IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. Lewis R. Fleming, oldest son of Charles I. Fleming, Esq., of Nutbush township, was buried yesterday, March 31st, 1908. The evening before, at twilight, while in his store, he dropped dead—having just called one of his customers, Robert Bayes, (a colored man) to return on some business—who immediately came back and found him lying on the floor dead. He was a prominent citizen and merchant of Brodie, Warren county, N. C., in his 52nd year. His father, who was in his 83rd year was buried just five days before he was. A messenger was sent to inform his family of his death. His mother said, "Did he tell any one that he was ready to go?" The reply was, "yes he told his wife he was ready," well, said the old mother, "I am satisfied, it will not be long before I will be with him." He leaves many sad hearts who deeply feel their great loss—a mother, six brothers, two sisters, wife, four daughters and two sons. They are not comforted yet. His health had been very bad for two years, still the shock of sudden death was great. He had eaten supper and gone to his store to wait on a customer, when death the horrid monster, claimed him. Let us all learn a lesson from this sad event. "Be ye ready, for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man will come." Lewis was a gentle, amiable, kind hearted man, generous and a great lover of his family, also a professor of religion and a member of the Methodist Church and we have great cause to believe that he is "Safe in the arms of Jesus" our Saviour, our gentle Judge, and our elder brother.

A Good Meeting.
The Warren Union met at Warren Plains on the 27th of March. In the absence of Rev. N. W. Bobbitt the opening address was delivered by Capt. N. L. Shaw, of Drake's Branch, Va. The people were glad to have Capt. Shaw among them, and they were delighted with the earnest and able addresses he delivered during the meeting.

Death Was On His Heels.
Jeano P. Morris, of Spriggs, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declare consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at C. A. Thomas drug store. 50 and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Who Backs Kitchin?
The Greensboro, Record, a Kitchin organ, says Col. A. B. Andrews, first vice president of the Southern railway has declared he will support Kitchin for Governor. Col. Andrews' assistant, Mr. Henry W. Miller, declared several months ago that he was for Kitchin. The attorney for the Southern railway in Lexington is one of Kitchin's friends, the attorney for the Southern railway in Asheboro, we understand, is also Kitchin's manager in Randolph county, and we have also heard that the attorney of the Southern railway in High Point is managing Kitchin's campaign in that section. So it seems that Mr. Kitchin has a greater percentage of Southern railway attorneys for him than he has any other class of people.—Lexington Dispatch.

I Can't Afford It
What! Vote for the making and selling of whiskey in North Carolina.
I cannot afford it.
Vote for the worst enemy the cause of Christ has in the State.
I cannot afford it.
Vote for the most successful agency the devil has on earth to drag men's souls down to hell.
I cannot afford it.
Vote to destroy the usefulness and success in life of the boys and young men that are growing up in the State.
I cannot afford it.
Vote to bring suffering and distress upon the mothers and children of the State by a drunken husband and father.
I cannot afford it.
Vote to bring on 'crime after crime, and in many instances the very worst crime committed on our most helpless and innocent.
I cannot afford it.
Vote to make some man rich with the price of food and raiment that many poor woman and child suffers the want of.
I cannot afford it.
Vote making myself a party to all these evils and many more in the sight of God.
I cannot afford it.
And neither can you. God forbid. VOTER.

Watch Yourself Go By.
Just stand aside and watch yourself go by;
Think of yourself as "he," instead of "I."
Note, closely as in other men you note, The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat.
Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man is you,
And strive to make your estimate ring true.
Confront yourself and look you in the eye—
Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.
Interpret all your motives just as though
You looked on one whose aims you did not know.
Let undisguised contempt surge through you when
You see youshirk, O commonest of men—
Despise your cowardice; condemn whatever
You note of falseness in you every where.
Defend not one defect that shames your eye—
Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.
And then, with eyes unveiled to what you loathe—
To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe—
Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go
With tolerance for all who'd well below.
The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink,
Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link—
When you, with "he," as substitute for "I,"
Have stood aside and watched yourself go by.

Prohibition Working Well Down in Geory.
Washington, Mar. 24.—From observation and inquiries while in Augusta, Ga., last week, said Nathan P. Odell, of San Francisco, in passing through this city, "I have reached the conclusion that prohibition in that State is to become a permanent institution. The Georgians are well pleased with the situation thus far. Prohibition is popular because it deprives the negroes and the mill hands of liquor. Heretofore this class has spent considerable money for drink, but since prohibition went into effect much of the money thus spent is turned over to the family. One curious result of the abolition of bar-rooms is the establishment of five-cent theatres. The towns of Georgia are full of such places of amusement."
"The prohibition law is being strictly observed in many of the towns, I am told. At the fashionable hotels the guests are deprived of wine or other intoxicants. All in all, the situation seemingly is very satisfactory.—Raleigh Times.

Plenty of Trouble
is caused by stagnation of the liver and bowels. To get rid of it and headache and biliousness and the poison that brings jaundice, take Dr. King's New Life Pills, the reliable purifiers that do the work without grinding or griping. 25c. at C. A. Thomas drug store.

The Idol Business.
How many young beings are sacrificed to the idol, Business! Parents send their boys and girls, unseasoned, undeveloped, from the school room to the desk, the counter, the type machine to work all day, often by artificial light—their recreation an occasional evening in a close theater instead of an afternoon under the skies and green trees. All to make money! And when the money is made, too often the man is unmade, as God created him. Health is gone, or else the soul is shriveled, the imagination crippled, the zest of life has vanished.
Often it is necessity that goads the young to premature slavery, but often again it is ambition or greed on the part of parents, or the idea that their chief duty to the boy is to insure him early to the yoke, and keep him under it steadily that he may become a man of business. When he falls in harness, it is piously considered to be the doing of a mysterious Providence, to whose will one must be resigned.—Mary E. Bryan in Uncle Remus's Magazine for April.

How to Avoid Appendicitis
Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitute. Hunter Drug Co.

A Wilmington negro saved up $186 and had been keeping it in a savings bank. During the late panic he got scared and drew his money out of the bank, and was trying to take care of it himself. The result was that another negro stole the money. What happened to the first negro is liable to happen to anybody who undertakes to keep his money about his person or house. The moral is plain enough: Put your money in bank and let it stay there until you need it.—Greenville Reflector.

He Got What He Needed.
"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at C. A. Thomas drug store. 50c.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills. Sold by The Hunter Drug Co.

There are politicians in Washington who predict that the battle of 1908 will be a tariff fight in spite of efforts to suppress it. There is a chance that minor issues will be forced into the background and that the Democratic party will summon all colors and shades of Democrats to rally to the tariff issue. It is well understood that tariff revision is going to be a mighty tough job—the toughest, without doubt, that the republican party ever undertook—and it will be miraculous if it does not turn out more of a log-rolling than a revision. Every special interest will be on hand demanding a riveting and strengthening of all the monopolies it now enjoys. This is what tariff revision by its friends means.
