LOCAL ITEMS

There will be no town election this year.

Pay your poll tax before to-morrow week.

Come to the temperance rally to-morrow.

Miss Sue C. White is visiting at Franklin, Va.

Mrs. J. B. Mangum is visiting her sister near Louisburg.

See new adv. of the Citizens Bank, of Henderson, in this issue.

See notice by P. P. Hunter, executor of H. B. Hunter, deceased.

About all the public schools of the County have closed their spring session.

Mr. W. W. Caserley, of the S. A. L. Ry., is here this week with his parents.

See notice of land sale by Sol Fleming, commissioner. Pittman & Kerr, Attys.

Mr. S. T. Green and mother, Mrs. M. A. B. Green, are visiting in Hamlet.

We invite your attention to the adv. of Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Co., in this issue.

Polk Miller kept his audience convinced with laughter for a full hour.—New York Tribune.

Miss Mary Gardner, of Churchhill, spent Saturday and Sunday here with relatives and friends.

Rev. C. N. Wharton is attending the Albemarle Presbytery, in session at New Bern this week.

Mr. F. E. Wilcox, of Norfolk, Va., was here this week attending the burial of his mother, Mrs. M. J. Wilcox.

Dr. E. M. Gayle, of Philadelphia, Pa., was called here Sunday on account of the death of Mrs. M. J. Wilcox.

How about that poll tax? If you do not pay it by the 1st day of May you will be detained from voting this year.

Your attention is called to the new adv. of The Cable Co. on the 4th page. If you are contemplating buying a piano call at their store to day.

The town was in total darkness Sunday night—and a street lamp was burning, and those of our people who ventured to church had a dark time getting home.

Mr. M. A. Holton, of Manchester, N. H., and Mr. Russell F. Holton, of Westham, Mass., were here this week to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. M. J. Wilcox.

For the benefit of those wishing to announce themselves candidates for the various offices, the Record has decided to cut the price one half for such notices. Now come on boys.

Among the graduates in Medicine from Shaw University, of Raleigh, N. C., last week, we notice the name of John Owen Plummer, who is a son of our townsman, Jno. S. Plummer?

There was a light frost Sunday morning, which damaged early vegetables some. It is thought that the peaches have been damaged by the cold and frost, but not destroyed entirely.

Many of our readers will learn with sorrow of the death of Mr. Louis Cole, the 19 year old son of Rev. Jno. N. Cole. He died of heart failure in Rockingham on Thursday, April 7th.

Mr. J. B. Miller has resigned his position as Superintendent of the Furniture factory, and has returned to his home in Philadelphia. His successor at the factory has not been elected yet.

The Musical at the auditorium last Friday night was good and highly enjoyed by those whose pleasure it was to attend. We understand a nice little sum was realized for the benefit of the M. E. Church organ fund.

A Spruill, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee for Warren County, has issued a call for the Republican county convention to meet here on the 3rd day of May. The district convention meets in Weldon on May 6th.

Rev. J. J. Marshall, of Vaughan, was in town last Sunday and preached an interesting sermon at the Baptist church Sunday night. Mr. Marshall is a full graduate of the Blind Institution at Raleigh. He is now living at his home near Vaughan, and preaching whenever an opportunity presents itself.

"I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets with most satisfactory results," says Mrs. F. L. Phelps, Houston, Texas. For indigestion, biliousness and constipation these tablets are most excellent. Sold by All Druggists.

Mr. H. J. White spent a day in Raleigh this week.

Mr. J. Alex. Ham, of Inez, died Monday, after a short illness.

Tell your neighbor about the farmers' meeting to be held here Saturday, April 30th.

The Democratic Executive Committee met yesterday and decided to call the county convention on June 16th. The primaries will be held on Saturday, June 11th.

The entertainments given by Miss Eva Marie Miller are refined, instructive, up-to-date, and embrace the best from the field of literature. Don't fail to hear her at the Auditorium Monday night.

Mr. J. B. Maassenburg, of Goldsboro, is here on a visit. Mr. Maassenburg is in the employ of the American Tobacco Co., and tells us that he has been transferred to Durham, and will go there in a few days.

Polk Miller and his "Plantation Darkies" will give an entertainment at the High School Auditorium Friday night, April 29th. This is one of the best entertainments ever given here and you should not miss it. Get your ticket early.

The Warrenton High School baseball team went to Wise Saturday and played their second game with Wise. At the close of the ninth inning the score stood 4 to 4 and so they had to play the tenth inning and the Wise boys made one run which gave them the game.

