THE CITY.

—Some of the newly-painted street cars were put on the streets this morning. They are neat and beautiful.

—The street sprinklers were put to work this morning, and what a change they do make in the state of affairs.

—The next thing you will hear something about will be a new depot for Raleigh. Just mark this. It is bound to come.

—St. John's Guild will hold a special meeting at the rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd to-night at 8:30 o'clock.

—Mr. I. Winetrob will move his tailoring establishment from Martin street to the Crawford building on Fayetteville street, about August 1st.

—The Durham Sun announces the dissolution of the copartnership of the firm of Lambe and Gorman. Mr. Thos. Gorman is a former Raleighite. The Sun makes no announcement of his future purposes.

—Lon. Holleman, a colored boy, was arrested to-day by the police force for stealing a watch from the racket store last night. He was brought before his Honor, Mayor Thompson, and bound over to the next term of the criminal court.

—The Morehead City crowd is rapidly increasing, and fun of all kinds is excellent. Attorney General Davilson and some friends have scored the biggest fish catch, so far, this season, taking one hundred and seventy-five in a few hours yesterday.

—The Gruber family will give one of their unique and novel musical concerts in Metropolitan Hall on Friday night of this week. Prof. Gruber is a celebrity in his line, and the younger members, some of them not over seven years, are marvellously efficient as musicians.

—A young lady in the city has lost her pet dog and would be delighted if he should be returned. In describing him, she said, "He was a rat-and-tan; but he growed so much he is not a rat-and-tan any more. His name is 'Constantinople, and the name is about twice as long as the dog." If found, please return him.

—Officer Sellars, of the police force of Knoxville, Tennessee, yesterday brought an escaped convict, Jesse Watson, to the penitentiary here. Watson escaped from a squad of convicts while at work on a railroad in Western North Carolina and fled into Tennessee.

Personals.

Mr. Ed. H. Lee went down to Morehead this afternoon.

Mr. J. N. Street, of Washington City, is in town visiting friends.

Judge Strong and Miss Carrie Strong left for Wilmington this evening.

Mr. Mitchell Carroll, of Asheville, is in the city visiting the family of Mr. O. J. Carroll.

Misses Effie and Rosa Broughton left this afternoon to visit friends in Wilmington.

Mr. E. S. Horton, who has been confined to his room with sickness for a week past, is convalescent and on the streets.

Mr. W. H. Pace leaves this evening for Greensboro to attend a meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina railroad.

Col. Thos. S. Kenan has been quite sick at Wilmington for some days past. Advices received this morning report him convalescent.

Col. and Mrs. L. L. Polk and daughters, Misses Carrie and Lonnie, left this evening to spend a few weeks at Connelly Springs.

New Appointment of State Railroad Proxy.

Acting Governor Holt, in the absence of Governor Fowle in Philadelphia, appointed as State proxy for the North Carolina railroad, Jno. S. Scott, Esq., vice Mr. Junius B. Alston who declined to accept.

Jersey King.

This the name of a magnificent young Jersey bull just received by Mr. W. G. Upchurch, and placed on his Woodland stock farm. He is imported and has a record as prize winner; having carried off the best prizes on the island. "Farmers' Glory," his sire, was a noted prize winner and sold for $3,200. Violet, his dam, won first prize at St. Peters in 1876, and first prize at the London show as the best dairy cow. Jersey King is a beauty and a valuable animal.

Death Sentence Commuted.

Governor Fowle to-day commuted the death sentence of Jas. Lassiter, (col.) of Hertford county, to imprisonment for life. He was under sentence of death for murder. The official reasons given by His Excellency for the commutation are as follows:

"Upon testimony of clergymen, physicians, keeper of jail and attorneys, it appears that Jas. Lassiter is of such a low order of intellect, though not insane, that my mind is in doubt as to the propriety of his execution. It is therefore ordered that his sentence be commuted to imprisonment for life, in the penitentiary. D. G. FOWLE, Governor."

Report of the Directors of the Penitentiary.

The Board of Directors of the penitentiary yesterday rendered their quarterly financial report to the Governor, the same being for the second quarter ending May 31st, 1889. It was as follows:

Expenses for March, 1889,	$15,568.58
" " April "	18,895.65
" " May "	27,889.38
Total expense	$62,353.61
The earnings were for
March	$13,106.58
April	14,710.77
May	15,027.96
Total earnings,	$42,845.31
The expenses over earnings for this quarter were $9008.30.

