The big farmers rally here on Saturday, Sept. 30th.

Miss Terpe Bachelor visited friends in and about town last week.

Miss Helen Wilcox is at home again after a visit to relatives in Mass.

Miss G. C. LaCoste returned from her visit to S. C. last Thursday.

Miss Lizzie Nicholson was a guest at the Baptist parsonage last week.

Warrenton was very well represented at the circus last Thursday.

Mrs. C. Thos. Bailey, of Raleigh, visited Mrs. Pendleton this week.

The walking skirt is worn shorter than ever this season.

Mr. R. A. Hawkins spent a day in Littleton this week on business.

The cotton crop is not as good as it was thought at one time it would be.

Prof. Gaston S. Foote passed through here Tuesday enroute for Rome, Ga.

Dr. P. J. Macon and Mr. H. L. Macon spent Wednesday in Littleton.

Mrs. Nellie Holt, from Smithfield, N. C., was a guest of Mrs. Miles last week.

Rev. T. J. Taylor is assisting in a revival meeting in Nash County this week.

Miss Mary Bowers, from Halifax County, is visiting relatives here this week.

Mr. E. J. Freeman had for his guest this week, Mr. E. L. Lee, from Sussex, Va.

Miss Ida Katzens'cin left Tuesday for Philadelphia, where she will be for some time.

The History Association will meet at Mrs. Pendleton's next Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

Miss Mary Speed Massenburg has accepted a position with W. H. May & Co., of Littleton.

Miss Mary Norman, of Brinkleyville, is visiting relatives here this week.

The County Board of Education will meet in regular session Monday. This is no mistake.

Ladies are especially invited to hear Gov. Glenn and Col. Cunningham speak on Oct. 7th.

Capt. F. C. Toepelman, of the Henderson Telephone and Telegraph Co., was here a short while Tuesday.

Mrs. E. W. Cates, from Thomasville, spent Tuesday in our city with her mother, Mrs. V. L. Pendleton.

For the best style, best wear and lowest prices go at once to The J. R. Paschall, Wise, N. C. and select your fall hat. Big stock of up to date goods to select from. Come early to avoid the rush.

The J. R. PASCHALL CO.

Miss Lizzie P. Jones was here with her home people a short while this week. She was on her way to Raleigh to attend the marriage of her cousin, Miss Frances Caroes Jones, which took place Wednesday evening, the 27th, at 9 o'clock. Miss Lizzie was one of the waiters.

Rheumatism, gont, backache, acid poison, are results of kidney trouble. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea goes directly to the seat of the disease and cures when all else fails. 35 cents. The Hunter Drug Co.

Mrs. J. E. Rooker and Miss Ruth Weldon spent Tuesday in Henderson.

Master Vance Ellington is working for the Warrenton Railroad Company.

D. H. Riggan has a new adv. in this issue. Look it up and then visit his store.

FORSALE.—A new sewing machine. Call at THE RECORD office and see the machine.

Miss Nan Jones returned to Greensboro on Wednesday the 20th, to resume her studies at the State Normal.

Gov. R. B. Glenn, Col. Cunningham and others distinguished speakers will be here to address the farmers on Oct. 7th.

Warrenton is building again. A brick store house on Main street, next to "The Hunter Drug Co." is being erected by Mr. Jerry Draper.

Mr. W. D. Rodgers visited the Northern markets this week to buy fall goods. He will open up in his new store about the middle of Oct.

There were more people here last Thursday to see the (snow) street parade and the animals than we ever remember to have seen here before.

W. B. Boyd & Co. have a new warehouse adv. this week. Read the adv. and then remember the "Old Reliable" when you bring your tobacco to market.

Mr. Jas. P. Twitty and wife, of Buffalo, N. Y., arrived here last week to spend the winter. Mr. Twitty brought 17 of his fine riding horses and he and Mrs. Twitty will use them in fox hunting.

Mr. O. P. Shell, of Henderson, was here this week calling upon our merchants. Mr. Shell now represents the Sturgess & Shell Co., of which he is a member. The firm has an authorized capital of $30,000.

If you haven't seen The J. R. Paschall's Co's. stock of furniture you should see it at once. Everything in furniture from "The cradle to the grave". Over three hundred dollars worth sold in 10 days is a good record.

The J. R. PASCHALL CO.

Mr. R. H. Southerland, of Vance County, and Mrs. Sue Parnam, of Texas, were married at the residence of Mr. R. E. Williams, in Warren County, on Thursday, Sept. 21st, 1905, Rev. L. M. Chaffin officiating. The bride is a grand daughter of the late Dr. R. E. Williams. THE RECORD extends best wishes.

The great Van Amburg Show gave a very clean performance in Warrenton on Thursday of last week. The large tent was full to its utmost capacity. The show people were above the average in many respects. Good order prevailed in town that day, and everybody seemed to be out for a good time. Mr. Van Amburg is an experienced show man and he knows how to please the people.

A Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy was organized here Tuesday. The name adopted was the William White Chapter. About 40 names were enrolled and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. V. L. Pendleton; vice-president, Mrs. A. E. Jones; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. P. J. Macon. Delegates to the State Convention which meets in Morganton on Oct. 4th, are, Mrs. A. E. Jones and Miss Sue White, alternates, Mrs. P. J. Macon and Mrs. R. J. Jones.

Bargains in remnants. We find after getting in our immense fall stock of dry goods and notions that we have lots of remnants that we propose to clean up regardless of cost. Worsteds, Flannels, Pants Cloth, Waistings, Outings, Calicoes, etc. They must be sold. Come early to get first pick as they cannot last long at our out prices.
