Entered December 5th, 1892, at Warrenton, N. C., as second-class matter, under act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1908.

The Republicans want a "new deal" now instead of a square deal.

Gov. Robt. B. Glenn will make the first speech seconding the nomination of Mr. Bryan at the Denver Convention next week. Gov. Glenn will as he always does make a great speech and will charm the convention.

The Governor of Virginia predicts that the time is coming when rich people will prefer a clear conscience to their hoards of money. They still have old-fashioned notions about the millionaires in Virginia.

The Democratic National Convention meets at Denver, Col., next week. It is going to be a great convention. Mr. William Jennings Bryan will be the nominee for President and we hope such a campaign will be started that will route the Republicans at the November election.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland died at his home in Princeton, N. J., on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Cleveland served two terms as President of the United States. He was the only Democrat that has led the Democratic party to success since the Civil War. He was a great man, and the longer he lived the more highly the American people esteemed and loved him.

IT IS KITCHIN.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin, of Person county, was nominated for Governor at Charlotte last Saturday evening on the 61st ballot.

The Convention met Wednesday at 12 o'clock, and from then until the nomination was made the contest was very warm and at times almost fierce. The Craig and Horne forces were faithful to the last and Mr. Kitchin was nominated after Mr. Horne withdrew his name when the 60th ballot was declared. We supported Hon. Locke Craig through the campaign for the nomination, because we believed he was the logical man for the position of Governor just at this time, and then the extreme western section of our grand old State had not been honored with a Governor since the days of our beloved Vance. And feeling further that Mr. Craig had done full service to entitle him to the nomination. The majority of our party looked at it differently from what we did and have spoken in convention and we humbly submit to the majority rule and shall vote for Mr. Kitchin and urge every voter to do likewise, it makes no difference how we may feel over the defeat either of Messrs Craig or Horne.

Mr. Kitchin is an able and fearless fighter, and ranks among our strongest Democrats and will make an admirable chief executive of the State. Let us rally to his support and to that of the entire State ticket and give it a larger majority than was ever cast at any other election.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

A Full Ticket Nominated. Platform Adopted and Delegates to the National Convention Elected.

The State Democratic Convention met in the city of Charlotte on Wednesday of last week, June 24th, at 12 o'clock. State Chairman H. G. Chatham called the Convention to order and Elder P. D. Gold offered prayer. Mr. A. J. Fields, State Secretary, read the official call for the Convention, and then ex-Governor T. J. Jarvis was asked to preside as temporary chairman. The permanent organization was perfected by the election of W. L. Parsons permanent chairman. W. C. Riddick, of Wake, Secretary, Alex. J. Fields, of Wake, and J. D. Carraway, of Henderson; assistant secretaries, and W. P. Cahoon, of Pasquotank, and T. J. Murphy, of Guilford, assistant reading clerks. The organization being completed nominations were declared in order. C. W. Tillett nominated Hon. W. W. Kitchin, T. W. Bickett nominated Mr. Ashley Horne and last but not least, ex-Governor Chas. B. Aycock placed in nomination the ideal of the West, Hon. Locke Craig, of Buncombe. These speeches were seconded by short addresses by friends of the candidates. The balloting then commenced. The first ballot stood: Kitchin, 376; Craig, 333; Horne, 149; necessary to a choice 429. The balloting lasted almost continuously until Saturday evening after the 60th ballot, when Mr. Horne withdrew and Mr. Kitchin was nominated on the 61st ballot, receiving 473.69 to Craig's 381.72 and Horne 1.69. Mr. Kitchin was declared the nominee amidst wild enthusiasm. Messrs. Aycock and Bickett moved to make the nomination unanimous and there was not a dissenting voice. Mr. Kitchin made a ringing speech in acceptance of the high honor conferred upon him. Messrs. Craig and Horne pledged their support to Mr. Kitchin.

At 12 o'clock Saturday night the convention took a recess until Monday morning. It took all that day to complete the State ticket which resulted as follows: Governor—W. W. Kitchin. Lieut-Governor—W. C. Newland. Attorney General—T. W. Bickett.

Secretary of State—J. Bryan Grimes. Treasurer—B. R. Lacy. Auditor—B. F. Dixon. Commissioner of Labor and Printing—M. L. Shipman. Corporation Commissioner—B. F. Aycock. Commissioner of Agriculture—W. A. Graham. Supt. Public Instruction—J. Y. Joyner. Commissioner of Insurance—J. R. Young. J. W. Bailey, of Wake, and Walter Murphy, of Rowan, were chosen electors at large.

The delegates at large to the National Convention are: Senator Lee S. Overman, Senator F. M. Simmons, Gov. R. B. Glenn and E. J. Hale. Alternates: Gen. J. S. Carr, W. L. Parsons, E. F. Watson and J. W. Bailey. The convention then adjourned amidst the best of feeling.

The greatest surprise at the convention was the nomination of T. W. Bickett, of Louisville, for the office of Attorney General of the State. His name had not even been mentioned as a possible candidate for the nomination, but his friends presented it and he won the honor. It is said that his nominating speech for Mr. Horne is what gave him the nomination. We extend our congratulations to Mr. Bickett.

The convention was a great one and will go down in history as such. It was composed of the bone and sinew of the Democratic party.