THE GRISSOM INVESTIGATION.

Dr. Grissom's Testimony Concluded.— Other Witnesses Called.

The board of directors resumed their session yesterday afternoon at four o'clock.

The first step after re-assembling was to call the following witnesses: A. A. Holton, O. S. Causey, J. H. Mills, N. C. Jarrell and W. H. Ragan, all of Guilford county. All testified that they knew Miss Nora Burch, and that her character was excellent—that of a lady. All testified, on cross-examination, that they had not known much of her since she came to the asylum; that they had never heard anything against her.

The direct examination of Dr. Grissom by Gov. Jarvis was then resumed. He asked why Dr. Grissom had not taken steps to report Dr. Rogers to the board of directors. Col. Waddell objected to the question. The board decided to allow the question.

Dr. Grissom said: The friendship between Dr. Rogers and myself was cordial up to the time of its interruption. He was my medical student. His father was my warm personal friend. I recommended Dr. Rogers at his graduation for the place he holds. I had made him my confidential secretary. When the estrangement commenced, it was to me exceedingly painful. I tried to avoid an open rupture. I had endorsed him for a position elsewhere. I thought that his connection with this institution would not be protracted. In addition to this, I thought it was in my power to circumvent the result of this estrangement. I did not wish the estrangement between us to cause any trouble to the institution or to the public. I preferred to wait till we could separate peaceably and without an open rupture. At the next election of officers I was advised by a member of the board of directors not to make a change, but to wait and see if the differences could not be healed. I did this in the interest of peace, and left the whole matter to the board. For a time there seemed to be no trouble. Our official relations were intact till the trouble at the June meeting of the executive committee of the board.

Colonel Waddell took the witness on cross-examination. Dr. Grissom said: The report of Dr. Rogers, yesterday referred to, on the subject of mechanical restraint, was made in the summer of 1884. Dr. Rogers came here about September, 1883. He came in a few months after his graduation.

Col. Waddell asked: Did Dr. Rogers graduate in the spring of 1883, come here in September, 1883, and make the official report in June, 1884? Dr. Grissom answered: I think that is so.

Dr. Grissom was then discharged.

Mrs. V. C. Jones was then sworn and examined by Mr. Cooke. She lived in Granville county. She was at the institution eighteen years—as attendant and chief attendant. Capt. Cooke asked what Dr. Grissom's bearing to the patients was according to her observation. Mrs. Jones answered that he treated them kindly. She never saw any mistreatment or cruelty on his part toward the patients. I saw him often with the patients. My duty very frequently brought me in contact with him when he was with the patients. Strapping was used when patients were violent or abusive to themselves or other persons. They were released twice or three times a day. I have known strapping to prove beneficial to patients. I knew Mrs. Lowther. She was restrained as much as two days. She was released twice a day. I saw her after she was released. She took a bath. She lived only two or three hours. There was no evidence of any injury to her from the restraint. I knew Miss Burch. I never saw improper relations between Dr. Grissom and Miss Burch. I knew Miss Ella Edwards. Dr. Grissom's conduct to her was that of a gentleman. I never knew his conduct to her to be otherwise.

Col. Waddell took the witness on cross-examination. She knew Mrs. Gaskins to be strapped as much as a day. When patients were released when strapped it was for an hour or a half hour. Mrs. Gaskins had sores on her limbs when she came here. I suppose the straps irritated them. Mrs. Lowther was a violent patient. I do not know how long she was restrained.

Mr. R. H. Whitaker was sworn and examined by Mr. A. W. Haywood. He said he was editor of the Spirit of the Age and a minister of the gospel. He met Miss Edwards on the train. It was in February or March, 1888. I had taken my seat on the cars and was reading when a lady, attended by a colored man, came in weeping. I introduced myself and asked what was the trouble. She said she had heard that her mother was very ill. She said she had been at the Insane Asylum as an attendant. She said she liked the asylum very much indeed. I soon concluded that part of her grief was because of leaving the asylum. I conversed with her about Dr. Grissom, and the impression made upon me was that Dr. Grissom made an excellent superintendent. She told me that it was rarely the case that restraints were used. She said she expected to return whether her mother died or not. She spoke in very high terms of Dr. Grissom. She frequently alluded to Dr. Rogers, and I intimated that I thought she and the Doctor were sweethearts. She made no reply except to smile. She did not intimate or state that Dr. Grissom had ever treated her improperly in any manner, shape or form.

