Couldn't Be Fairer.

Congressman Claude Kitchin and Mr. A. L. Brooks spoke to an audience of about 300 tonight in the interest of Governor Kitchin's candidacy. Mr. Kitchin was bitter in his denunciation of Simmons, charging that his campaign was based upon falsehoods. In his introductory remarks he declared that he was not here to attack the character of Simmons; that he conceded it to be as pure as that of the womanhood of North Carolina.

Mr. Kitchin belittled the statement that Simmons was a Democratic leader, and declared that he had never been dreamed of as such, except by the fiction writers of the Greensboro News and the Charlotte Observer. He said no great Democratic paper, and not one which supported Wilson—outside of the partisan State press—had ever referred to Simmons as a leader. He declared that if Simmons' colleagues on the Finance Committee would say that Simmons was to be made chairman of that committee, he would get Will Kitchin out of the race in 10 minutes after the statement was made.

He said also, that if Senator Overman would say that Simmons was regarded as a Democratic leader, he would take his brother out of the race. He charged that Simmons had misrepresented facts in his campaign and asked, in reference to the Charlotte Observer and Greensboro News: "What are you trying to deceive the people for; why are you trying to get the suffrage of North Carolina under false pretenses?"—Greensboro Special to the Charlotte Observer.

"Judge Clark's Chances."

When in Greenville, N. C., Judge Clark was asked what were his chances. He replied, "If you listen to Mr. Simmons' friends they have all the votes with only a few left to be divided with Governor Kitchin and myself." Governor Kitchin says that he has almost everything in sight. I am not bragging, but the situation reminds me of what happened at Kinston a few years ago when they came near having a race riot. The white men collected on one corner and the negroes on another. The white men fired their pistols in the air and the negroes left. Next morning, Mr. Whitfield said to his servant, 'I hear that you ran like the wind last night.' Sam replied, 'Naw suh, Boss, I did not run like the wind but I passed them two niggers who did run like the wind.' The Judge said he was not bragging now, but at that rate of speed he would get there.

A LOG ON THE TRACK

of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hessheimer, of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at C. A. THOMAS.

COULDN'T READ THEM.

An optician said, when humor was mentioned: "My business sees fun occasionally. I had a case myself a day or two ago. An old dorky came into the store and said he wanted a pair of spectacles. The clerk tried one lens on his eyes, and pointed to the paragraphs on a piece of cardboard. 'Can you read that?' he asked. 'No, suh,' replied the dorky. The customer tried another pair, and another pair, and many others, declaring he could not read with any of them. Finally the clerk, out of patience, asked: 'Well, say, can you read at any time?' The negro smiled broadly and answered: 'No, suh, that's why I wants glasses. My wife she read yo' advertisement sayin' as how anybody could read with yo' glasses, so I thought I might as well come an' try 'em all.'—New York Tribune.

Better Business.

The $10,000 pitcher disputed a decision, kicked vigorously, and got put out of the game. The manager took him aside.

"You're new to the team and I'll excuse you this time."

"What's that?"

"Listen to me. Don't never get put out of the game again for kicking. You're too expensive. Let one of them cheap outfielders do the kicking. Get me?"

The pitcher said he did.

SQUARE DEAL.

The Vanquished—But you're twice my size!

The Victor—Dat's all right. I'll give you two chances den. Stand up again!

No Mystery.

Se ne'er into a mirror gazed
To primp her hair, before, behind.
Dear reader, pray be not amazed,
The woman whom I sing was blind.

Neighborly.

"Who is that woman sitting on your side porch?"

"Hush. She's my next door neighbor."

"What is she doing there?"

"Why, she's interested in a serial story in a magazine I let her take and now she's waiting for me to bring home the next number."

"Rather cheeky, isn't it?"

"No, no. I've got her lawn mower."

Not Attractive.

Mrs. De Good—Why aren't you going to church?

Mr. De Good—Last Sunday the roof leaked and three or four drops went down my back.

Mrs. De Good—The roof has been repaired since then.

Mr. De Good—Hub! Then they'll be wanting money to pay for the repairs

Pleasant Alternative.

"Dibbles is a great optimist."

"You think so?"

"I do. He has an engagement with his dentist tomorrow morning and yet he seems to be quite happy."

"Maybe he thinks he will be run over by an automobile and nearly killed before tomorrow morning."

Too Slow.

"And did you enjoy Venice?"

"No, I can't say that we did. We were not once arrested for breaking the speed record with our gondolas."

HITTING BACK.

"Tom can please woman without half trying."

"Any chap can—it's the chumps who try hard who fail."

She Goss to the Country.

He told his little wife good-by
And seemed a most unhappy wight,
But later ran an eager eye
Down "What's at Theaters Tonight!"

A Knowledge of Anatomy.

"My heart beats only for you."

"That being the case, how do you live?"
