Misses Sadie Johnson, Elizabeth and Marian Jones visited in Henderson this week.

Mrs. Hebernia Fleming and her two children, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dameron.

Miss Bessie Green, from Weldon, is here with her grand mother, Mrs. Mary Green.

See local adv. of Jno. K. Myers in this issue. He wants a married man to work on the farm.

Mr. De Leon Green, of Weldon, is here on a visit to his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Green.

There are a lot of bushes, weeds &c., on the back streets and vacant lots that ought to be cut down.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers are visiting Niagara Falls and other places of interest this month.

Miss Carrie Hudgins, a teacher at Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, is at home for the summer.

Mr. M. M. Pendleton, after a couple of weeks outing is back at his post of duty, Hunter Drug Co.

Mr. W. A. Overby, of Macon, has been appointed road supervisor to succeed E. L. Green, resigned.

The Katydid's were heard here for the first time on July 1st. This is several days earlier than usual.

Mr. Green says he is as anxious to get our street in order as we are, and will be as soon as it is possible.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Jackson and daughter, left Tuesday for Richmond and from thence to Norfolk and Va. Beach.

Mrs. Young and daughter, Miss Mary, from Louisburg, were visitors in the city this week. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miles.

Mr. E. J. Freeman and family left Saturday for Loco, Va., to spend some time. We wish them a pleasant visit and safe return.

The Cotton Growers Association will meet the 1st. Saturday in August.

Mr. J. W. Allen visited his sons in Louisburg and Youngsville the first of this week.

The County Commissioners were in session Monday for the purpose of receiving tax lists.

Warrenton was right well represented on the Conductor's excursion to Norfolk Tuesday.

T. C. Rodwell, Esq., kindly assisted our printer in getting up the paper last week. He has our thanks.

The RECORD is under obligations to Mr. S. E. Loyd, of Macon, for some nice cabbage sent us last Saturday.

"Neighbor" Loyd knows how to raise nice cabbage.

The RECORD is anxious to see a nice and respectable public school for Warrenton. The committee stands ready to assist the public along this line. So let there be some action taken right away.

We invite your attention to the adv. of W. A. Connell and J. E. Rae, executors, offering for sale personal property of the late Thos. Connell. This sale will be held on Aug. 3rd.

The Warren County Cotton Growers Association will hold their monthly meeting on the first Saturday in August. Let every member of the Association get ready to attend this meeting.

We are in favor of taking down some of the old wooden buildings on Main street, and erecting in their stead handsome brick buildings. There is not a respectable store room in town for rent.

We publish elsewhere an advertisement of Littleton Female College to which we wish to call special attention. This institution has had a remarkable history and is one of the most successful schools in the South.

The little six weeks old infant son of Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Chaffin, of Ridgeway, died Tuesday last week, July 4th. Rev. B. C. Alford conducted the funeral services at Union church on Wednesday. The bereaved family have our sympathy.

Dr. E. E. Green, of Weldon, was here Monday to see his mother, Mrs. Mary Green, who had the misfortune to fall from the Episcopal church door one day last week and bruise herself right badly. She is better now and we hope soon to see her out.

Mr. E. L. Green tells us that the steam drill and rock crusher are working nicely and that he hopes to have the condition of Main street considerably improved in a few days. He has a good force of hands and everything has started off nicely.

Our worthy P. M., Mrs. Mary Green, had the misfortune to lose her footing a few days ago, which caused her a fall and a very serious shock. She has been in bed ever since, but this a. m. she is comfortable and we hope will soon be in her usual place.

The Seaboard Air Line will run an excursion from Norfolk to Norfolk on Friday, July 21st, leaving Norfolk at 6 a. m., arriving at Portsmouth at 9:30 a. m. Returning, leave Portsmouth at 7:30 p. m. Fare for the round trip $1.75. This is a nice opportunity to spend the day at the seacoast.

Mr. Andrew J. Wynn, of Ridgeway, was found dead in bed Wednesday morning. He had not been in good health for quite a while and death occurred from heart failure. Mr. Wynn was seventy odd years old. His death removes one of the best citizens from his community. THE RECORD extends sympathy to the bereaved family.

On Tuesday July 18th. at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Auditorium of the Warrenton High School, there will be a musical given by Mrs. J. C. McCraw, Jr., assisted by Misses Mary Holton and Mattie Caroline Hunter and Mr. Tasker Polk. Admission 50 and 25 cents. The proceeds derived there from will be used to place granite steps around the Confederate monument at Fairview cemetery.

Poem by Parker Tolk.

July 11, 1905.

I am fifty years old to-day.
How swiftly time doth fly!
For it seems but yesterday
I was "to a duck knee high"
But now I am six feet two,
And if my legs were straight,
I think I'd be six feet three
From the sole of my foot to my pate.

INSURANCE.

Wm. W. Parker,
Optometrist and Eyesight Specialist.
Warrenton, N. C.

Your eyes are too important to be neglected. If they trouble you my scientific methods of adjusting glasses will give relief and comfort. I relieve many nervous and irritating disorders by conserving nerve force that is being daily utilized to overcome an error of refraction, headache, neuralgia, inflamed lids, styes, blurred vision and muscular asthenopia are a few of the effects brought on by eye strain which if allowed to develop may cause other troubles more serious. Charges reasonable, examinations free.

Barred Plymouth Rocks, White, Golden and Buff Wyandottes.

The breed that lays when eggs are high. Is the breed that pays both you and I. For meat or eggs it matters not, you will find them both in Rocks and Dottes.

My matings this season are finer than ever. Try a setting of eggs and see how blood tells. Prices are low.
