Marriage.

Mrs. Minnie G. Foote, of Wilson, announces the engagement of her daughter, Minnie Gertrude, to Mr. Alex. Perrow, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va. Miss Foote formerly lived in Warrenton where she has a host of friends. We extend hearty congratulations in advance.

Superior Court.

Superior Court convened here Monday morning, Geo. A. Jones, of Macen county, Judge Presiding. The following gentlemen were drawn for the Grand Jury:

- R. B. Thornton, foreman, W. B. Fleming, J. T. Hattcock, C. H. Buchanan, J. J. Dickerson, J. W. Gupton, John W. Fleming, J. J. Tarwater, J. W. Clements, N. M. Jones, J. B. Wiggins, L. C. Perkinson, Jr., E. P. Fitts, A. A. Speed, T. H. Cheek, A. A. Harris, J. H. Davis, J. W. Hudson.

The charge delivered by Judge Jones was excellent. It had a true, manly ring and urged nobility of purpose, courage of conviction, and good moral character upon the citizens of the county as well as the gentlemen of the jury. Better order was preserved than at any other term of court, although it looked like his honor was a little too severe.

Court adjourned yesterday.

Tax Notice.

The Tax Book for 1902 has been placed in my hands for collection. Crops are early this year, therefore I expect an early collection.

Come and pay your taxes!
Respectfully,
R. E. Davis, Sheriff.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

"The faults of our brothers we write upon the sand; Their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory."

The Best Prescription for Malaria, Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

It has been computed that the cost of transporting crops from the farm to the railroad station is greater than the cost of railroad transportation. The reason for this may be easily assigned—poor roads.

GROSSMANN'S PATENT WRITING RING

THE most important improvement of the age in the art of penmanship makes the poorest writer a splendid penman in a few weeks by the use of this ring. Endorsed by prominent College Presidents and Boards of Education in Europe and America. Sample dozen assorted sizes sent post paid for $1.00. Single sample, 35c. When ordering a single ring, state whether for man, woman, or child.
