POETICAL.

MY MOTHER'S VOICE.

There's music in the autumn wind. Around the dripping eaves; And where its pinions stop to play, Among the fallen leaves. There's music in the river's flow,

Along the pebbly shore, When all the winds have gone to sleep, And boughs swayed no more.

There's music in the cricket's song I bear through evening shade, And in the low distant herds, Returning from the glade. There's music in the household tones That greet the sad or gay.

And in the laugh of innocence Rejoicing in its play. But there's music sweeter far

In memory than this-The music of my mother's voice Now in the land of bliss. A music time may never still-I hear it in my dreams, When all the fondness of her face Once more upon me beams.

I know not what the Angela hear, In mansions in the skies-But there is not a sound on earth Like mother's gentle voice.

The tears are in my clouded eye, And sadness in my brain, As Nature whispers to my heart,

She will not come again, A Mother! oh, when she departs,

Her like is never known; The records of affection speak Of only, only one!

And brighter will that record grow Through all the changing years-

The oftener to the lip is pressed The cup or sorrow's tears.

THE POSTAGE LAW.

For the convenience of our readers, many of whom are uninformed as to the present postal rates, we extract and prepare the following from the existing regulations as published in the Uni-ted States Mail:

LETTER POSTAGE. - PREPAYMENT. The law requires the postage on all letters to be prepaid by stamp for stamped envelopes—payment in money being prohibited. All drop letters must also be prepaid. The only letters on which payment is not demanded; are those addressed to the President, or Vice-President or members of Congress, and letters on official business to the chiefs of the Executive Departments of the Governmens, the heads of bureaus, and chief clerks, and others invested with the franking privilege.

Subscribers for short terms-exceeding three conths, say four or tive months—can pay quar-terry postage for the count form of their subscriptions—that is, for one quarter and a third, one quarter and two thirds, &c. The law only requires that at least one quarter's postage shall be prepaid, and not more than one year's postage. Any term between one quarter and one year can therefore be prepaid at proportionate rates. Subscribers can pay the postage for a fraction of a quarter, at the same rates for a whole quarter, by including the fraction with the next whole quarter, and paying for both at the same time. PRIVILEGES TO PUPLISHERS.

Publishers of Newspapers and Periodicals may end to each other from their respective offices of publication, free of postage one copy of each publication, and may also send to each actual subscriber, inclosed in their publications, bills and receipts for the same, free of postage.
