Sale of Lands by Commissioner.

By virtue of the authority conferred on me by a decree of the Superior Court of Warren County, State of North Carolina, rendered on the 23rd day of Sept. 1905, in a Special Proceeding pending at said Court, in the case of Russell, widow of E. H. Russell, deceased, A. B. Russell, Alice E. Rodwell, and J. H. Rodwell, her husband, Jas. H. Russell, Thos. H. Russell, Edwin H. Russell and Mary V. Russell (the three last named being minors and represented by R. B. Boyd, their duly appointed next friend) ex. parte, I will, on Monday, the 6th day of November 1905, at 12 o'clock M., at public auction, in said County, sell at the Court House door in Warrenton, N. C., at public auction, the lands hereinafter described, to the highest bidder, upon the following terms, to wit: One-third (1/3) cash, one-third (1/3) in six months from the day of sale, and one-third (1/3) in twelve months from the day of sale, bonds to be executed by the purchaser for said deferred payments, bearing interest from the day of sale at the rate of six per centum per annum, payable annually, and secured by deed of trust on the tract or tracts of land sought by said purchaser at said sale. Under the authority conferred upon me in said decree I reserve the right to sell at private sale, as a whole or in lots, the last one of the tracts hereinafter described before said day of sale hereinbefore mentioned. The tracts or parcels of land to be sold on the above mentioned date are described as follows, viz:

ONE TRACT

Being an undivided one-third (1/3) interest in and to that certain tract of land containing 28 acres, more or less, known as the Six-pound Mill, or the Mill Mill tract, bounded on the north by the lands of W. G. Egerton, on the south by the lands belonging to the estate of Horace Palmer, deceased, and the lands of Tom Goodie, and on the West by the lands of W. G. Egerton and the lands of the state of said Horace Palmer, deceased.

ANOTHER TRACT

Being nine-twentieths (9/20) undivided interest in a certain tract of land containing 264 acres, more or less, known as Cotton tract, which is bounded as follows: On the north by the lands of W. G. Egerton, on the south by the lands of John Hilliard, the lands of Dr. T. B. Williams and the lands of W. P. B. Hill, on the West by the lands of James Jellico and on the West by the lands of W. B. Newman and the lands of John G. Bullock, containing 260 acres, more or less.

ANOTHER TRACT

Known as the old Jas. T. Russell place, and bounded as follows: On the east by the lands of S. P. Read, the lands of Clem R. Edwards and the lands of Mrs. M. J. Hayes, on the south by the lands of John Hilliard, the lands of Dr. T. B. Williams and the lands of W. P. B. Hill, on the West by the lands of James Jellico and on the West by the lands of W. B. Newman and the lands of John G. Bullock, containing 260 acres, more or less.

This the 4th day of October 1905.