Mr. Jno. O. Drake, one of our best and oldest citizens died at his home here yesterday evening. He had been confined to his room for several weeks and his death was not unexpected to his family. He was a good and useful man and will be greatly missed in the town and county. A more extended notice will appear later.

The following names from Warren County have been drawn as jurors for the spring term of the United States district court to be convened in Raleigh on May 23-d. A. S. Webb, Warren Plains, T. R. Blackwell, Brodie, Stephen W. Crowder, Ridgeway, A. L. Pope, Vaughan, W. W. Temple, Odell.

Eva Marie Miller will give one of her Artistic Recitals in the High School Auditorium, Monday night, April 26th, Admission 25 and 15 cents. Miss Miller is a reader, entertainer, impersonator and monologist of a wide reputation, and those who fail to hear her Monday night will miss a treat.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. M. J. Wilcox which occurred at her residence in Warrenton last Saturday morning. The funeral took place at the Episcopal church Monday at 11 o'clock and the remains were taken to Fairview cemetery and laid to rest.

For many years Mrs. Wilcox has been an important factor in the intellectual, social, and religious life of the community. We shall sadly miss her, and trust that God will comfort her bereaved family.

Among the out of town friends and relatives attending the funeral and burial of Mrs. M. J. Wilcox Monday, we noticed the following: Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh, Miss Mary Bullock, Nottush, Mrs. J. H. Shaw, Bracy, Va., Mr. B. Watkins Leigh, Norfolk, Va., Mrs. R. H. Norwood, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Poulton, Henderson, Mr. M. J. Hawkins, Miss Janet Hawkins, and Miss Lucy Edwards, Ridgeway, Messrs. Frank P. and D. W. Hunter, Raleigh.

Polk Miller and his colored quartet will give an entertainment in the Auditorium Friday night, April 29th. This quartet was organized by Mr. Miller for use in his entertainment of "Old Times Down South." They are not such as are seen in vaudeville performances, and are not of the cake walking dade variety, but the real thing. They imitate nobody. As to their voices, they are the sweet, though unadorned results of nature, producing a harmony unequalled by the professional and because natural, go straight to the hearts of the people. Doors open at 7:30 and exercises begin at 8:15. Buy your tickets early.

The closing exercises of the Warrenton Public School, taught by Mrs. M. C. Aycock, took place at the school house Wednesday evening. Quite a number of the patrons and friends of the school gathered to witness the entertainment, which consisted of recitations, songs, dialogues &c. We think the children all acquitted themselves well and showed that they had been well trained. Mrs. Aycock is one of the best teachers in the County, has a large school and is doing good work, but there is just one thing that the Record wishes to join the patrons in making a request to the Committee and asking that they provide her with a better house and more attractive location. This must be done before another session begins, and the thing to do is to start about it in time.

Notice of Farmers' Meeting.

We are requested by Mr. J. B. Davis, of Warren Plains, to announce that there will be a farmers' meeting in the court house here on Saturday, April 30th. Col. Jno. S. Cunningham, J. Bryant Grimes and J. O. W. Gravely and others from a distance are expected to be present and address the meeting. Among the home speakers, Mr. Tasker Polk has been invited and will be present and deliver an address. This calling together of the farmers is of vital importance to them, and it is to be hoped that all who can possibly do so will come and bring some body else with them. Don't forget the date, Saturday, April 30th, and be sure to tell your neighbor about this meeting.

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Bowel Complaints in Children.

"We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Nederland, Texas. "We have given it to all of our children. We have used other medicines for the same purpose, but never found anything to equal Chamberlain's. If you will use it as directed it will always cure." For sale by All Druggists.

Public Sale.

By virtue of the authority conferred on me in a certain deed of trust executed to me by Burwell Brodie and Robert Brodie, his wife on the 10th day of December, 1891, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Warren County, N. C., in Book 65 on page 68 et seq., I will on Monday the 26th day of May 1904, sell at public auction, at the court house door in Warrenton, N. C., to the highest bidder for cash, the following real and personal property, viz: One-half (1/2) undivided interest in a certain tract of land in said Warren County, beginning at a stub in Geo. Williams' line to Ellis' North East corner, running N. 4 E. in House tract, Ellis' land, thence N. 80 1/2 W., to the branch (said branch being the dividing line between Over's claim and Alfred Wilson's land and the tract known as the Burwell Brodie land) thence down said branch to Ellis' line, thence with Ellis' line to the point of beginning, containing in the entire tract 30 acres, more or less, and also one one-horse wagon. Said sale will be made to satisfy the debt secured by the said deed of trust, to which reference is hereby made. This notice is hereby made.
This the 1st day of April, 1904.
