HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL.

Craven Precinct was the mother of Edgecombe County, which was formed in 1733. Edgecombe embraced what is now Nash, Warren, Halifax, Granville and Vance counties; so some of the oldest records can be found in all of these counties. Granville was formed from Edgecombe—her first off-spring—in 1746. In 1758 Halifax and Bute were formed from Granville—making them grand-daughters of Edgecombe, and in 1779 Bute was divided into Warren and Franklin, making them great grand-daughters of Edgecombe.

So the history of Warren is linked up in the earlier days of our country with a vast territory, and the records prior to 1758 may be found in Halifax, Edgecombe and Granville court houses, and probably in Nash county.

We will print in these columns items of county family history, so that our people may get their family history straight. We invite correspondence, which will all appear in due course of time in these columns.

KEY—Edward Jones, husband of Abigail Suggan, and who settled on South side of Shocco Creek, on what is now known as Jones' Springs plantation, in 1736, will be numbered (1); his children (2); his grandchildren (3); his great grandchildren (4); and so on. All 2's are brothers or sisters. Those numbered three are nephews or nieces to all the two's except their parent. They are first cousins to each other, except when brothers or sisters. All fours are nephews and nieces of all three's except their parent and they are second cousins to each other where they have not same parent or grandparent, &c., as we come down the line of descent

Nathaniel Robert Jones (4), son of Robert Hill and Elizabeth Baskerville and grandson of Edward Jones and Mary Hill and great-grandson of Edward Jones and Abigail Suggan, lived and died in Warren. Nathaniel R. Jones married Virginia Abby Wright of Va. He was the father of Stephen Wright Jones (5), Abby Elizabeth (5) Mary Alice (5), Martha Frances (5), Robert Hill (5), Pattie Shields (5), Edward Pugh (5), and William Baskerville (5). Nathaniel R. Jones (4) was prominent in the official and social life of Warren. He was sheriff of the County for twenty-five years during and after the war, and like his friend Judge White, he could not be beaten. He quit the office about the year 1882, and died in Fall of 1890.

Stephen Wright Jones (5), son of Nathaniel Robert (4) and Virginia Wright was a brave officer in the Confederate service in command of a company in the 46th N. C. Regiment. He enlisted as a private but before he attained his 20th year was promoted to Captain. He was wounded at Spotsylvania Cour House, Va., and disabled for infantry service went into the artillery, where he continued until all was over. On December 10th 1865 he married Miss Alice H. Whitmore one of Petersburg's most fascinating belles. He died May 14, 1904. Stephen Wright Jones (5) and Alice Whitmore had the following children, Mary Virginia (6), Alice Lyell (6) and Nathaniel Robert (6).

Mary Virginia Jones (6) married James Middleton Butt and has no children.

Alice Lyell Jones married Wm. Hodges Mann, nephew of Governor Wm. Hodges Mann, of Virginia.

Nathaniel Robert Jones (6), married Jeannette Bryant and has no children.

Abby Elizabeth Jones (5) died in infancy. Mary Alice Jones (5) now living in Warrenton where she is beloved by all who know her for her sweetness of disposition and charm of manner.

Martha Francis Jones (5) died in infancy. Robert Hill Jones (5) is now and has been for many years living in Raleigh. He has been identified with his city in its social and business life and has held positions of honor and trust in his County. He married Miss Sue O'B. Branch, daughter of General L. O'B. Branch and had one son Lawrence O'B. Branch Jones (6),—a young man who gave great promise of a splendid intellectual and physical manhood, who died at Chapel Hill from typhoid fever, at head of his class.

Pattie Shield Jones (5) died in infancy. Edward Pugh Jones (5) died in infancy.

William Baskerville Jones (5), now living in Warrenton, N. C. Wm. Baskerville Jones has friends in every walk of life. A gentleman of affable, easy manners; of fine intellect, he is "at home" in the best circles. He is especially fond of ladies' society, and although he is a bachelor, can generally be found escorting some pretty girl along our streets. Here's to long life and happiness cousin Buck, big hearted, warm-hearted kinsman, may your name, like that of Arbu Ben Adhem's "lead all the rest" upon the great Scroll because you love your fellowman.

Mary Eaton Jones (5), a great beauty and belle of her day, died early without marrying. Martha Sturges Jones 5, married Mr. Samuel Goode, of Mecklenburg County, Va. They had a daughter, Mary Elizabeth (6), (known as Bettie) who married Dr. Mills Morrison Jordan. They have the following children—Jennie Goode Jordan 7, Alice Morrison Jordan 7, Robert Jones Jordan 7, Morris Jordan 7, Rose Jordan 7. Jennie Goode Jordan 7, married Ashby Watkins of Henderson. We have no record as to children.

Sugan Jones 3, son of Edward Jones 2, and Mary Hill and grandson of Edward Jones 1, and Abigail Suggan, married Elizabeth Clinch in 1784 and had the following children; Christopher C. 4, James Gray Jones 4, Mary Green Jones 4, Peggy T. Jones 4, Jackey Jones 4, and Abigail Suggan Jones 4.