The convention sends an instructed delegation to Denver for W. J. Bryan.

Stimulation Without Irritation

That is the watchword. That is what Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does. Causes and stimulates the bowels with irritation in any form. Hunter Drug Co.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system and the same time it allays inflammation and stops irritation. Childran like it. Sold by Hunter Drug Co.

Annual Farmers Institute.

The annual Farmers Institutes for Warren county will be held at Warrenton, Saturday, July 18 and Wise, Monday, July 20, 1908. There will be two or three speakers present, furnished by the State Department of Agriculture and probably one from the United States Department of Agriculture in addition to local speakers.

These institutes are for a free and informal discussion of every day farm problems and no farmer can attend and take part in these discussions without receiving more than enough benefit to pay for the time spent.

Under the present management of the Farmers Institutes no attempt is made to lay down hard and fast rules for farming and no lecturer at these institutes is expected to discuss or recommend any practice which he himself has not done successfully or that dozens of farmers in this part of the State are not also doing successfully at this time.

The institute lecturers this year will be selected from among the State's most successful farmers; the workers in our State Department of Agriculture; the United States Department of Agriculture and the faculty of the North Carolina College of Agriculture.

Do not forget the date of this meeting and see that your neighbors know of it and attend.

Delightful Dance at Warrenton.

There was a very enjoyable dance given on the evening of the 24th, by the Warrenton German Club, complimentary to the visiting young ladies. The following couples were in attendance:

Wallace Cawthorn with Miss Malbon, of Norfolk; A. C. Twitty with Miss Irby, of Va.; Robert Hunter with Miss Irby, of Va.; Thos. Peoples with Miss Dell Williams, of Va.; Gid H. Macon with Miss Mary Russell Scoggin, of Va.; Alex. Macon, with Miss Mary Davis, of Va.; Margaret Davis, Wm. B. Davis with Miss Kerney Williams, Barker Dameron with Miss Sue Williams, Phil Alston with Miss Estelle Davis, P. H. Alston with Miss Macon, Ernest Jones with Miss Heath, of Petersburg; Dr. C. H. Peete with Miss Hawkins, of Louisville, Henry Gregory, of N. Y., with Miss Arrington, of Petersburg.

Stags—B. B. Williams, W. H. Dameron, Edmond white. Chaperones—Mrs. Arrington, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers.

OINE ITEMS.

Miss Fred. Williams, R. Herbert Harton and Thomas White visited in the neighborhood of Cokes last Sunday.

Mr. George W. Rudd, aged 73 died last Sunday evening at his home and was buried at Zion church cemetery Monday evening. Rev. W. W. Rose conducted the burial service. Mr. Rudd leaves a wife, three sons and four daughters to mourn his departure.

Mrs. J. M. Thomas, aged about 65 died last Saturday, 27th, at the residence of her son, J. P. Thomas and was buried Sunday evening at the Lutheran Church near Ridgeway.

Mr. A. G. Hayes lost his saw mill by fire last Sunday evening. Damages about $600.00.

Protracted meeting will be held at Zion church commencing the third Sunday in July.

It is remarkable that a man of Mr. Taft's career in public life has never been elected to an office, every position he has ever held being one of appointment. The presidential nomination came to him practically the same way, by appointment, for had it not been that he was selected by Mr. Roosevelt and the latter's influence being exerted in driving the delegates to him, he would have never come anywhere near the nomination. There were others whom the party really preferred to Taft, but the president's "big stick" carried him through. It remains to be seen if the same influence can elect him.—Greenville Reflector.

LOCALS.

Mr. Sam T. White, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Last summer it was the pig pens that made such disagreeable odors at night, this year there are no pig pens—still the same bad odor. What is it?

At his office, on Thursday, July 9th, our County Superintendent of Schools, Prof. Nat. Allen, will conduct admission examinations for the A. and M. College at Raleigh. The College officers in charge of admission urge that all who expect to enter in September be examined at this time.

The Pension Board will be in session next Monday in Clerk Superior Court office. All parties making application for pension should be sure and have their papers on hand that day and properly made out. This is an important meeting of the Board and all interested should take due notice.

Mr. R. P. Frazier lost a very fine horse one day this week. The horse was grazing around Mr. Frazier's pack house and walked in the door when the floor gave away, causing him to fall in the pit under the floor that was used to bring his tobacco in order. Mr. Frazier set about to get the horse out, and did so, but he did not live long afterwards.

We again have our night mail. Messrs. J. Wiley Harris and Thos. O. Overby have the contract and the mail goes and comes from Norlina, leaving Warrenton at 10 p. m., daily except Sunday, returning leaves Norlina not later than 7 a. m., daily except Sunday. This arrangement will give us our old schedule of mail, which enables us to get our mail early in the morning.

The Warren county vote for Craig fell off yesterday morning and a protest followed. It was discovered that a Craig delegate had left the hall. But soon all was well; the delegate had returned. An Observer man was anxious to see the Warren man, who was reported to be a gentleman of the old school and as the reporter tottered around in the hall he came upon a nice looking old citizen of the Uncle Sam type, with chinchillers. All that the Warren man lacked of being Uncle Sam was a spike-tailed, striped coat.—Charlotte Observer, June 26th.
