To the Women of the South, The end we propose is the cause of the South. It has neither party, nor section, nor division. The obligations of the survivors to the memory of the martyrs of the war address the South as one family, wherein, though there Le degrees of affiiction and bereavement, none are without sorrow and grief. It is not, however, to hearts crushed by personal sorrows so much as to the gratitude cherished for no-ble deeds by noble men, we appeal. With this the southern heart throbs with one impulse, and is ready to testify its inextinguishable sympathy.

It shall be our endeavor to rescue from the oblivion to which they are passing the graves of the great host which perished in the war and sleep undistinguished in our cemetery. Their memory history will transmit from age to age, propounding without number illustrious examples from which the noblest of every age may catch new inspiration. We propose the humb-ler tribute, yet the more touching to relatives and friends, and even to the general heart,—that of identifying with durable monuments the ground where sleep the honored dead—tempting thither by its be-coming habitude the countless throng, who would do homage to such dead. Our designation is "Hollywood Memorial Associa-tion of Richmond"—pledged to apply the means which may be provided to the per-manent protection and adornment of the graves of the Confederate dead interred in Hollywood Cemetery. Those contribut-ing to the Association will be enrolled as members; and contributions may be remitted to the Treasurer, Mrs. Dr. BARN-EY; and letters addressed to the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Dr. BOLTON. Information will be furnished at all times by the President and by any member of the Memorial Committee.

THE POSTAGE LAW.

For the convenience of our readers, many of whom are uniuformed as to the present postal rates, we extract and prepare the following from the existing regulations as published in the Uni-ted States Mail:

The only letters on which payment is not demanded, are those addressed to the President, or Vice-President or members of Congress, and letters on official business to the chiefs of the Executive Departments of the Governmens, the heads of bureaus, and chief clerks, and others invested with the franking privilege.

JUST PUBLISHED TABOR:

OR, THE Richmond Collection of Sacred Music :

By R. M. McINTOSH, of Virginia. Essentially Southern in its main features. Tabor nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copy-right Music. Its author, for four years an officer of the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during its marchings and counter-marchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of Gen. T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall,) May 17, 1863, was from his pen s included in this collection. "Mr. McIntosh," says the Richmond Whig "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by an man of his age in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."

The book embraces everything of value of southern or south-western origin, much of which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. Its variety is great-embracing all metres in use, in every key and every va-riety of measure—with a full elementary de-partment and fine collection of new anthems, set pieces and sentences.
