But neither the Unicolored preachers from the North to get hold of their money. They have been telling the colored people of the South all along that they are the poorest and most ted States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or persecuted people on earth, and that they emancipation of any slave; but all such have for years wept over their miseries.—

Now, however, as the colored people of the illegal and void. South, by means of the employment accorded them by the Southern whites, are beginning to make a little money, these provisions of this article. beginning to make a little money, these white and colored preachers from the North under the pretence of holding conventions and other religious meetings, come among them in awarms and fleece them out of all their hard earnings. Instead of taking up collections at the North for the benefit of the former slaves whose poverty they have been accustomed to deplore, and bringing the money here for distribution among the money here for distribution among them, they come here to raise money for Northern churches, Northern societies, and Northern objects of charity. They pray fervently, preach after the most approved Puritan fashion, shed tears over their mis-Puritan fashion, shed sears over their mis-eries, but invariably wind up the exercises by taking up a collection for some distant Northern object. Our good-natured but foolish colored people tickled by the com-pliments paid them, and moved by the pa-thetic appeals addressed to their sympa thies, give their last dime to these white and black hypocrites and imposters. They deprive themselves and families of the ne-cessaries of life to contribute to the sup-port not of Northern churches and charita-ble societies, but of shrewd money-hunting elerical adventurers. It is mean and disble societies, but of shrewd money-hunting elerical adventurers. It is mean and disgraceful enough for Northern churches and societies to build themselves up by levies upon the poor colored people of the South. But one thing could be meaner, and that would be the conversion of the money thus raised to the private, purposes of these wolves in sheep's clothing—and that is exactly what is done in most cases. It is really a shame and a scandal that the colored people of the South should be thus imposed upon. How long will they suffer themselves to be thus defrauded by these swarms of mercenary adventurers? The North should contribute to the support of the North. Is it not the duty of the Freedthe North. Is it not the duty of the Freedmen's Bureau to at leas t counsel its wards in this matter. It is as much the duty of this Bureau to protect them from Northern

JOINT RESOLUTION AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of both Houses concurring,) That the fol-lowing article be proposed to the legisla-tures of the several States, as an amoud-ment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said legislatures, shall be valid as part
