The Lord's Prayer Illustrated.

Our Father-By right of creation, By bountiful provisions, By gracious adoption.

Who art in Heaven-The throne of thy glory, The portion of thy children, The temple of thy angels;

Hallowed be thy name-By the thoughts of our hearts, By the words of our lips, By the works of our hands.

Thy kingdom come-Of providence to defend us, Of grace to release us; Of glory to crown us;

Thy will be done on earth, as it is

Toward us without resistance. By us, without compulsion, Universally, without exception, Eternally, without declension.

Give us this day our daily bread-Of necessity, for our bodies, Of eternal life, for our souls;

And forgive us our trespasses-Against the commands of thy law Against the grace of they gospel;

As we forgive those that trespass against

By defaming our character, By embezzling our property, By abusing our persons;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil-

Of overwhelming afflictions, Of worldly enticements, Of Satan's devices,

Of error's seductions, Of sinful affections ;

.For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever-Thy kingdom, governs all, Thy power, subdues all, Thy glory, is above all.

As it is, in thy purpose, So it is, in thy promise, So be it, in our prayers So it shall be, to thy praise

TOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, (two-thirds of both Houses concurring,) That the following article be proposed to the legisla-tures of the several States, as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely:

ARTICLE 14. Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the ju isdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives costen in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies there

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for the payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article. SCHUYLER COLFAX,

Speaker House of Rep. LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER, Pres. Senate, pro tem.

Attest: EDWARD McPHERSON, Clerk House of Rep. J. W. FORNEY, Secretary of Senate.

MILES FROM LEXINGTON, R. C.

This Institution, under its charter as a College, was revived on the 15th of January 1866, and supplied, by a resolution of the Trustees, with a corps of experienced Teachers; so that now, with its cheap boarding arrangements, it offers to male pupils every educational facility, from the primary department to a full college course, upon more favorable terms perhaps, than any academy or college in the State.

BEATTAVILLA FEMALE SEMENARY,

Three quarters of a mile from Yadkin College, and entirely separate from it, now offers, in its boarding arrangements in the family of the Rev. G. W.
