The names of the stockholders and officers as given above are enough to assure success to this enterprise from the beginning. They are business men well known to the people ihroughout

This bank will succeed the old reliable private banking firm of Gardner

Will Build.

The Bank of Warren has bought from Dr. J. G. King and Mr. J. L. Rodwell the two stores on Main street, now occupied by J. H. Harris and E. B. Cooper & Son, and will in the early spring tear out these wooden buildings and replace them with an up to-date bank building. THE RECORD has advocated for a long time the tearing out of these old fire traps and putting up brick buildings. We consider this good news. This will be a mee location for the bank of Warren. The front door of the bank will be right opposite the front door of the Court House We congratulate the bank on getting this location.
