MUTING OF NEGRO TROOPS IN WASH-INGTON. D. C .- The Washington Star

Monday night the colored troops at Wisewell Barracks had arranged to have a ball at the barracks, and had invited all the colored female fancy of Murder Bay. Captain Spurgin, of the Freedmen's Bu-reau, declined to permit them, but the soldiers insisted upon having the dance, and became so unruly that the Captain had to send for a detachment of police. Lieuten-ant Johnson, of the second precinct, sent two men to the barracks, and they finding the Murder Bay fancy collected about the burracks dispersed them, and sent them off. The colored soldiers were offended, and refused to obey orders. Captain Spurg'n mounted his horse, and was about to start for a company to reduce the mutineers to obedience, when a colored ser-geant, who seemed to have some influence over the men, called them into their quar-