Mary Jones 3, married Wm. Chastmas—though we are not absolutely certain on this point at this time.

Rebecca Jones 3, daughter of Edward Jones 2, and Mary Hill, married James Walker and had the following children; William King Walker 4, and Mary Jones Walker 4.

Sarah Jones 3, married Thos. Brickie and had a daughter, Polly Brickie 4. We have no further record of the children of Sarah Jones or of the marriage of her daughter Polly Brickie. Of Daniel Jones 3, and Abigail Suggan Jones 3, we have no record.

Next week we will take up the descendents of Martha Jones who married William Johnson and was the mother of Marmaduke Johnson, the efficient Clerk of the Court for years, and of other children.

MR. EDITOR:

Please allow me space in your paper to say a few things to the subscribers of your paper, who believe in good government. I want to speak in regard to the law that prohibits the manufacture and selling of intoxicating liquor.

As superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, I have been from the mountains to the sea several times this year; indeed since I have been in this work, I have visited and spoken in every county in the state except six. I am also in constant correspondence with our leaders, and am prepared to say, our prohibition law is working nicely; in fact, is a great success.

Having said this much as regards the successful working of the law, let me give you the other side. There is no doubt of the fact that in many communities, the law is greatly violated, and that in some of these communities, the officers do not have the proper respect for their oath, nor do the citizens appreciate the duties of citizenship. I do not want to necessarily discourage any in their bright views of the situation in the state, but still we can gain nothing by disregarding facts or by overlooking the violations of our law. The thing to do, is to accept the conditions and strive to improve them.

Allow me to quote from letters on my desk that will verify the position I take: I read from a letter written by a college president. "Matters in our town are such that detection is not so easy, since the principal offender is of long standing, wise from many encounters; more-over he is brother-in-law to our mayor." From a letter, written by the mayor, August 21st, we quote: "It seems that we have at least two blind tigers in our little town." From a merchant in eastern Carolina, letter of Sept. 6th: "There is a lot of blind-tigering going on here. Our sheriff and mayor pay no attention to it. If we get them, it would be no use to take them before our mayor, for there is a strong belief that he is in the business. Please let me hear from you in regard to this matter." Letter from post-master and merchant in central North Carolina: "We are sadly lacking in this county our sheriff being a man that winks at illicit distilling, and the magistrates are drinking men; get drunk! A letter from a deputy sheriff reads: "It is reported to me that there is a blockade distillery in operation in this section; now, how do I proceed in this matter? Please let me hear from you fully." A Southern express agent writes: "Blind-tigers are flourishing and becoming more bold. I deliver from two hundred to eight hundred pounds of whiskey at a time to men, who are running these places, and everybody knows it. No attempt has been made to my knowledge to stop it. I feel sure there are two stills running within, say two miles of me." A Methodist preacher from eastern Carolina writes: "we need a detective here. One man got five barrels of beer this morning." A well-farmer in the east writes: "Two barrels of whiskey came to our town last week, several are in the depot; saw nine drunken men after five o'clock Monday on the street; was away the balance of the day. The policemen are in full sympathy with the business. No effort is made by him or the mayor to enforce the law. All the magistrates of the town are men of strong drink. Now, if you know of any way this can be checked, will be glad if you could furnish information. I can not believe that the Great State of North Carolina will allow this evil to go unchecked."

I give these extracts to inform our people of our present conditions, and to show them the necessity of work. All must understand that the law is inanimate, and that therefore, it can not destroy one moon-shine still or send one blind-tiger to the roads. The work of enforcement devolves upon good officers and true citizens, and neither of these can accomplish the work without the aid of the other.

The law is not a failure because of such violations, rather the exception proves the rule. Let us remember that reformations do not come in a day or a year. The reformations that have done most for humanity have taken centuries. Truly then, in this work of over-throwing the liquor traffic to save our commerce, our politics and our social life from the domination of King Alcohol, we can afford to spend years.

We urge all communities to be vigilant, and wherever the law is violated, let there be work and agitation and prayer. And if in any such community, the blame be on the part of the officers, let there be a earnest effort to displace such officers with men, who have the courage of their conviction and respect for their oath.

Assuring that our state organization is ready to aid in any way it can, I am,

Yours very truly,
R. L. DAVIS,
Supt., N. C. Anti Saloon League.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it, Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," physics, etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Attention Horsemen!

Owners of fine mares will take notice that, for a short time we will have in this section our standard bred stallion,

and we shall be glad to have persons interested to call and give him a look before selecting a horse or sire. He is in truth a standard bred, registered, unerrered No. 6, and as handsome a specimen of horseflesh as can be found anywhere. His colts attract attention everywhere they go, and best of all, they are, so far we know, as sensible and kind as they are handsome.

He is in charge of William Perry, who will take pleasure in showing him at any time.

I. I. Young, W. F. Gill,
Henderson, N. C.

This handsome and valuable horse will be at Warrenton on and after September 15th for the Fall Season.

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my household work and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
