THE PUBLICATION OF THE NORTH Carolina Presbyterian will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive both in appearance and matter, than it has ticulars apply to ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the thought and business. Why should not the "OLD Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement! Why should she, of ail the agencies, brought to bear with such tremenduous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own des-

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone. All sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on the

PROSPECTUS OF THE

RUTHERFORD STAR

The Undersigned propose to publish, in the village of Rutherfordton, a weekly Newspaper to be called "The Rutherford Star."

It is our desire to make The Star a welcome visitor to all those who feel an interest in the prosperity and welfare of our country and whole, and the perpetuity of our institutions, as handed down to us by our noble ancesty, a Federal Republican Government.

Our people have but lately emerged from a gigantic civil war, waged by and between embracing the newest and leading styles of the Sections of a once glorious Union, and more desolating to our particular section, than anything that has ever happened on this contin-ent, and it is to be hoped, than ever will again.
While there is life there is hope, and notwithstanding the great changes wrought by the late civil war, we shall encourage the people to honesty, industry and economy, we "Scale of depreciation of Confederate Currency, the gold dollars being the unit and measure of value, from Nov. 1st 1861, to May 1, 1865."