The board then adjourned till this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

New Advertisements.

Mr. D. T. Johnson is receiving to-day a fine lot of sugar cured hams, English cured shoulder and a lot of South Carolina sugar cured shoulders at 10 cents per pound. Chickens and eggs received daily and orders left with him will be made at lowest market prices. Free and prompt delivery. See his advertisement. Phone 28.

Keep cool this hot weather by going to Whiting Bros. and buying a nice summer suit. Read their new ad. and learn how the vote stood about the removal of Trinity College to our city.

GREAT SALE OF READY-MADE CLOTHING.—We will make a reduction on any suit of Men's or Boy's Clothing, marked over $8.50, of ten per cent. during this month. We want room for new goods, hence this offer. WOOLLCOTT & SON, 14 E. Martin st.

Messrs. Heller Bros. come to the front to-day and say something about foot wear. Some close observer has written that a neat shoe is one-half the make-up of a faultless outfit. It seems that Heller Bros. hold to this view; for if any thing is certain, it is that they keep the neatest and most complete line of foot wear in the State, in one of the prettiest stores in the South. Just see them.

Messrs. Norris & Carter never speak without saying something, and to-day they speak. You want to know what they say if you are looking for advantages. See their new "ad." and learn what the purchasing possibilities in Raleigh are.

Mr. E. V. Denton announces his readiness to furnish the city with paper bags, butter and lard dishes, wax and grey paper, twines, and various other commodities needed by retail traders. Factory prices guaranteed.

State Board of Agriculture.

The State Board of Agriculture met here this morning. Most of the day's session has been consumed in the consideration of the reports of the officers. One matter of importance before the board was an application from the State agricultural society for an appropriation in favor of the next Fair.

The board will meet in joint session to-morrow with the trustees of the College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts for the purpose of electing a faculty for the institution.

TRINITY

The Trustees De

Raleigh—By a Conference the

The following to by the CALL this "The trustees of accepted Raleigh's sided by a vote of college to that city. The board of tr boro yesterday present. The discussion over the removal was very spirited and lasted nearly all through the day. Messrs. Robbins and Leach, of the board, led the opposition. Some of the members who were not present sent proxies, and there was a considerable debate as to whether these should be admitted or not; those opposed to removal being in favor of their admission. They were finally refused by a vote of 15 to 12. This was considered as something of a test vote, showing the party in favor of removal to be somewhat the stronger. In the morning session, Mr. Robbins led the opposition in a speech of about one hour and a half. He was supported in the evening by Mr. Leach, who spoke three hours and forty-five minutes against the removal of the college. The board then adjourned to a night session, when Prof. J. F. Crowell, of the college, addressed the board in favor of the removal. There was more discussion and when the vote was taken at a late hour it was 18 to 11 in favor of accepting Raleigh's proposition. The members of the board from Raleigh who were present were Revs. W. S. Black and F. L. Reid and Mr. R. T. Gray. Mr. Gray was summoned from the session by a telegram, but before leaving, paired with Judge Montgomery, who was of the opposition party.

college a site and $20,500 in cash should come here.

Before any action toward removal can be taken, the matter must come before the annual State Conference of the M. E. Church South. There is no apprehension on the part of most of the board and those who were present that it will not be approved.

Quite a number of the alumni of the college attended the meeting and were much interested in the proceedings. It can be safely gathered from these and others, that the opposition was largely local, as was naturally expected.

THE COTTON FACTORY.

Location Chosen—Election of President.

The Directors of the cotton factory met yesterday evening and transacted some important business. A site for the factory was chosen and purchased; the same being six acres of land just north of the new round house at the Raleigh and Gaston railroad shops. It was purchased for $4,500 from Mr. P. C. Cameron, who took factory stock in payment for the purchase money.

Mr. Julius Lewis was elected president of the mills, and Mr. Jno. H. Winder was elected vice-president. Mr. C. H. Belvin was elected a director in place of Mr. Julius Lewis. Mr. Geo. V. Strong was elected secretary and treasurer, but his acceptance has not yet been received.

The location chosen is regarded as the best one of all which were obtainable. It offers the advantages of being easily accessible and providing a never-failing stream of water. These, with the advantageous terms on which it was procured, commend it as the best possible place in or around the city.
