There will be an important meeting, in the interest of the cotton seed oil mill, held in the court house to-morrow at 2 o'clock. We urge upon every body that is interested in the building of this mill to attend the meeting.

The business men of Warrenton are urged to attend the meeting to be held in the court house tomorrow by those interested in the building of the cotton seed oil mill. As to where the mill is to be located depends much on the interest our business men take in this matter.

The farmers meeting last Saturday was not largely attended, owing to the good weather for farm work. Those present took right much interest in the discussion of building the cotton seed oil mill. Messrs. P. J. Macon, Jno. Graham, and J. A. Dameron were added to the committee to solicit stock and especially to see the people of Warrenton and to see what interest they would take in the establishment of the mill. There will be another meeting to-morrow evening at 2 o'clock at which time some final action will be taken. We urge everybody to be present. The Record is very anxious to see this mill built. There has already been about $1100.00 in stock subscribed by our citizens and a gentleman outside of the county says that he will take $5000.00. This only leaves $3000.00 to be raised and the mill is assured. This must be done.

Tragic Death of Mr. Boyd.

Our town and community was thrown into deep sorrow late Wednesday evening by the announcement of the tragic and untimely death of Mr. Willie L. Boyd, at Scotts, about ten miles from here, where he was engaged in loading cars with logs. From the best information that can be obtained, it seems that Mr. Boyd was standing near a flat car, loaded with logs, when the arms that holds them in place, gave away, and buried Mr. Boyd beneath a load of logs. His body was soon recovered, but death resulted in few minutes. His remains were brought to his home in Warrenton where they remained until this morning when they will be taken to Tabernacle church, in Vance county, near the home of his birth, and there laid to rest.

Mr. Boyd was about 43 years old. He had engaged in the lumber and timber business nearly all his life. He leaves a wife and two children, a mother and several brothers and sisters, among them our townsman, Mr. R. B. Boyd. Mr. Boyd was a kind and agreeable companion and made friends wherever he went.

The death of Mr. Boyd has cast a gloom over our entire community and the deepest sympathy goes out to the sorely bereaved family.

Memorial Day.

A goodly number of citizens, under the leadership of Mrs. Lucy Polk and Mrs. V. L. Pendleton, assembled at Fairview cemetery at half past four o'clock on the 10th, inst., for the purpose of decorating with flowers, the graves of Confederate soldiers. The Confederate flag and the Confederate battle flag waved from the monument. Not only the graves of Confederate soldiers were decorated, but loving hands placed floral offerings on the graves of all the dead.

The services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Taylor, who made a few brief remarks with reference to the object of the meeting, and Rev. C. W. Robinson led in prayer. Mr. Tasker Polk delivered an appropriate poem of his own composition, entitled, "The Soldier of the World and the Soldier of the Cross." The audience greatly appreciated the poem, which was indeed a rare good one and gives us additional reason to be proud of our gifted townsman. Rev. J. E. Poindexter delivered a brief but interesting address. Mr. J. A. Dameron led the audience in service of song. After the benediction a few of those present repaired to the old cemetery and decorated some of the graves.

Going.

Mr. W. H. Hall, one of Charlotte's all-around good citizens, who for eight years served the city as street commissioner, will leave, the latter part of this week, for Warrenton, Warren county, to accept a job as street commissioner of Warrenton. Mr. Hall is thoroughly posted on all up to date methods of macadamizing roads and streets, and is a mover when it comes to the matter of work. The worst we can say of Mr. Hall is that this city will lose one of her best citizens and Warrenton will be ahead a good citizen. We regret to see Mr. Hall and his family leave here. As he is going we take pleasure in recommending them to the good people of Warrenton as a high-toned family.—The People's Paper of Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Hall arrived in Warrenton Tuesday and will enter upon his work Monday. The Record extends a hearty welcome to Mr. Hall.

The Pastors' Conference.

The Pastors' Conference met at the Methodist parsonage last Tuesday morning. Rev. J. E. Poindexter, O. W. Robertson and T. J. Taylor were present.

The pastors present reported pleasant and profitable services last Sunday. Matthew 5, 21, 22 was critically examined and ably discussed by Revs. Robinson and Poindexter.

The Conference will meet at 10 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday after the third Sunday in May, at the Episcopal rectory. Subject for discussion—The Principles by which we may determine the character of amusement, and decide as to whether christians may indulge in them or not.

All pastors in the county are cordially invited to the conference, and are earnestly urged to attend.
