LOCAL ITEMS

We are having more pleasant weather.
Miss Nettie Rodwell visited in Weldon this week.

Crops are good and tobacco is especially fine this year.

Mr. Jacob Jarman is doing horse shoeing for W. E. Davis.

Miss Sarah Macon is spending some time at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Annie B. Alston, of Shocco, is visiting Miss Estelle Davis.

Mr. Roy W. Riggan, of Raleigh, is visiting Master Harvey Riggan.

Mrs. Jerry Draper and Miss Mag Powell spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

See sale of lands by Tasker Polk, commissioner, in another column.

Miss Lula Allen is at home from N. Y. city, where she spent several weeks.

Mrs. Walter Miles, of Newport News, visited relatives here this week.

Miss Willie Myrick, of Littleton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. D. Weldon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Weldon spent Saturday night and Sunday in Littleton.

Mr. J. M. Gardner spent Sunday in Raleigh with his daughter, Mrs. Rowland.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday night by the pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Tarwater and son, visited Willoughby Beach this week.

Mrs. L. J. Pidot, from Littleton, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. B. Green.

Mr. B. E. Boyd and family have returned from a two week's visit to Woodworth.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rogers and Miss Lily Arrington returned Sunday from their trip North.

Mr. J. E. Powell is visiting his brother, Capt. Rufus H. Powell, in Raleigh this week.

Misses Mollie Tunstall, of Durham, and Minnie Longhain, of Cokes, visited Mrs. W. D. Shaw this week.

Mrs. V. L. Peadleton has for her guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Arrington from Durham.

Mrs. Geo. S. Miles and son, Mr. Laurie Miles, of Newport News, were here a few days this week.

As requested by the chairman, Capt. W. G. Coleman, to say that there will be a called meeting of the Board of Education on Friday, August 5th, 1905.

Miss Sadie Bilyen, representing The North Carolina Christians' Home Society, of Greensboro, was here two days last week soliciting funds and looking for homeless and neglected white children. We understand that Miss Bilyen collected quite a nice little sum of money and that she will likely get a child from our County Home. This Society is doing a great work throughout the State. Its objects are to help any child in trouble. Receives homeless and neglected children under 15 years of age. Places children in family homes. Finds situations for mothers with children. It is non-sectarian and supported solely by voluntary gifts.

Any reliable young man or boy who wishes to make some money in his community to help in payment of board and tuition at school may inquire at this office.

LOCAL ADS.

Rev. J. T. Stanford occupied—the pulpit at the M. E. church Sunday morning and preached an able sermon.

Mr. R. B. Davis, of Grove Hill, sold one hundred bales of cotton last week to Messrs. Gardner & Jeffers at 10 1/2 cents round.

The salary of the post master of Warrenton, has been increased from $1,200.00 to $1,300.00 a year. This is a sign that the town is growing.

Mrs. W. H. Furgerson and little daughter, Elizabeth, of Louisburg, are in the city this week visiting her sister, Mrs. C. W. Robinson.

Mr. W. D. Rodgers has moved his stock of goods to old Johnson store, while the carpenters are repairing the Hyman building. He will be glad to have his friends and customers call and see him.

Capt. Rufus H. Powell, who has held the position of conductor on the Oxford and Henderson road for 21 years, has recently been promoted and his run now is from Keyesville to Raleigh. Capt. Powell is one of the best of railroad men and the promotion is a deserved one.

Mrs. Rob. S. Booth took her daughter, Miss Henrietta, to a hospital in Richmond, Va., Thursday of last week, where a successful operation was performed for appendicitis. At last reports Miss Henrietta was getting along nicely and the many friends of the family here rejoice with them in this fact.

The Warren Guards returned Wednesday night from their annual encampment at Wrightsville Beach and report the best and most orderly time they ever had. Out boys made a fine showing under the command of Capt. P. J. Macon and Lieuts. E. C. Price, and Frank Rose. The Warren Guards stood at the top of the list in drill and behavior and took a good stand on tarket practice, making 19 out of a possible of 25 points. Messrs. J. J. Myrick and R. E. Davis locked well after their duties and supplied the company with a plenty of nice wholesome food.

Jack Reavis was shot from ambush by Willie Silver in front of Mr. E. H. Davis' home near Grove Hill last Sunday evening. From the best information we can gather, it seems that Reavis and another negro were on their way to church at Arcola when they passed Silver in the road and provoked him for cursing. A fight was the result and Reavis got the best of it. Reavis went on to church and while there was warned to avoid meeting Silver on returning home. He did so as best he could, but it seems that Silver was in waiting for him and fired two shots at Reavis from the side of the road. Both took effect, one in his hand and the other in his right shoulder and back. The shot used were of a small size and consequently did not prove dangerous. Reavis swore out a warrant Monday morning and officers Peter and Bennett went to look for Silver, but he had taken to the bushes and they could not find him.

Divine service in Emmanuel church on Sunday next, July 30th, at 11 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.
